Taylor Vander Plas' Weekly Blog

November 30, 2015

This past week was a pretty short one basketball-wise. On Monday, we traveled up to Big Rapids, Michigan to practice at Ferris State before playing them on Tuesday. This was our first road trip with the men, so the bus was a little bit crowded. After 6+ hours of driving we were all ready to lace up our shoes and get to practicing because we were all going a little stir-crazy! We had a very good pre-game practice and looked forward to playing the next night.

The next morning after film and game-planning, Dr. Scott Dixon (the men's chaplain) led us in a time of worship and thankfulness. Justice from the men's team played his guitar and led us through a few worship songs like "I've Found a Love," and "How Great is Our God." It was cool to be able to worship with so many people in the hotel lobby, definitely something that you don't get to do anywhere else! Like I said last week, Cedarville is a special place! After the songs, we did a type of popcorn prayer where you have to start the sentence with, "Lord, I'm thankful that/for..." and then fill in the last part. It was great to center our hearts on gratefulness, especially when it's so easy to focus on all the frustrations around us. We have a God who loves us and blesses us in ways we don't even understand, both through the good times and through the trials and we need to be thankful!

Later, during our pre-game meal at Panera, we were all enjoying our food and conversation when we noticed something strange going on outside of the window. A young man and woman were standing outside a car talking and they both looked pretty upset. All of us were sure a break-up was happening right before our eyes...well everyone except Coach Martin, he didn't believe us. Then we watched an awkward hug and both of them walked to their separate cars, and we decided that the girl had just broken up with the guy. Mac must've had a little bit of a crush on this broken-hearted man because she piped up and said "Mac can make it all better!"

As for the actual game, we finally were able to put both ends of the floor together and we got a big win over Ferris State! It's always great to get a win right before a break so that we can go home and enjoy our families and friends without distractions!

That is exactly what we did - everyone was able to head home for Thanksgiving! We enjoyed our break but we are back on campus now preparing for our two games this week! It's back to business as our season is in full swing and we're a few days out from finals week!

Oh, we're also starting to get some of our injuries under control now but there are some girls who are a bit under the weather, so keep us in your prayers! We're so thankful for all of you who constantly lift us up!

In the words of Kid President,
"Throw kindness around like confetti, kindness is less messy."

Last Time Out • 11/24/15

BIG RAPIDS, Mich. - Kaysie Brittenham scored 16 points to lead four players in double figures as Cedarville blew out Ferris State, 72-43, in non-conference women's basketball action.

After the host Bulldogs scored the first basket of the game, Brittenham answered with three straight field goals and it was all CU thereafter.

That fueled a 20-2 uprising that ended with a 23-5 bulge for the visitors through 10 minutes of play.

Kaysie Brittenham

The Lady Jackets, 2-3, enjoyed as much as a 29-point lead in the second quarter at 39-10. FSU needed an 11-2 spurt to finish the frame just to get back within 20 by halftime.

The Bulldogs never got closer than 17 the rest of the way in falling to 0-3.

Brittenham added four steals and two assists to her production. The other three teammates to score in twin figures all came off the bench.

Breanne Watterworth totaled 12 points, seven rebounds, and two blocks. Christina McQueen added 10 points and seven boards.

Ellie Juengel tossed in a trio of three-pointers and finished with 10 points. Abby Wolford handed out a game-high six assists.

Numbers Game:

- Kayla Linkous upped her career point total to 989.
- Wolford matched her career-high of six assists which she achieved twice last year.
- The team established season highs in field goal pct (.431), rebounds (50), rebound margin (+19), assists (21), and blocked shots (5).
- Only Brittenham (30) and Linkous (23) played more than 19 minutes.
- Cedarville leads the all-time series vs. Ferris State, 3-0.

Looking Ahead

Cedarville will be home for three more non-league games - Wilberforce, Mount Vernon Nazarene and Urbana - before heading to Alaska on December 19-20. CU hosts the Bulldogs of Wilberforce University on Sat., Dec. 5 at 4:00 p.m. The Mount Vernon Nazarene University Cougars visit on Sat., Dec. 12 for a 5:30 p.m. contest. On Monday, Dec. 14 the Blue Knights of Urbana University are in town for a 7:00 p.m. encounter.

Player of the Week

(Nov. 23-29, 2015)

Stephanie Wooten

Davis & Elkins • Junior • Lincolnton, NC

GREENWOOD, Ind. – Davis & Elkins junior guard Stephanie Wooten was named the third Great Midwest Athletic Conference Women's Basketball Athlete of the Week for 2015-16 on Monday.

