President's Message

Cedarville College has come through a depression and the war in splendid shape. During the war years the current operating budget was balanced; this year it will be over $100,000. Our faculty has been enlarged to 15. Our student body has grown until we have 240 different students during the year. Our athletic program has been given wide publicity and attracted many students.

During the war it was impossible to make repairs, renew furnaces or build buildings. Since 1945 we have spent $10,000 to replace 7 furnaces, paint the buildings and repair our property. Our need was to house students and provide equipment. During this period we purchased the Rife House. We received a building from Patterson Field which has been dismantled, brought to our campus and erected into a splendid dormitory for 65 men. We also received a building from the Federal Works Agency for study and recreation. Two laboratory buildings from the Federal Works Agency remain to be erected. War surplus equipment in the amount of approximately $50,000 has been received.

Dramatics Club

Under the capable direction of Miss Carrie Rife, the Dramatics Club has completed a most entertaining season.

The culmination of many weeks' rehearsals was the night of December 11, when the players presented the American comedy, "The Man Who Came To Dinner", a merciless cartoon of Alexander Woollcott's bad manners, shameless egoism, bountiful mischief, and widely assorted friendships. Arthur "Curly" Harkins did a magnificent impersonation of the eccentric "Man". A cast of twenty-eight appeared in the presentation.

Class room time for the Dramatics Club is spent in the discussion of plays currently appearing on Broadway, recording excerpts from these plays, and discussing the techniques of play production.

Mixed Chorus

PRACTICE

Music Department

The Cedarville College Mixed Chorus directed by Mrs. Mildred B. Creswell gave several public performances during the year 1947-1948. It sang at the Men's Bible Reading Contest, the Girls' Bible Reading Contest, Baccalaureate, and Commencement. A special sacred concert was given in the spring at Cedarville and at churches in two other towns. A splendid group of students enjoyed the activity this year, and the audiences who heard them sing were warm in their praise of the quality of singing done.

THEORY

Quartette

. . . . in chapel

The college quartet was revived in the fall semester and a large repertoire of classical, romantic, and humorous numbers was developed. Besides participating in chapel services, the quartet made frequent appearances at high schools and churches in neighboring towns.

Second row: Ila McLaughlin, Sally Flannery, Donna Lorton, Naomi Conner.
Third row: Charlotte Collins, Eleanor Weismiller, Kathleen Evans, Marie Fisher.

The members of the Y. W. C. A. are especially proud of their organization this school year of 1947-48 for a number of reasons. First, and very important, is the fact that the Cedarville College Y.W.C.A. became affiliated with the National Student Y. W.C.A. Through this the members have received such privileges as corresponding with foreign students, taking part in state and nationwide conferences, receiving a great variety of religious literature, and contributing to the World's Student Christian Federation.

In October, the Y. W. sponsored a candy sale in the administration building. Home-made candy was brought for sale by each of the girls and was purchased by the faculty and student body. On November 4 the group sponsored a Tag Day. Each individual donated some time during the day for selling the tags in the down-town district. They felt sure that their time had not been wasted when a total income of $45.50 was reported.

The annual Committal Service was presented on November 9 in the Methodist Church with Miss Marie Fisher serving as president and leader of the devotional program.

Rings and pins were purchased by some of the members. The triangular shaped pins were of sterling silver with a fire-blue bar reading "Y. W. C. A." across the top. The triangle is the symbolic emblem of the organization. The rings were similar in appearance.

During December the Y. W. girls were busy selling Christmas cards. On December 16 the annual Christmas party was held at Harriman Hall. The evening began with the group singing carols at different homes in the village and was climaxed with a gift exchange and chili supper at the dormitory. A Valentine dance was sponsored in conjunction with the Y. M. C. A. Spring activities were successful and the group is looking forward to another active year.

Young Men's Christian Association

Second row: James Bradford, William Metterhouse, Kenneth Dailey, James Rowe, Louis Hrkman, Ralph Schafer, Kenneth Wilburn, Wendell Cultice, Edwin Ryan, Ray Glenn, Robert Impson, Keith Rogers, Robert Filer, Adolph Maslar, Eugene Sallie, Don Barger, Dillard Marcum, Norman Potts.

Traditionally one of the most active of Cedarville's student groups, the Y. M. C. A. returned to its former place of prominence during the school year of 1947-48. Under the sponsorship of Professor Frederick Carlson the local chapter was revived after the inactivity of the war years when there was not a sufficient number of men on the campus to continue the group.

A chapel service each semester has been presented by the Y. M. C. A. Social activities included dinners, parties, and a dance sponsored in cooperation with the Y. W. C. A. Arrangements were made to enjoy the facilities of Y. M. C. A. centers in near-by cities.

James Rowe has served as president, Conner Merritt as vice-president, Wendell Cultice, secretary; and Adolph Maslar, treasurer.

First row: Harkins, Wiseman, Price, Cultice, Merritt, Warner.
Second row: M. Tannehill, Irvine, Hawker, Flannery, Hawker, Conner, Weismiller.
Third row: Collins, Evans, Fisher, Wilburn, Dailey, Impson.

