Paul Hembekides' Baseball Blog

April 23, 2012

This past week began with a "bang," with our annual game at Fifth Third Field in Dayton. We knocked off Ohio Christian for a third time this season in front of hundreds in attendance. Promotions and special events were at a premium between innings, giving the game a minor league baseball feel to it. Game highlights included a towering home run by Nate Davenport and a few overpowering fast balls from Ryan Ledbetter in the ninth. The radar gun was the center of attention when Ryan came in to close, as he hit "93" twice.

Ryan Ledbetter

As always, the sport management class and the Dragons staff did a wonderful job organizing the anticipated event. On behalf of our entire team, thanks so much for your hard work! It was really appreciated.

The remainder of the week included a split up in Canton against Malone and a three-game (and season) sweep over Oakland City on Friday and Saturday. Our bats came alive in the weekend set, as we put together 35 runs in the three games including an 18-run outburst in our game Saturday. The 5-1 week improved our season mark to 29-9.

The upcoming week promises to be a challenging one for us, with a Tuesday nine-inning game at Wilmington and four against Urbana this weekend. If all goes according to plan, we'll break Cedarville baseball's single-season wins record (33) over the weekend. The 33-win mark was set a season ago.

Tune in next week to recap what should be a record-breaking week for Yellow Jacket baseball!

Cam McWilliams belted a three-run homer as part of the offensive showing. Cedarville had eight extra-base hits and 17 total in the contest.

The Yellow Jackets, 30-9 overall, scored in every inning but two. They rolled up a 19-4 bulge until the Quakers scored five times in their final at bat.

Head Coach Mike Manes

Mike Manes (pronounced MAN-us) has been the head baseball coach at Cedarville University since 2008. He has guided the Yellow Jackets to their four winningest seasons in school history and three trips to the NCCAA National Tournament.

Cedarville set a school record for the most victories in a season in 2011 with a 33-18-2 mark and had a best-ever five NCCAA All-Americans on the roster. It was also the first time in more than 30 years that the Yellow Jackets registered three consecutive winning seasons on the diamond.

CU copped the NCCAA Midwest Region banner for the second time in three years and returned to the NCCAA National Tournament. Manes was named the Region Coach of the Year.

Cedarville posted a 28-27 record in 2010. The Jackets were also the NCCAA Midwest Region runner-up.

Manes was named the 2009 NCCAA Midwest Region Coach of the Year after leading Cedarville to the region title. The Yellow Jackets won over 30 games for the first time in school history with their 32-28 record and split four games at the NCCAA Nationals.

Cedarville was the Midwest Region runner-up in Manes' first season in 2008. The Jackets set a then school record for the most victories in season with 23. They also won eight games in the tough American Midwest Conference which equaled their league win total from the previous three seasons combined.

Manes came to the Yellow Jackets following a four-year stay as head coach at Trinity International University near Chicago. He was able to turn the TIU program around after inheriting a team that won just four games in his first season in 2004 and the school had never qualified for the conference tournament.

Manes then guided the Trojans to 85 victories over the next three seasons by winning 25, 28, and 32 games, respectively, which set school records for the most victories in a season each time. The 2006 squad put together TIU's first-ever winning season and the 2007 team finished 32-22.

In his short tenure, Manes guided the Trojans to their first-ever conference tournament appearance, two NCCAA North Central Region championships, and TIU played in the NCCAA National Tournament in each of his last three seasons. He was tabbed the 2005 NCCAA North Central Region Coach of the Year.

The Nebraska native previously founded and coached the Lincoln Crusaders which is an American Legion baseball club. In his 11 years at the helm, the team made nine trips to the state tournament winning one championship and finishing as the runner-up on two other occasions.

Manes is actively involved in baseball administration. He is currently the NCCAA baseball chair as well as the chair of the Great Midwest Athletic Conference which is the newest NCAA Division II conference.

Manes is a 1989 graduate of Liberty University and he earned a master's degree in 2005 from Alameda University. Mike and his wife, Connie, reside in Springfield and have four married children and five grandchildren.
