BULLETIN OF CEDARVILLE COLLEGE

A BAPTIST COLLEGE of ARTS & SCIENCES

Cedarville, Ohio

"For the WORD of GOD and the TESTIMONY of JESUS CHRIST."

ART ACTIVITIES

The new Art Department, under the direction of Mr. J. Emerson Russell, is going forward in a fine way already fulfilling some of the objectives which were projected last year.

The course in beginning drawing shows special promise. The front cover of this issue presents an ink sketch by Miriam Greiner, one of the students in drawing. Ink is one of the media employed in drawing, the others being pencil and charcoal. Because of particular and gratifying effects that can only be achieved in ink, Mr. Russell is employing the medium in some special class exercises in the department.

The advanced students will be drawing from the costumed figure. The students will alternate by modeling each other. Starting with the full length figure, the artists will later draw various details of the figure, such as head (portrait), features, etc.

The advanced painting students are now producing studies involving copy-work, pure-creation or fantasie, and later on-the-spot landscape studies.

All who visit the college are invited to view the work of the students displayed in the art room.

FACULTY

Dale Thomson

George Lawlor

Mr. Dale Thomson has returned to Cedarville College this fall after a year's leave of absence, during which time he did graduate work at Ohio State University. While attending Ohio State on a Government Grant from the National Science Foundation, he was able to complete the necessary work for his Master's Degree in Embryology. The degree was granted on August 24, 1962.

Before coming to Cedarville, Mr. Thomson taught in the Miami Christian School in Florida. In 1957 he was called to Cedarville and he is now beginning his sixth year with the college.

Mr. Thomson views higher education as "a must in modern society." He goes on to say, "Higher education permeated with the Christian philosophy is desperately needed in this day and age. Cedarville College is helping to fulfill this need and because of this I am grateful for the opportunity to be associated with this institution."

Mr. George Lawlor, Assistant Professor of Bible, has returned to Cedarville College this fall after a year's leave of absence, during which time he worked on his Doctorate at Grace Theological Seminary. With his residence work now completed, he is working on his thesis and expects to receive his Doctor's Degree next summer.

Mr. Lawlor came to Cedarville in 1959 with 10 years teaching experience and 16 years pastoral experience. In the following paragraphs he tells what the Lord has meant to him.

"Through the years the grace and mercy of God have been something at which I shall never cease to marvel. The Lord's faithfulness to me has been unfailing and unchanging, and His Word continues to be a bulwark of comfort, assurance, and strength, as well as the one and only sound rule of faith and life.

"It is good to be back home again, and to be, once more, a part of the college family. It is my sincere and honest conviction that God has raised up Cedarville College for the training and equipping of Christian young people to contend earnestly for the faith in such a time as this. Hence it is indeed a great and inestimable privilege to serve on the faculty of Cedarville College, and to engage in a service that can only be the result of a definite call.

"I pray that Cedarville College shall remain true to the Word of God and the testimony of Jesus Christ, and that the young people who go from its halls shall be good soldiers of the Lord, remembering that their strength is in the grace that is in Christ Jesus."

NEW EQUIPMENT

The Bulletin of Cedarville College is being mailed to interested churches and individuals all over the country. Presently we are printing 27,000 copies each month. We are making every effort to increase this circulation so that many more will become acquainted with the program of the college.

In order to increase the speed of addressing this printed material, the college recently purchased Scriptomatic addressing equipment. Pictured here with the machine are Mrs. Ruby Jeremiah and Mrs. Ruth Underwood, the two members of our staff who are responsible for maintaining and using the college mailing list.

A number of our churches have asked for copies of the Bulletin to be used as church bulletin inserts. We are happy to furnish them each month free of charge. Write to us today and indicate how many you can profitably use in your church.

RETURN REQUESTED

PROSPECTIVE
STUDENTS DAY

The young people of our churches are always welcome to visit Cedarville. We are happy to have them on our campus and in the classroom.

At this time we extend a special invitation to high school juniors, seniors, and graduates to attend Prospective Students Day on March 15th.

You will be our guests in the cafeteria for the noon and evening meals. This includes your pastor and counsellor too. We are sorry we do not have the facilities to offer you overnight entertainment.

Classes begin at 8:00 a. m. You are urged to come to the campus early, consult a class schedule and visit the classes of your choice. Opportunities will be given for discussion about the college and its opportunities for a Christian education. Members of the admissions committee will meet with the prospective students to outline admissions standards and procedures.

An evening program, under the direction of the College music department, will conclude the days activities with the presentation of a variety of musical numbers by several campus vocal and instrumental groups.

The church basketball tournament for players of high school age which is sponsored by the Cedarville College Varsity "C" will be in progress March 15, 16. Teams interested in participating in this tournament should contact Mr. Don Callan, Cedarville's athletic director, at their earliest convenience.
