Taylor Vander Plas' Weekly Blog

November 17, 2015

Choose joy - this phrase has been the theme of our week. The grind of everyday practice and twice-a-week lifting, plus finding time for homework assignments and exams can get you down sometimes. But during a family meeting at Bible study, we reminded ourselves of when we were younger and how we used to dream of being college basketball players. For a lot of us, this opportunity is a dream come true, and how can you not have joy when you're living your dreams? Sometimes, joy is a choice that goes completely against your nature, and sometimes it comes more naturally. But the Bible tells us to "Rejoice Always," so we are choosing to do so as we use the gifts God has given us to play college basketball.

Thursday morning, we traveled the four hours to Philippi, WV, to play two tough opponents, and as KJ said, "West Virginia is the worst state in Ohio." (Yes, you read that right.) We spent those four hours singing along to what we consider "oldies-but-goodies" even though Coach Martin told us he had never heard the songs. That is, until we stumbled upon Justin Bieber and the High School Musical soundtrack - then he sang right along with us. I think I even heard Steve tapping his fingers to the beat.

Thursday we were able to practice at Alderson Broaddus, but Friday morning for our walk-through, we decided to stay a little closer to the hotel. We were forbidden to post pictures of the Rec Center on social media, but let me explain it to you. Red tile-ish floors, double rims, and a court that spanned about half the length of a normal college basketball floor. But with grateful hearts we were able to get some shots up and run through the game plan for Ashland later that night.

Friday and Saturday we went up against two very tough opponents, and unfortunately did not come out on top. But, as Flunk says, "Losses often teach us more than wins." So we are taking these games as learning opportunities, being encouraged by the effort we showed, and focusing on getting better and better. Saturday was an especially difficult game, as we took Ohio Dominican University into double overtime. We were missing Abby, KJ, and Reggie due to injuries, but we had lots of players step up and we didn't skip a beat. I am proud of the toughness my teammates showed during these games and am looking forward to going to battle with them again Tuesday at Indianapolis and then Saturday right here in Cedarville vs. Tiffin!

We would appreciate your prayers for our three injured players

(Reggie, KJ, and Abby) that they would heal fully and quickly so that they can get back out on the court with us and stay there!

Here's some more encouragement from Kid President,

"It's like that dude Journey said, 'Don't stop believing, unless your dream is stupid, then you should get a better dream.' I think that's how it goes. Get a better dream then keep goin', keep goin', keep goin', and keep goin'!"

Today's Honorary Coach

Cindy Wingert
Assistant Professor of Biology
Cedarville University

"I have been fortunate to be in Professor Wingert's classes for the last three semesters. Her love for Jesus is so obvious in her prayers for us and in the way she teaches. She is passionate and knowledgeable about her subject and instills the same awe in her students that she has for God's creation. In her Anatomy classes I have learned the true meaning of "fearfully and wonderfully made." I am so thankful for Professor Wingert and for the opportunities she has given me. She is a wonderful professor, a devoted follower of Christ and someone who I truly look up to."

INDIANAPOLIS - Kaysie Brittenham sparked a fourth quarter run that propelled injury-riddled Cedarville to a 47-44 non-conference victory at Indianapolis.

The Lady Jackets, 1-2, trailed 43-34 with 5:25 to go before catching fire. Brittenham's three-pointer with 1:00 left gave CU its first lead of the game, 44-43.

Two free throws by Taylor Vander Plas with 10 seconds to play provided a 47-43 margin, but it wasn't over.

The Greyhounds, 0-3, made one free throw and missed the second with four seconds remaining, but the rebound went out of bounds off CU. UNdy misfired a three-pointer at the buzzer.

Brittenham finished with 18 points - nine of which came in the fourth quarter on a trio of three-pointers. Breanne Watterworth totaled 10 points and 11 rebounds.

Cedarville was playing without starters Kayla Linkous and Abby Wolford as well as top reserve Regina Hochstetler - all sidelined with injuries.

Numbers Game:

- Brittenham scored 16 of her points in the second half going 4-for-5 outside the arc.
- CU held the hosts to 21 percent shooting in the second half and 29 percent for the game.
- The Jackets had a 40-38 edge in rebounding.
- The teams combined to shoot just 9-for-13 from the free throw line.
- The last time the Lady Jackets scored less than 50 points and won was 48-47 at Bluffton on Jan. 12, 1991.

Looking Ahead

Cedarville visits the Bulldogs of Ferris State University this Tuesday, November 24 in a 5:30 pm non-conference tip-off.

The Lady Jackets return home after Thanksgiving on Tuesday, December 1 when they host the Ohio Christian University Trailblazers. The non-conference matchup is scheduled for 5:30 pm. CU will be home for three more non-league games - Wilberforce, Mount Vernon Nazarene and Urbana - before heading to Alaska on December 19-20.

