THANKFULNESS (cliché but true :))

We're often taught and reminded of the concept that it's not how you start but it's how you finish. Our Ferris State game both started well and finished well resulting in the desired outcome; a win! Coach Martin and Co. prepared us for this game and we were all on the same page in regards to how big another GLIAC win would be for post season.

It is difficult to be completely focused during games like this because of Thanksgiving break to follow. I think the win in overtime speaks to the level of focus we had. Shout out to KJ for focusing with only one eye! Impressive to say the least - took a shot to the face and her eye swelled up pretty quick! We are thankful to approach the Thanksgiving break with the 5-1 record. We are thankful that our hard work and focus is paying off and to be rewarded with some time at home with our families. However, we do not want to take it for granted or be content. Part of thankfulness involves stewardship of what we are thankful for. We have many games ahead of us and to be content with our five wins wouldn't be good stewardship of the opportunities we have. Being hungry and continuing to work hard is being thankful for where we have been as well as what there is to come. We continue to be expectant and to approach each game with passion not passivity.

A heart of thankfulness should turn into some sort of demonstration of thankfulness. One way is to take time to simply thank the Lord for His blessings. Another way is to give back what you have been given. As a team we try, although at times we will fail, to give our thanks for our abilities and opportunities through the way we play; through worship on the court.

As we celebrate Thanksgiving we should focus on the many blessings that God has graciously given to us. He has extended grace upon grace upon grace. When we focus on our thankfulness it's hard to not be joyful even if circumstances aren't exactly how we would like them to be. For us, the goal is to play with this same joy. There are many reasons for this but our hope is that the Joy of the Lord is seen through our play.

A little preachy...my apologies :) To put it in layman's terms as the Sunday School song goes:

"In everything give thanks, in everything give thanks for it is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you!"

I hope you all had a blessed Thanksgiving with your loved ones!

Until next time...R squared, out.

Last Time Out

CEDARVILLE, Ohio - Raegan Ryan scored all 12 of Cedarville's points in overtime as the Lady Jackets outlasted Ferris State, 83-80, in a non-conference game played in the Callan Athletic Center last Tuesday night.

Raegan Ryan

The senior guard hit back-to-back three-pointers in the extra session before going 6-for-6 at the line in the final 33 seconds to seal the outcome.

CU, 5-1 overall, scored the first 10 points of the contest and never trailed the entire night. What grew to be a 12-point cushion ended up being a 46-42 lead at the break.

The Jackets were up by 10 midway through the second half and still had a 71-66 edge with just under two minutes left. However, the Bulldogs, 2-1, scored the final five points to finally knot the score with 18 seconds to go to force OT.

Ryan hit a three with 2:55 remaining and Ferris State answered with a three-point play. Her second trey at the 1:38 mark gave Cedarville the lead for good.

Ryan finished 12-for-12 at the line and totaled 22 points to go along with five assists. Kaysie Brittenham netted 16 points and Abby Wolford came off the bench with 15.

Deborah Gordon pulled down a game-high 11 rebounds and dished out four assists.

Looking Ahead

The Lady Jackets open up Great Midwest Athletic Conference action as they travel to meet up with the Ursuline College Arrows at 7 p.m. on Thursday, Dec. 4. The game will be played at Notre Dame College OH in South Euclid, Ohio.

Cedarville returns home this Saturday, Dec. 6 for a non-conference encounter with the University of Indianapolis beginning at 2 p.m.

G-MAC Women's Basketball

Player of the Week

(Nov. 24-30, 2014)

Raegan Ryan
Cedarville • Senior • Canisteo, NY

Through just six games, early in the 2014-15 season, Raegan Ryan has earned her second Great Midwest Athletic Conference Women's Basketball Athlete of the Week honor. Ryan was named AOTW after the opening weekend of the season and continues to carry her team to an impressive start to the season as the Lady Jackets are 5-1, with four wins over GLIAC opponents.

Raegan Ryan has been named the G-MAC Women's Basketball Athlete of the Week for the second time this season, through three weeks of action. This past week, the Lady Jackets had only one game over the Thanksgiving break, topping Ferris State at home in overtime.

Ryan, who continues to lead the league in scoring, scored a game-high 22 points in the victory. She added a game-high five assists and a team-high three steals in the win. Most impressive about her performance against Ferris State, who had previously posted wins over Kentucky Wesleyan and Trevecca Nazarene, was that she scored all 12 of her teams points in overtime.

The senior guard hit back-to-back three pointers to start the overtime and then closed out the win at the free throw line going 6-for-6. In the game, she was 12-for-12 from the charity stripe.

Ryan is scoring 19.5 points per game and shooting 51.9% from long range to lead the G-MAC, while ranking second with 25 total assists and a 1.3 assist to turnover ratio. She is also second in the conference with 20 steals (3.3 per game), in a tie just one steal behind the leader, Samantha Aikens of Salem International.

Head Coach Kirk Martin

Kirk Martin has been the head women's basketball coach at Cedarville University since the 2001-02 season. After building the Lady Jackets into one of the top NAIA programs in the country, he has guided them to a successful transition in NCAA Division II.

Martin's teams have averaged 25.5 wins per season during his tenure. CU has amassed one NCCAA title, two NAIA Division II national runner-up finishes, and six conference championships.

Prior to Martin's arrival, the Lady Jackets had won 20 games in a season twice. He has accomplished the feat 11 times including back-to-back 35-win campaigns in 2004 and 2005.

