From the Presidents Desk

Dr. James T. Jeremian

Dear Friends:

These are busy and challenging days for each member of our Cedarville College family. In every way possible we are seeking to make known the opportunities for Christian education on our campus. The student interest makes future planning an exciting experience. The expansion of all of our facilities is a necessity in view of the present enrollment trend.

Humanly speaking, our plans for the immediate future seem beyond the possibility of achievement, but with our God, all things are possible. We believe much will be accomplished through prayer. Will you, therefore, remember our needs daily at the throne of grace? Along with prayer, we must plan. Be sure to read Mr. Turner's article in this Bulletin. He has listed some suggestions on how you may help us reach the goal for the new library.

Please keep in mind that an investment in Christian education is an investment in your young people. As they prepare and go forth to serve, the return on this investment is one of eternal value. In the light of our present responsibilities, we may be encouraged by reading Matthew 6:19-20.

Sincerely in Christ,

James T. Jeremian

WILL YOU BE ON OUR HONOR ROLL?

by Lee C. Turner

Applications for next year are coming in at the starting rate of nearly 2 to 1 over last year. Unless we start construction on our new library and dormitory by spring, most of these future leaders of our churches will have to be turned away. We believe the Lord would have us to build in 1965 and have set the following goal:

Library	$300,000	Money to be raised through:
Dormitory	$350,000	Bond issue for dormitory	$350,000
TOTAL	$650,000	Gifts for library	$300,000

There are two ways that you can help us accomplish this:

I. Bonds for the dormitory

Our new series "C" Bond issue of $350,000 will enable us to build a dormitory. Income from the dormitory will be used to retire the bond issue. Pastors can encourage individuals in their churches to invest their savings in these bonds paying 5%. In this way, their money will both work for them by earning more interest than in a savings account and work for the Lord in providing a greater ministry at Cedarville College.

II. Gifts for the library

The library will have no income to underwrite a bond issue and must be built through gifts. To raise funds, the College has challenged 300 churches or interested friends to give $1,000 each. The names of donors will be engraved on an honor roll plaque that will be erected inside the new library.

In last month's Bulletin, we cited an example of the sacrificial giving of $1,000 each from a small mission church and an individual. Since then, several churches and individuals have accepted this challenge.

The response to this challenge has given us cause to rejoice. We have been particularly impressed with the ingenuity that some have used to raise the $1,000 gift. Perhaps one of these ideas will enable you to participate.

1. GIFTS

Many of you may be able to give an outright gift of $1,000 as was done by Mr. Kenneth St. Clair, Business Manager of the College.

2. CEDARVILLE COLLEGE DAY

Some churches might want to follow the example of the First Baptist Church, Blanchester, Ohio, and designate a Sunday as Cedarville College Day. Several of the churches have invited a musical team and speaker from the College and used this opportunity to work toward a $1,000 goal for the library.

3. MONEY CAN BE BORROWED

The Faith Baptist Church of Greenville, Ohio, borrowed $1,000 from a bank to give to the library fund. (This is a six-year-old mission church with an average attendance of 93.)

4. 50 PEOPLE GIVING ONE DOLLAR A WEEK

Emmanuel Baptist Church at Toledo has a project of challenging 50 people to give $1 a week for 20 weeks. This will enable them to give $1,000 to the library.

Will you be on our honor roll by using one of these suggestions to give $1,000 to the library?

CEDARVILLE COLLEGE BULLETIN

Published: Monthly by Cedarville College, Cedarville Ohio.
Entered as second class matter at the post office at Cedarville,
Ohio, April, 1915 under act of Congress of August 24, 1912.

A BAPTIST COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS

"For the Word of God, and the testimony of Jesus Christ"

Coach Don Callan's Yellow Jackets are riding a winning streak of 7 straight games with no losses in what appears to be one of our most promising seasons.

Veteran Dozier Carter and freshman Al Knott are the top scorers for the team both averaging more than 18 points per game. Knott, all-state player from Illinois, is off to a sensational start holding the single game record of 32 points. The rest of the starting five lend an awesome balance to our scoring punch, Richardson, 11.2; Walthall, 11.2; Combs, 9.4. The performance of many promising newcomers also allows Coach Callan to substitute freely.

The team also excells in their witness for Christ. Dr. Jeremiah recently received the following letter from a Wilmington College student.

"You should be quite proud of your basketball team for their Christian testimony for Jesus Christ. The manner with which they conducted themselves during and following the Rio Grande game of December 1, 1964. is worthy of praise. One incident which happened following the game saw a Rio Grande player bodily shove a Cedarville player from him after being offered the congratulatory hand shake for a well-fought game. Gayle Bradds, the Cedarville player did not retaliate in any way but merely walked away.

Actions such as these put Cedarville in an enviable position. With a testimony as strong as the one I saw at the basketball game the Lord surely will bless Cedarville and its basketball team in the future."