G-MAC Women's Basketball

Player of the Week

(Nov. 9-15, 2015)

Sarah Raby

Trevecca • Junior • Lynchburg, TN

GREENWOOD, Ind. – Trevecca Nazarene junior forward Sarah Raby was named the first Great Midwest Athletic Conference Women's Basketball Athlete of the Week for 2015-16.

Raby carved out impressive averages over opening weekend around the G-MAC, posting double-double stretches against Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (GLIAC) opponents Findlay and Ferris State.

As part of TNU-hosted Pops Duncan Classic in Nashville, the Trojans salvaged a split as TNU began the post-Kaci Britt Bell and Christina Curtner era.

Raby shouldered a large amount of the offensive load and fiercely crashed the glass to lead her team in both categories.

The junior forward averaged 21.5 points per game and 12 rebounds per contest. She also shot over 68 percent (15-of-22) from the field and made 12-of-15 shots at the charity stripe.

Against Findlay, an incoming G-MAC member institution for 2016-17, the Trojans outscored the Oilers in the second half, but couldn't overcome a 20-point halftime gap.

Raby sank 6-of-10 shots from the field and finished with 18 points to go with nine rebounds. She also handed out four assists from her position in the post.

The Trojans ripped through Ferris State after outscoring the Bulldogs 51-22 through first two quarters.

Raby was a force on both ends of the floor again, this time erupting for 25 points to go with 15 rebounds, including six on the offensive end of the floor. Her efficiency was notable again by missing just three shots of her 12 taken while she chipped in a block and steal.

Head Coach Kirk Martin

Kirk Martin has been the head women's basketball coach at Cedarville University since the 2001-02 season. After building the Lady Jackets into one of the top NAIA programs in the country, he has guided them to a successful transition in NCAA Division II.

Martin's teams have averaged 25.6 wins per season during his tenure. CU has amassed one NCCAA title, two NAIA Division II national runner-up finishes, and seven conference championships.

Prior to Martin's arrival, the Lady Jackets had won 20 games in a season twice. He has accomplished the feat 12 times including back-to-back 35-win campaigns in 2004 and 2005.

Cedarville posted an impressive 27-4 mark in 2014-15 and earned the program's first-ever bid to the NCAA Division II Tournament. The Lady Jackets, who won the G-MAC regular season (15-1) and tournament titles, were ranked as high as 17th in the USA TODAY Sports Coaches' Poll.

Cedarville posted an 18-10 record in 2013-14 and was 13-3 in the G-MAC. The women were among the G-MAC leaders the entire season and advanced to the league tournament semifinals.

The Lady Jackets ended up 20-10 in their first active NCAA season in 2012-13 and posted a 24-8 mark during its NCAA provisional year in 2011-12. CU captured the NCCAA Midwest Region banner each year, was the 2012 NCCAA runner-up, and also claimed the 2012 Ohio Independent Championship title.

Cedarville made its eighth and final appearance at the 2011 NAIA Division II National Tournament which featured a surprising run to the quarterfinals. The Lady Jackets knocked off perennial powers Saint Francis (Ind.) and Ozarks (Mo.) before losing to unbeaten Davenport (Mich.) to finish the season 24-10.

Martin guided Cedarville to five straight NAIA national tournament appearances from 2003 through 2007 including back-to-back runner-up finishes in 2004 and 2005. The Jackets ended up with a 17-8 record at the event with a semifinals achievement in 2007, quarterfinals efforts in 2006 and 2011, and a pair of second round showings.

Martin's club owned American Midwest Conference titles from 2003 through 2007 assembling an 86-4 record during that timespan. CU ran off three straight undefeated league campaigns in the AMC South Division from 2004 through 2006 which included a conference-record 72-game winning streak.

Martin was able to lead a young Lady Jacket squad to a strong finish and the NCCAA national title in 2008. He was named the NCCAA

National Coach of the Year.

Martin took over the coaching reigns at his alma mater in 2001-02 and promptly guided Cedarville to a 23-10 record - at the time a school record for the most wins in a single season. The Jackets posted a 15-5 mark to finish fourth in the 19-team AMC. They were the only league school to beat the top three teams in the standings and all three were ranked in the NAIA Division II Top 25.

Martin came to Cedarville after developing Southeastern High School into one of Ohio's elite Division IV girls' basketball programs. He brought with him an impressive list of credentials produced at a school where he was employed since graduating from Cedarville College in 1976. He earned his master's degree in Educational Administration from the University of Dayton in 1982.

