EFFORT

This past week could've been viewed as the gauntlet. We had three games in five days with the first two being on the road. We knew that it would be a challenge but we also knew that it would require intentional effort.

We look forward to our contests with Bellarmine because they are a quality team and picking up another win from a recognized program in our region would definitely be to our advantage come post season. It's hard to know exactly what to say in regards to this game. We had a game plan, we really wanted to win, we knew how huge this opportunity was for us and we as players didn't follow through. Unfortunately we came up short. Yes, we are disappointed in the loss but the way I see it - we have so much to learn from this game. We learn what intentional effort really looks like whether it's sprinting to close out or encouraging our teammate as positively as we can from the bench. I also see a great deal of upside. If we approach each practice with a focus of getting better I really think our potential is limitless. We have so much talent and we will get better.

We moved forward and traveled to Tiffin and that game was just hard work. We were definitely beginning to feel a bit fatigued but were able to pull off the win down the stretch. We entered the locker room after the game and just had feelings of contentment because we won but we also were experiencing thoughts of "how did we pull that one off?" I think the easiest answer would be that we were in "it," effort-wise, for a full 40 minutes.

FINALLY we had our home opener on Saturday. We are thankful that the MVNU team made it safely due to an accident that they were behind as they traveled here. This game again was just hard work. We didn't play our best first half but came out and were more eager and energized in the second half to get the job done!

I'm not sure how many people know what we do as a team for our opponents for our home games and I don't say this to say "hey - look at what we do!" at all because it's not about that. It's about using this opportunity as a platform for the Lord and His purposes. This year our team decided to buy "I am Second" bracelets to give to each of our opponents. We also have a card that we write, explaining the reason we are "second" in addition to personalized messages to individuals. Our intention is to provide encouragement and share the Gospel in various ways. Typically we offer some way to contact us if they wish or have questions, etc. On top of the chance to pray with our opponent after each game, one of the most rewarding things is being contacted by the person you wrote your note to. This past week one of the players from MVNU contacted one of our players and just thanked her for the note and said how much it meant to her.

Sometimes, we don't need to do what seem like the "bigger" things to further His Kingdom. Sometimes it's rolling out a leather ball, tossing it through a net, and playing with passion. Sometimes it's writing a small note of encouragement.

Luke 12:48 says "... everyone to whom much was given, of much will be required...."

We have been given much, individually, and as a team. Sometimes all it takes is a little extra and intentional effort.

"I have sincerely appreciated being in Professor Shaw's class this semester. She is passionate about what it means to be a Biblical woman in a way that honors God within a culture that often rejects that. Her passion and love for the Word is truly evident in how she leads our class and in her personal life. I am thankful for the opportunity to learn from a Godly woman with such integrity and energy!"

Last Time Out

CEDARVILLE, Ohio - Raegan Ryan piled up 18 points, seven steals, and six assists to lead the Lady Jackets to an 82-61 non-conference win over Mount Vernon Nazarene in the 2014-15 home opener in the Callan Athletic Center on Saturday afternoon.

Cedarville, 4-1, overcame a sluggish start. The home side scored the final seven points of the first half to lead 33-23.

The Jackets quickly pushed the margin out to 16 in the first four minutes of the second period. The final score was the largest difference in the game.

Ryan, who is shooting .538 from the field this year, made 6-of-9 shots from the field. She averages a team-high 19 points per game.

Freshman Regina Hochstetler came off the bench with a career-high 15 points. Kayla Linkous made 5-for-6 shots including both of her three-point tries en route to 14 points.

Kaysie Brittenham added 11 points and five steals.

Cedarville shot 53 percent from the field and held MVNU to a 33 percent accuracy. The Jackets also forced eight more turnovers, 25-17.

G-MAC Women's Basketball

Player of the Week

(Nov. 16-22, 2014)

Kaysie Brittenham

Cedarville • Junior • Toledo, OH

Kaysie Brittenham has been named the G-MAC Women's Basketball Athlete of the Week, giving the Lady Jackets their second-straight Athlete of the Week to start the season. Brittenham guided the team to a 2-1 week with wins over Tiffin on the road and then against Mount Vernon Nazarene at home, while leading the team in scoring in a losing effort at Bellarmine.

In the first two games of the week, on the road at Bellarmine and at Tiffin, Brittenham scored a team-high 28 points and 22 points respectively. Against Bellarmine she went 10-17 from the floor, including going 4-7 from long range. She added a team-high six rebounds, along with two assists and two steals.

In the team's come-from-behind win at Tiffin, she led the team in scoring with 22 point on 9-15 shooting. She once again went 4-7 from long range, while adding four rebounds, four assists, and four steals.

The team trailed by 10 points with just over 10 minutes to play, she scored six of the next nine points for the Lady Jackets and assisted on the three-pointer. With 4:13 remaining she tied the game at 64-64 on a three-pointer, and then leading 67-66, she assisted on the final field goal of the game for Cedarville, which finished the game with four free throws to win 73-69.

In the final game of the week, Cedarville won 82-61 over MVNU, and in limited minutes Brittenham scored 11 points, including going 3-3 in the second half. She made three jumpers from behind the arc, had three rebounds, three assists, and five steals in the win.

For the week, she totaled 61 points (20.3 ppg), 13 rebounds, nine assists, and 11 steals, while shooting 55% (11-20) from long range. She now leads the G-MAC in steals (18) and three-pointers made (13). She is also second in assists to turnover ratio (15 assists to 10 turnovers).

Head Coach Kirk Martin

Kirk Martin has been the head women's basketball coach at Cedarville University since the 2001-02 season. After building the Lady Jackets into one of the top NAIA programs in the country, he has guided them to a successful transition in NCAA Division II.

