Lady Jacket Volleyball Blog

November 11, 2013

Happy Monday everyone! Let another week of craziness and far too much coffee begin. As the volleyball team blogger, I always start my week by reminiscing over the last week, deciding what to highlight and how to show you what it's like to be on the volleyball team. The sad thing is, most of the time I have to look over the volleyball page on the Cedarville website to remember what happened last week. I'm getting old.

So here goes...another weekly update from yours truly.

Monday: Practice, scouting report, weights, but no dinner from Ang :(looking forward to enjoying her delicious cooking once again tonight!

Tuesday: Match against IU East. This team has become a rivalry of ours over the past few years and playing them is always competitive and fun. This year we won in three sets, despite the fact that we started that match slower than molasses. But we warmed up a bit, especially after a little "talking to" from coach during the 10-minute break, and we cleaned up our act in the third set.

Wednesday: Practice was so fun today. I mean, it's fun every day but especially today because we played rapid fire and a drill called "brown bag" where you play six on six rapid fire style (no serving, just tossing the ball to whichever team won the previous point) but you don't know what score you're playing to. So one person will pick a number out of the brown bag without looking and the two teams will compete until one team reaches the certain number of points. It's probably my favorite drill.

Thursday: On Thursdays we have practice later than normal, from 6 to 8:30 pm. Today we did our day-before-a-game practice, which consists of triples, serve and pass, and scrimmaging.

Friday: No practice! Wooooo! (Don't get me wrong, I love volleyball but sometimes it is nice to have a break)

Saturday: Match against Central State. I am really thankful for the chance to play them twice every year because of the relationships we are able to form with the girls on their team. After the match, we prayed with them and then we received notes as well as gave them. It was so sweet. We really hope to be able to keep those friendships going, especially since we're practically neighbors!

This week is the last of our regular season. Friday night we play Trevecca Nazarene at 7 o'clock and Saturday we play Kentucky Wesleyan at 1 o'clock. These are very important matches and if we win both, we will host the G-MAC Tournament, which would be fantastic. So we need all the cheering fans we can get! Hope to see you all there!

Stephanie Rogers is a senior media and communications major from Carmel, Ind. She is in her final season with the Lady Jackets as an NCCAA All-America middle hitter.

Meet Coach Doug Walters

Doug Walters has been the head volleyball coach at Cedarville University since 2008. He is the sixth head coach in the program's history and the first male to serve in the capacity.

The Lady Jackets have posted 114 victories during Walters' four-year tenure. During the school's first active season in NCAA Division II in 2012, his squad rolled to a 32-6 overall mark and was a perfect 8-0 in the Great Midwest Athletic Conference.

Cedarville went on to win the inaugural G-MAC Tournament. Walters was ultimately voted the league's Coach of the Year.

Walters' first season with the Lady Jackets in 2008 was a memorable one as he guided the program to its third National Christian College Athletic Association title in four years. He was tabbed the NCCAA National Coach of the Year.

Cedarville finished with a 27-12 record overall that season and tied for fourth place out of 15 teams in the American Midwest Conference with a 10-4 mark. The Lady Jackets qualified for the AMC Tournament and advanced to the semifinals.

CU was 15-23 overall in 2009. However, the Lady Jackets were the #2 seed in the AMC Tournament after going 8-4 in the league. The Jackets were 18-20 and 6-4 AMC in 2010 while advancing to the semifinals of the conference tournament.

Cedarville finished with a 22-18 mark in 2011 during the school's NCAA provisional year and was the No. 1 seed in the Ohio Independent Championship Tournament.

Walters came to Cedarville after assembling a 128-73 record in nine years of high school coaching in southern Ohio. He spent his last two seasons at the prep level at Milford High School, a Division I program near Cincinnati.

Walters previously spent seven years building Eastern High School in Sardinia into one of the top Division III programs in Ohio. The Warriors, who were ranked in the state's Top 10 in three different seasons, won four conference titles, two sectional championships, and were the district runner-up once. He was a four-time conference Coach of the Year and saw eight players continue their careers at the collegiate level.

Walters is the founder and former director of the Greater Miami Volleyball Club. The GMVC was started in 2003 and is a Junior Olympic organization that has quickly built a reputation as one of the top regional clubs in Cincinnati.

Walters continues to be involved at the club level. He is the Elevation Volleyball Club 17's National Team Coach based out of Mason, Ohio.

Additionally, Walters is the volleyball chair of the Great Midwest Athletic Conference. He serves as the G-MAC rep to the AVCA Division II Head Coaches Committee and is a member of the AVCA National Poll Committee.

Walters is a 1997 graduate of Northern Kentucky University and he earned his master's degree from the University of Dayton in 2003. Doug and his wife, Angela, reside in Morrow, Ohio with their daughter Caitlyn, 11.