Martin coached Southeastern, located just eight miles away in South Charleston, Ohio, to a 297-34 record for a .897 winning percentage during a coaching career that spanned 1986-97 and 1999-2001. He led the Trojans to the Ohio Division IV state championship in 1996, one state runner-up finish, and to 11 Kenton Trace Conference championships including ten straight. Southeastern assembled a 162-game KTC winning streak, won all 11 district title games they ever played in, and advanced to the Division IV Sweet 16 in 11 of his last 12 years.

Martin never had a losing season at Southeastern and earned numerous honors for his team's accomplishments. He was tabbed state Coach of the Year in 1989, was twice named Southwest District Coach of the Year, was a four-time District 9 Coach of the Year, and was a six-time Clark County Coach of the Year. He was inducted into the Cedarville University Athletic Hall of Fame in 1998 for his coaching accomplishments.

Kirk and his wife, Vicki, reside in Springfield. The Martins have three children, who are all Cedarville graduates: older daughter, Amy Fourman, who is a former Lady Jacket volleyball and basketball player, resides in Worthington, Ohio with her husband, Aaron, and their three children; younger daughter, Kelly Mangin, lives in Fairborn, Ohio with her husband, Bryan, and their two children; and son, Brent, is a former member of the Yellow Jacket golf and tennis teams, resides in Springfield, Ohio.

2015-16 Season Preview

CEDARVILLE, Ohio - The Lady Jackets will tackle a 28-game schedule in 2015-16 after coming off their most successful Division II season ever.

Cedarville finished 27-4 last winter, went 15-1 in the Great Midwest Athletic Conference, and then won the league's post-season tournament that did not include an automatic bid.

However, the Jackets landed an at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament to cap an incredible run.

CU will play 15 contests at home featuring perennial power Wayne State (Mich.) to highlight the non-conference visitors.

Fourteen (14) G-MAC games will be played in January and February. For the first time ever, the tournament champion will receive an automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament.

Quotable: Head Coach Kirk Martin

"Last year was a dream season finishing 27-4 especially with seven freshmen. We were really proud of that team to become the first to qualify for the NCAA Tournament, but we graduated two great players and two great leaders.

"This is the first year we have a really balanced schedule. While it's not overly difficult, there are some very tough opponents on it.

"We'll face three ranked opponents including Alaska Anchorage, who finished the regular season last year ranked #1 in the country.

"It will be a challenge, but having an automatic qualifier in our conference now doesn't put quite as much pressure on the regular season.

"The G-MAC schedule is sure to be difficult. A number of our teams have sincerely improved so we're going to have to play well."

Cedarville, Davis & Elkins Honored Again for Academic Success Rates

INDIANAPOLIS – Cedarville University and Davis & Elkins College headlined the Great Midwest Athletic Conference with Academic Success Rates of 90 percent or higher as released by the NCAA on Wednesday.

Cedarville and Davis & Elkins are among 27 NCAA Division II schools to be honored part of the Presidents' Award for Academic Excellence, now in its fifth year.

This is the third consecutive year that both Cedarville and D&E have received the Presidents' Award for Academic Excellence.

D&E had a reported ASR of 94 with UC-San Diego, Assumption and Seattle Pacific, while Cedarville's ASR of 91 tied four other schools.

For the first time, the University of the Sciences in Philadelphia led Division II with an Academic Success Rate of 99 percent, followed closely by Saint Michael's College, Point Loma Nazarene University and Bentley University, all of which achieved a 98 percent ASR.

For the second straight year, the Northeast-10 led Division II's 24 conferences in ASR rates, with five athletics programs posting scores of 90 percent or more.

The G-MAC ranked fifth among all 24 Division II conferences with ASR's of 90 percent or more.

"We are pleased by the increasing number of Division II schools whose student-athletes are earning Academic Success Rates of 90 percent or higher," said Judy Bense, president of the University of West Florida and chair of the Division II Presidents Council. "These schools and their students demonstrate the utmost dedication to success in the classroom and on the field, and we are proud of their efforts."

The Academic Success Rate is the percentage of student-athletes who graduate within six years of initial enrollment in college and includes virtually all Division II student-athletes, including transfers and those not receiving athletics scholarships.

The Division II ASR also captures about 51 percent more college athletes than the federal graduation rate. Unlike the federal graduation rate, the ASR also counts student-athletes who transfer to a school after initial enrollment elsewhere and removes from the rate student-athletes who leave school while academically eligible. The national ASR is 71 percent for student-athletes who entered college from 2005 through 2008.

Regardless of which measure is used, Division II college athletes graduate at a higher rate than the general student body. The federal rate for the 2008 entering class of student-athletes was 55 percent, compared to 49 percent for the general student body.