Wooten's early-season scoring outburst continued as the Senators secured their first win of the season in non-conference action against Indiana-Kokomo during the past week.

She erupted for 31 points at Indiana-Kokomo, just a few days removed from her 40-point offensive showcase put on against Wisconsin-Parkside.

Davis & Elkins stormed to a 23-point margin of victory as Wooten balanced out the box score with a near triple-double in just 29 minutes on the floor with six rebounds, six assists and no turnovers.

She connected on 13-of-17 shots from the floor and made a trio of three-point shots. She also chipped in two free throws as three players ended up scoring in double figures for D&E.

Wooten's 40-point single-game effort was the third-best offensive scoring output in the G-MAC's young history. The all-time record is 45 held by Demetria Nunley-Lash (Central State) back in February of 2014.

Wooten has been the team's leading scorer in five of six games and leads the conference in scoring at 22 points per game.

As a point guard, she is also shooting nearly 50 percent on all field-goal attempts, sixth in the league. She is currently tied for the G-MAC lead in assists (4.0) and free-throw percentage (.875).

Wooten also ranks fifth in three-point field goal percentage (.410).

Head Coach Kirk Martin

Kirk Martin has been the head women's basketball coach at Cedarville University since the 2001-02 season. After building the Lady Jackets into one of the top NAIA programs in the country, he has guided them to a successful transition in NCAA Division II.

Martin's teams have averaged 25.6 wins per season during his tenure. CU has amassed one NCCAA title, two NAIA Division II national runner-up finishes, and seven conference championships.

Prior to Martin's arrival, the Lady Jackets had won 20 games in a season twice. He has accomplished the feat 12 times including back-to-back 35-win campaigns in 2004 and 2005.

Cedarville posted an impressive 27-4 mark in 2014-15 and earned the program's first-ever bid to the NCAA Division II Tournament. The Lady Jackets, who won the G-MAC regular season (15-1) and tournament titles, were ranked as high as 17th in the USA TODAY Sports Coaches' Poll.

Cedarville posted an 18-10 record in 2013-14 and was 13-3 in the G-MAC. The women were among the G-MAC leaders the entire season and advanced to the league tournament semifinals.

The Lady Jackets ended up 20-10 in their first active NCAA season in 2012-13 and posted a 24-8 mark during its NCAA provisional year in 2011-12. CU captured the NCCAA Midwest Region banner each year, was the 2012 NCCAA runner-up, and also claimed the 2012 Ohio Independent Championship title.

Cedarville made its eighth and final appearance at the 2011 NAIA Division II National Tournament which featured a surprising run to the quarterfinals. The Lady Jackets knocked off perennial powers Saint Francis (Ind.) and Ozarks (Mo.) before losing to unbeaten Davenport (Mich.) to finish the season 24-10.

Martin guided Cedarville to five straight NAIA national tournament appearances from 2003 through 2007 including back-to-back runner-up finishes in 2004 and 2005. The Jackets ended up with a 17-8 record at the event with a semifinals achievement in 2007, quarterfinals efforts in 2006 and 2011, and a pair of second round showings.

Martin's club owned American Midwest Conference titles from 2003 through 2007 assembling an 86-4 record during that timespan. CU ran off three straight undefeated league campaigns in the AMC South Division from 2004 through 2006 which included a conference-record 72-game winning streak.

Martin was able to lead a young Lady Jacket squad to a strong finish and the NCCAA national title in 2008. He was named the NCCAA

National Coach of the Year.

Martin took over the coaching reigns at his alma mater in 2001-02 and promptly guided Cedarville to a 23-10 record - at the time a school record for the most wins in a single season. The Jackets posted a 15-5 mark to finish fourth in the 19-team AMC. They were the only league school to beat the top three teams in the standings and all three were ranked in the NAIA Division II Top 25.

Martin came to Cedarville after developing Southeastern High School into one of Ohio's elite Division IV girls' basketball programs. He brought with him an impressive list of credentials produced at a school where he was employed since graduating from Cedarville College in 1976. He earned his master's degree in Educational Administration from the University of Dayton in 1982.

Martin coached Southeastern, located just eight miles away in South Charleston, Ohio, to a 297-34 record for a .897 winning percentage during a coaching career that spanned 1986-97 and 1999-2001. He led the Trojans to the Ohio Division IV state championship in 1996, one state runner-up finish, and to 11 Kenton Trace Conference championships including ten straight. Southeastern assembled a 162-game KTC winning streak, won all 11 district title games they ever played in, and advanced to the Division IV Sweet 16 in 11 of his last 12 years.