Caravaners

For years Cedarville College has maintained a group of Students known as the Gospel Team who have subscribed to the principles of Godliness both in action and in thoughts. They have demonstrated so by appearing at various churches and schools throughout the county and state. They function as a team and their program is devoted wholly to carrying the message of Jesus Christ in song and story.

When the semester of September, 1947 commenced, the nucleus for a gospel team was a meager one indeed. There were exactly four members from which to inaugurate a team. Past president Conner Merritt conducted a person-to-person program to increase the number and did not cease action until he had formed an entourage of some twenty members.

At the next meeting officers were elected and a new name, THE CARAVANERS, was suggested. It is not difficult to deduce reasons for such a title when one considers the caravans of old. In those days, great ensembles of camels and drivers trekked across the deserts of Arabia and Egypt bearing the priceless gifts, incense, myrrh, and rare metals of merchants and kings. Today the Caravan of Cedarville College treks across highways and crossroads bearing the Word of Jesus Christ to all who will listen. The Son of God is very often the only ray of hope to which a tired and bewildered people may turn. The Caravan carries this ray of light and in so doing feels a sense of gratitude for the opportunity.

There are no outstanding members of the Caravan. Each person contributes his share. Someone reads a portion of the Scriptures, another sings a hymnal solo, still another reads a religious poem, another leads the group in prayer. Always one of the Caravan prepares a brief message which enhances the milieu of those attending the program.

Seventh row: Strick, Harkins, Fisher, Filer, Watkins, Gutzwiller, Skillings.

The A. J. Hostetler chapter of the F. T. A. was formally organized February 11, 1948. The Cedarville chapter was named for the late Professor Hostetler, director of the department of education, whose ability and skill remain an inspiration to future teachers.

During the period of organizing the group much interest was aroused and fifty students from the education department became members. It is expected that all future teachers will join the chapter and gain its benefits.

Meetings are held once each month with an interesting and educational program. Well known speakers and educators are invited. Interest in teaching is maintained by reading and discussing articles in periodicals each member receives.

Professor Beattie, who encouraged the formation of the local chapter, is faculty advisor for the group. Officers are: Rollie Barton, president; Conner Merritt, vice-president; Kathleen Evans, secretary; Marie Fisher, treasurer; Robert Impson, librarian; William Troute, historian; Kenneth Huffman, parliamentarian; Eleanor Weismiller, song leader.

The Chi Mu Delta Fraternity is in one of its most prosperous and active years at Cedarville College. Officers were elected at the beginning of the school year and plans were made for the pledging of new members shortly thereafter. After a pledge period six new brothers were officially sworn in at a fete held in their honor at the Old Mill Camp on November 3.

A Halloween party was the first social event provided by the fraternity for the entertainment of the entire student body. Dancing and cake walks were enjoyed and a new, popular recreation was introduced in the "Hit Little Ernie" game with Earnest Foster as the target.

An effort was made to establish contact with fraternity members who have graduated and left Cedarville. To continue the relationship after school days, the fraternity initiated plans for purchasing or erecting a house. The house will provide a rooming place for members in school and a meeting place for alumni who return to see the progress made by the fraternity and Cedarville College

Chi Sigma Phi

The Chi Sigma Phi sorority, only sorority on the campus at present, was organized in 1935. The sorority holds several social activities during the year. One of the most important of these is the pledge party. Girls are pledged each semester. Once a year the sorority sponsors a dance for the entire student body.

At the beginning of the second semester Donna Watkins resigned as president and was succeeded by Kathleen Evans. Helen Tannehill is vice-president; Ellen Hawker, secretary-treasurer, and Patty Grieve, news reporter.

Another organization to resume activity during the school year of 1947-48 is the Student Council. Each class elected representatives to the Council in September, officers were picked, and plans for the annual Homecoming were begun. A parade, presentation of the queen and attendants at the Homecoming football game, and a semi-formal dance were sponsored by the Council for the day's program.

To determine the functions of typical student government groups, a survey was made of the work done by them in other

Ohio colleges. One new responsibility accepted by the Cedarville College Council was to sponsor each Monday's assembly. A committee prepared a calendar of programs to be presented by the student organizations and the plan was followed successfully. The Student Council was also instrumental in reviving the Cedrus by polling the student body for prospective purchasers.

Carl Watkins served as president, William Troute as vice-president, and Margaret Sheley as secretary-treasurer.

Thirteen Pennsylvanians attending Cedarville College met during the second semester of the school year to form a new campus organization, the Pennsylvania Fraternity. One of the main objectives of the group is to help new students from Pennsylvania adapt themselves to college life. Meetings are scheduled twice each month. The state's insignia, a keystone, has been selected as an emblem for fraternity pins.

Professor Jurkat was elected faculty advisor, Professor Beattie, an honorary member, and Harold Machamer, president of the group. Other officers are: Lou Hrkman, vice-president; Park King, secretary-treasurer; Dick Brown, chaplain; Bob Kitting, sgt. at arms; and Jay Check, publicity agent.

