STUDENTS WANT NEW LIBRARY

The crowded conditions experienced by the student body has impressed upon them the need for the new library.

They appreciate the sacrificial efforts put forth by the leaders throughout the country who are co-ordinating the Library Fund Drive. The students are praying for the success of this project and have faith that the Lord will supply this need. More important, they are proving their faith by their works.

The student body has erected a "wishing well" (pictured above) which is located in the lobby of the student-center gymnasium. Inside the "wishing well" is a large tub with goldfish in it, and students are encouraged to toss in money to raise $1,000 for the library fund.

From the President's Desk

Dr. James T. Jeremiah

Dear Friends:

Our students want a new library. They are doing their part to help us reach this goal. The "Wishing Well" in the Student Union building has already collected $500 in gifts for this important addition to our campus.

A committee of volunteers is actively engaged in raising funds for the library. To date, we have $29,432.69 in cash, but almost every day we hear of churches and individuals who are planning to give $1,000 to this cause. We are encouraged to believe that we can begin construction of the new library this year.

The Series "C" Bonds are selling very well. At the present time, we have sold $107,900 of the $350,000 issue. Remember, by purchasing Cedarville bonds you make a two-fold investment: one which gives you a financial return, and another, in the education of present and future students.

All of us at Cedarville are challenged by the potential in the lives of dedicated Christian young people. We, therefore, have dedicated ourselves to the Lord for the purpose of providing the best facilities possible for the Christian education of the young people who are looking to us for this training. We call upon you, our friends, to help us now.

Sincerely in Christ,

James T. Jeremiah

Members of the student library fund committee, Joe Stowell, Ron Grosh, and Ted Oakley are pointing to a thermometer which reveals that the student body has already passed the half-way mark in raising their $1,000 gift for the library. May the financial giving and prayers of the student body challenge all of us to ask the Lord what part we can play in making the new library a reality.

Listed below is the present total of our library fund. This does not reflect the many churches and individuals who have pledged to give $1,000 to the library. The next issue will list donors giving $1,000 or more.

LIBRARY	$300,000.00
LIBRARY FUND	29,432.69
BALANCE NEEDED IN GIFTS	$270,567.31

DORMITORY	$350,000.00
SERIES "C" BONDS	108,400.00
BONDS TO BE SOLD	$241,600.00

STUDENTS COME FROM 26 STATES

Why are young people from so many states attracted to Cedarville? They are led here because they may be trained for a variety of vocations. Young men are especially attracted because of the majors offered in pre-seminary, business, science, physical education, coaching, and secondary education. Other majors offered are: art, Christian education, music, elementary education, English, history, math, secretarial science, sociology, and speech. It is imperative that young people wanting to attend Cedarville College this fall apply early.

CEDARVILLE WINS MID-OHIO CONFERENCE

Coach Don Callan's Yellow Jackets captured the coveted Mid-Ohio championship trophy for the first time in the history of Cedarville College. Mr. Arthur R. Warren, personnel representative from Marathon Oil Company, who sponsors the trophies, is shown congratulating Coach Callan while co-captains Dozier Carter and Mark Combs are admiring the latest addition to the trophy case.

This year's basketball team finished with a perfect record of 8-0 in the Mid-Ohio Conference and have an over-all record of 21 wins and 3 losses with one game remaining to be played. As Mid-Ohio Conference champions, the team is entitled to play in the N.A.I.A. District tournament. The winner of this four-team tournament will travel to Kansas City to compete with 32 other teams for the national championship. This is the second straight year that Cedarville has been invited to play in the N. A. I. A. sectional tournament.

Dozier Carter and Al Knott were named to the N. A. I. A. All-District 22 team. Carter received more votes than any other player and was named to the first team and outstanding freshman Al Knott to the second 5. Gary Walthall was given honorable mention.

Cedarville College dominated the Mid-Ohio All-Conference team by having three players listed, Dozier Carter, Gary Walthall, and Mark Combs.

We are grateful for the honors the team has brought to Cedarville College. We are even more thankful for the many fine comments we have received from people concerning their fine Christian testimony.
