The 2011-12 Ohio Independent Championships are post-season playoffs involving seven institutions in select sports with competition completed before the NCAA Division II regional and national tournaments.

Participating schools include Division II members Central State University and Urbana University as well as five schools, who are currently in the Division II membership process - Cedarville University, Malone University, Notre Dame College, Ursuline College (women's only), and Walsh University. Cedarville, Central State, Urbana and Ursuline are charter members of the Great Midwest Athletic Conference (G-MAC). Walsh and Malone will be full members of the Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (GLIAC) next season with Notre Dame being an associate member.