The Cedrus Staff

The '48 Cedrus marks the return of Cedarville's annual review after an absence of six years. Although past editions were consulted, the staff attempted to modernize the book and produce one "new and different." Every step was carefully considered in the light of journalistic value, entertainment merit, and economic advantage. It is the sincere desire of all those who have worked on this annual that it shall be a storehouse of memories to be appreciated in the future.

SEASON'S RECORD

Cedarville-0 - Findlay-51

The Yellow Jackets opened the 1947 Football parade in Ohio at Cox Field and were, (badly) outclassed by the Findlay Oilers, one of the State's top teams.

Cedarville-13 - Georgetown-13

A last minute touchdown by the desperate Georgetown Tigers gave them a tie after the yellow jackets had led from the first quarter. Earnest Foster, Cedarville quarterback, highlighted the game by his spectacular 104 yard return of a kick-off. In the second quarter Eldon Grothwohl scored on a reverse around right end and Don Barger converted.

Cedarville-13 - Canterbury-0

Earnest Stanley recovered a Canterbury fumble in the end zone and Don Barger converted to give the Jackets an early lead in their homecoming contest. Ben McNulty's line smash from the six yard line increased the margin over the Knights from Canterbury, Indiana.

Cedarville-9 - Bluffton

A Dad's night victory for the Cedarville eleven who capitalized on their opponent's errors to cinch their second win. Richard Pratt, Freshman quarterback, was outstanding in this contest.

Cedarville-8 - Detroit Tech-6

The Jackets defeated a powerful Detroit eleven for the second year in succession. Playing on their home field, Detroit led 6-0 at half time. In the third period Forrest Moler tackled a Tech halfback in their end zone for two points. Late in the final quarter Shorty Foster snared a pass in the end zone for the winning touchdown.

Cedarville-0 - Ferris Tech-12

The hard driving Ferris Tech eleven from Big Rapids, Michigan snapped the Jackets winning streak with a plunge from the seven during the second quarter and an intercepted pass in the final period.

Cedarville-0 - Rose Poly-0

Fumbles plagued the Jackets in their scoring attempts against the heavier Indiana team. Rose Poly threatened repeatedly in the second half.

Cedarville-0 - Ashland-18

The Jackets ended their '47 season at Ashland on a muddy rain drenched field. The Cedarville backs were unable to break away while Ashland capitalized on their superior weight. This was the final game for "Chink" Jewell, selected as an all-state guard AP newswriter. Ben McNulty also won a place in the back field on the mythical eleven.

Basketball

Cedarville College's Yellow Jackets saw action against some of the top teams in the mid-west during the 1947-48 season and competed in two invitational tournaments. At mid-season they were invited to the mid-west Basketball Tournament at Terre Haute, Indiana where a classy Southeastern Oklahoma five eliminated them in the first round. For the second year in succession, however, the Jackets copped the Ohio Valley intercollegiate tournament crown.

Baseball

Baseball ranks as a major sport at Cedarville College. During the early season in-door work-outs in the gymnasium helped to get the players in shape for the season.

The '47 record was five wins in eight games. The 5-1 victory over Xavier University with Marcus Townsley on the mound was one of the season highlights. Townsley also threw a one hitter against Findlay in the opener. With the climax of the season, Virgil "Birdie" McNulty closed his illustrious athletic career at Cedarville.

Homecoming

One of the most colorful events of the school year at Cedarville is Homecoming Day, observed in 1947 on October 4. Pleasant weather, a beautiful queen, and a football victory combined to make the day a success.

A parade from the college to Cox Field began the program. During half-time of the homecoming game the queen, Mrs. Jay Check, and her attendants, Mrs. Carl Watkins and Miss Beatrice Knecht were introduced to the alumni. An alumni banquet was held in Alford Memorial Gymnasium in the evening and the annual homecoming dance ended the day's festivities.

The queen and attendants were elected by student votes. Mrs. Check is a freshman in the education department and Cedarville's only woman veteran, Mrs. Watkins is a senior, Miss Knecht a sophomore.

Queen

In Memoriam

A. J. HOSTETLER

"None of us lives to himself, and none of us dies to himself. If we live, we live to the Lord, and if we die, we die to the Lord: so then, whether we live or whether we die, we are the Lord's. For to this end Christ died and lived again, that he might be Lord both of the dead and the living." Rom.14:7-9

Professor and Mrs. A. J. Hostetler met their death in an automobile accident on February 13, 1948. Professor Hostetler was Dean of Education at Cedarville College for the past twenty years. He taught many classes during that period and influenced hundreds of students.

His failure to pass an examination for certification as a teacher when he was seventeen may account for his later success. He was in turn a class-room teacher, principal, county school supervisor, director of a normal school, and finally dean of education at Cedarville. At his death, he had completed nearly fifty years of teaching. Many school superintendents eagerly sought graduates of Cedarville College, confident that they would have good character and a sound basis of scholarship.

One of his colleagues paid him a remarkable tribute when she said he was one of those rare teachers who can lift a student to heights of which he did not know himself capable. She congratulated the students who had been privileged to study with him. Long ago, two pupils said, "Did not our hearts burn within us, while he talked to us by the way and while he opened to us the scriptures?"