Martin's teams have averaged 25.5 wins per season during his tenure. CU has amassed one NCCAA title, two NAIA Division II national runner-up finishes, and six conference championships.

Prior to Martin's arrival, the Lady Jackets had won 20 games in a season twice. He has accomplished the feat 11 times including back-to-back 35-win campaigns in 2004 and 2005.

Cedarville posted an 18-10 record last winter and was 13-3 in the Great Midwest Athletic Conference. The women were among the G-MAC leaders the entire season and advanced to the league tournament semifinals.

The Lady Jackets ended up 20-10 in their first active NCAA season in 2012-13 and posted a 24-8 mark during its NCAA provisional year in 2011-12. CU captured the NCCAA Midwest Region banner each year, was the 2012 NCCAA runner-up, and also claimed the 2012 Ohio Independent Championship title.

Cedarville made its eighth and final appearance at the 2011 NAIA Division II National Tournament which featured a surprising run to the quarterfinals. The Lady Jackets knocked off perennial powers Saint Francis (Ind.) and Ozarks before losing to unbeaten Davenport to finish the season 24-10.

Martin guided Cedarville to five straight NAIA national tournament appearances from 2003 through 2007 including back-to-back runner-up finishes in 2004 and 2005. The Jackets ended up with a 17-8 record at the event with a semifinals achievement in 2007, quarterfinals efforts in 2006 and 2011, and a pair of second round showings.

Martin's club owned American Midwest Conference titles from 2003 through 2007 assembling an 86-4 record during that timespan. CU ran off three straight undefeated league campaigns in the AMC South Division from 2004 through 2006 which included a conference-record 72-game winning streak.

Martin was able to lead a young Lady Jacket squad to a strong finish and the NCCAA national title in 2008. He was named the NCCAA National Coach of the Year.

Martin took over the coaching reigns at his alma mater in 2001-02 and promptly guided Cedarville to a 23-10 record - at the time a school record for the most wins in a single season. The Jackets posted a 15-5 mark to finish fourth in the 19-team AMC. They were the only league school to beat the top three teams in the standings and all three were ranked in the NAIA Division II Top 25.

Martin came to Cedarville after developing Southeastern High School into one of Ohio's elite Division IV girls' basketball programs. He brought with him an impressive list of credentials produced at a school where he was employed since graduating from Cedarville College in 1976. He earned his master's degree in Educational Administration from the University of Dayton in 1982.

Martin coached Southeastern, located just eight miles away in South Charleston, Ohio, to a 297-34 record for a .897 winning percentage during a coaching career that spanned 1986-97 and 1999-2001. He led the Trojans to the Ohio Division IV state championship in 1996, one state runner-up finish, and to 11 Kenton Trace Conference championships including ten straight. Southeastern assembled a 162-game KTC winning streak, won all 11 district title games they ever played in, and advanced to the Division IV Sweet 16 in 11 of his last 12 years.

Martin never had a losing season at Southeastern and earned numerous honors for his team's accomplishments. He was tabbed state Coach of the Year in 1989, was twice named Southwest District Coach of the Year, was a four-time District 9 Coach of the Year, and was a six-time Clark County Coach of the Year. He was inducted into the Cedarville University Athletic Hall of Fame in 1998 for his coaching accomplishments.

Kirk and his wife, Vicki, reside in Springfield. The Martins have three children, who are all Cedarville graduates: older daughter, Amy Fourman, who is a former Lady Jacket volleyball and basketball player, resides in Worthington, Ohio with her husband, Aaron, and their three children; younger daughter, Kelly Mangin, lives in Fairborn, Ohio with her husband, Bryan, and their two children; and son, Brent, is a former member of the Yellow Jacket golf and tennis teams, resides in Springfield, Ohio.

Jackets Succeed in Classroom

CEDARVILLE, Ohio - Cedarville University student-athletes continue to be just as impressive in the classroom as they are in the field of competition.

The Yellow Jackets remain among the best in Division II according to the recently released NCAA Academic Success Rate data.

CU tied for 12th nationally among 313 Division II schools in Federal Graduation Rate at 78 percent. The FGR computes the percentage of student-athletes, who earned their degree in the six-year window from the 2007-08 academic year through 2012-13.

The Academic Success Rate (ASR) calculates how student-athletes are making satisfactory progress toward a degree. Cedarville, at 91 percent, tied for 21st in the country in that category.

Fran Campbell, Assistant Academic Vice President for Student Success & University Registrar, proclaimed, "We are pleased to confirm that the academic success and graduation rates for our student-athletes remain very strong, and even improved in comparison with last year's commendable percentages.

"Although the graduation rate for our overall student body decreased slightly to 70% for this reporting cycle, this rate for our student-athletes increased to 78%. This is a notable comparison which reflects very positively on the quality and achievements of our student-athletes!"

According to the NCAA report, the FGR for all Division II student-athletes across the country is 55 percent, an improvement of one percent over last year, while the rate for the overall student body remained the same at 48 percent. The DII national ASR average is 71 percent.

Athletic Director Dr. Alan Geist added, "This is a great achievement. God continually blesses Cedarville University with tremendous student-athletes who take all aspects of their education seriously.

"As always, I want to say thanks to our coaching staff and to each member of our faculty, staff, and administration for all they have done to help our student-athletes be successful in the classroom."

Highlights:

- Yellow Jacket student-athletes tied for 12th nationally among 313 Division II schools in Federal Graduation Rate (78%).
- CU student-athletes tied for 21st in the country in Academic Success Rate (91%).
- Yellow Jacket student-athletes' FGR of 78% compares to 70% for the overall student-body.