Cedarville posted an 18-10 record last winter and was 13-3 in the Great Midwest Athletic Conference. The women were among the G-MAC leaders the entire season and advanced to the league tournament semifinals.

The Lady Jackets ended up 20-10 in their first active NCAA season in 2012-13 and posted a 24-8 mark during its NCAA provisional year in 2011-12. CU captured the NCCAA Midwest Region banner each year, was the 2012 NCCAA runner-up, and also claimed the 2012 Ohio Independent Championship title.

Cedarville made its eighth and final appearance at the 2011 NAIA Division II National Tournament which featured a surprising run to the quarterfinals. The Lady Jackets knocked off perennial powers Saint Francis (Ind.) and Ozarks before losing to unbeaten Davenport to finish the season 24-10.

Martin guided Cedarville to five straight NAIA national tournament appearances from 2003 through 2007 including back-to-back runner-up finishes in 2004 and 2005. The Jackets ended up with a 17-8 record at the event with a semifinals achievement in 2007, quarterfinals efforts in 2006 and 2011, and a pair of second round showings.

Martin's club owned American Midwest Conference titles from 2003 through 2007 assembling an 86-4 record during that timespan. CU ran off three straight undefeated league campaigns in the AMC South Division from 2004 through 2006 which included a conference-record 72-game winning streak.

Martin was able to lead a young Lady Jacket squad to a strong finish and the NCCAA national title in 2008. He was named the NCCAA National Coach of the Year.

Martin took over the coaching reigns at his alma mater in 2001-02 and promptly guided Cedarville to a 23-10 record - at the time a school record for the most wins in a single season. The Jackets posted a 15-5 mark to finish fourth in the 19-team AMC. They were the only league school to beat the top three teams in the standings and all three were ranked in the NAIA Division II Top 25.

Martin came to Cedarville after developing Southeastern High School into one of Ohio's elite Division IV girls' basketball programs. He brought with him an impressive list of credentials produced at a school where he was employed since graduating from Cedarville College in 1976. He earned his master's degree in Educational Administration from the University of Dayton in 1982.

Martin coached Southeastern, located just eight miles away in South Charleston, Ohio, to a 297-34 record for a .897 winning percentage during a coaching career that spanned 1986-97 and 1999-2001. He led the Trojans to the Ohio Division IV state championship in 1996, one state runner-up finish, and to 11 Kenton Trace Conference championships including ten straight. Southeastern assembled a 162-game KTC winning streak, won all 11 district title games they ever played in, and advanced to the Division IV Sweet 16 in 11 of his last 12 years.

Martin never had a losing season at Southeastern and earned numerous honors for his team's accomplishments. He was tabbed state Coach of the Year in 1989, was twice named Southwest District Coach of the Year, was a four-time District 9 Coach of the Year, and was a six-time Clark County Coach of the Year. He was inducted into the Cedarville University Athletic Hall of Fame in 1998 for his coaching accomplishments.

Kirk and his wife, Vicki, reside in Springfield. The Martins have three children, who are all Cedarville graduates: older daughter, Amy Fourman, who is a former Lady Jacket volleyball and basketball player, resides in Worthington, Ohio with her husband, Aaron, and their three children; younger daughter, Kelly Mangin, lives in Fairborn, Ohio with her husband, Bryan, and their two children; and son, Brent, is a former member of the Yellow Jacket golf and tennis teams, resides in Springfield, Ohio.

Jackets Succeed in Classroom

CEDARVILLE, Ohio - Cedarville University student-athletes continue to be just as impressive in the classroom as they are in the field of competition.

The Yellow Jackets remain among the best in Division II according to the recently released NCAA Academic Success Rate data.

CU tied for 12th nationally among 313 Division II schools in Federal Graduation Rate at 78 percent. The FGR computes the percentage of student-athletes, who earned their degree in the six-year window from the 2007-08 academic year through 2012-13.

The Academic Success Rate (ASR) calculates how student-athletes are making satisfactory progress toward a degree. Cedarville, at 91 percent, tied for 21st in the country in that category.

Fran Campbell, Assistant Academic Vice President for Student Success & University Registrar, proclaimed, "We are pleased to confirm that the academic success and graduation rates for our student-athletes remain very strong, and even improved in comparison with last year's commendable percentages.

"Although the graduation rate for our overall student body decreased slightly to 70% for this reporting cycle, this rate for our student-athletes increased to 78%. This is a notable comparison which reflects very positively on the quality and achievements of our student-athletes!"

According to the NCAA report, the FGR for all Division II student-athletes across the country is 55 percent, an improvement of one percent over last year, while the rate for the overall student body remained the same at 48 percent. The DII national ASR average is 71 percent.

Athletic Director Dr. Alan Geist added, "This is a great achievement. God continually blesses Cedarville University with tremendous student-athletes who take all aspects of their education seriously.

"As always, I want to say thanks to our coaching staff and to each member of our faculty, staff, and administration for all they have done to help our student-athletes be successful in the classroom."

Highlights:

- Yellow Jacket student-athletes tied for 12th nationally among 313 Division II schools in Federal Graduation Rate (78%).
- CU student-athletes tied for 21st in the country in Academic Success Rate (91%).
- Yellow Jacket student-athletes' FGR of 78% compares to 70% for the overall student-body.