Martin never had a losing season at Southeastern and earned numerous honors for his team's accomplishments. He was tabbed state Coach of the Year in 1989, was twice named Southwest District Coach of the Year, was a four-time District 9 Coach of the Year, and was a six-time Clark County Coach of the Year. He was inducted into the Cedarville University Athletic Hall of Fame in 1998 for his coaching accomplishments.

Kirk and his wife, Vicki, reside in Springfield. The Martins have three children, who are all Cedarville graduates: older daughter, Amy Fourman, who is a former Lady Jacket volleyball and basketball player, resides in Worthington, Ohio with her husband, Aaron, and their three children; younger daughter, Kelly Mangin, lives in Fairborn, Ohio with her husband, Bryan, and their two children; and son, Brent, is a former member of the Yellow Jacket golf and tennis teams, resides in Springfield, Ohio.

2015-16 Season Preview

CEDARVILLE, Ohio - The Lady Jackets will tackle a 28-game schedule in 2015-16 after coming off their most successful Division II season ever.

Cedarville finished 27-4 last winter, went 15-1 in the Great Midwest Athletic Conference, and then won the league's post-season tournament that did not include an automatic bid.

However, the Jackets landed an at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament to cap an incredible run.

CU will play 15 contests at home featuring perennial power Wayne State (Mich.) to highlight the non-conference visitors.

Fourteen (14) G-MAC games will be played in January and February. For the first time ever, the tournament champion will receive an automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament.

Quotable: Head Coach Kirk Martin

"Last year was a dream season finishing 27-4 especially with seven freshmen. We were really proud of that team to become the first to qualify for the NCAA Tournament, but we graduated two great players and two great leaders.

"This is the first year we have a really balanced schedule. While it's not overly difficult, there are some very tough opponents on it.

"We'll face three ranked opponents including Alaska Anchorage, who finished the regular season last year ranked #1 in the country.

"It will be a challenge, but having an automatic qualifier in our conference now doesn't put quite as much pressure on the regular season.

"The G-MAC schedule is sure to be difficult. A number of our teams have sincerely improved so we're going to have to play well."

Cedarville, Davis & Elkins Honored Again for Academic Success Rates

INDIANAPOLIS – Cedarville University and Davis & Elkins College headlined the Great Midwest Athletic Conference with Academic Success Rates of 90 percent or higher as released by the NCAA on Wednesday.

Cedarville and Davis & Elkins are among 27 NCAA Division II schools to be honored part of the Presidents' Award for Academic Excellence, now in its fifth year.

This is the third consecutive year that both Cedarville and D&E have received the Presidents' Award for Academic Excellence.

D&E had a reported ASR of 94 with UC-San Diego, Assumption and Seattle Pacific, while Cedarville's ASR of 91 tied four other schools.

For the first time, the University of the Sciences in Philadelphia led Division II with an Academic Success Rate of 99 percent, followed closely by Saint Michael's College, Point Loma Nazarene University and Bentley University, all of which achieved a 98 percent ASR.

For the second straight year, the Northeast-10 led Division II's 24 conferences in ASR rates, with five athletics programs posting scores of 90 percent or more.

The G-MAC ranked fifth among all 24 Division II conferences with ASR's of 90 percent or more.

"We are pleased by the increasing number of Division II schools whose student-athletes are earning Academic Success Rates of 90 percent or higher," said Judy Bense, president of the University of West Florida and chair of the Division II Presidents Council. "These schools and their students demonstrate the utmost dedication to success in the classroom and on the field, and we are proud of their efforts."

The Academic Success Rate is the percentage of student-athletes who graduate within six years of initial enrollment in college and includes virtually all Division II student-athletes, including transfers and those not receiving athletics scholarships.

The Division II ASR also captures about 51 percent more college athletes than the federal graduation rate. Unlike the federal graduation rate, the ASR also counts student-athletes who transfer to a school after initial enrollment elsewhere and removes from the rate student-athletes who leave school while academically eligible. The national ASR is 71 percent for student-athletes who entered college from 2005 through 2008.

Regardless of which measure is used, Division II college athletes graduate at a higher rate than the general student body. The federal rate for the 2008 entering class of student-athletes was 55 percent, compared to 49 percent for the general student body.
