Women's Basketball Weekly Blog

December 5, 2016

Hey there faithful fans, I hope your week was just as fantastic as ours was! Your Lady Jackets racked up two more wins!

Our week started out a little differently since we had just come off of Thanksgiving break. We arrived on campus Monday afternoon and had a very intense practice. It was a day constructed to test our mental toughness and physical endurance. I am proud to say that my girls stepped up to the challenge and crushed that practice. From countless sprints to energy zapping drills, our team stuck together and pushed through.

The next two days were a little lighter but still rough. We had just come from having a whole week off so we needed to be pushed. I think I speak for everyone though when I say Thursday didn't come soon enough. Practice is great and all but we love game days!

Thursday we welcomed Ohio Christian into Callan and used everything in our tanks to come out on top. This game was a series of mental/physical breakthroughs and breakdowns. We had countless turnovers and missed routine baskets throughout the entire contest. Thankfully, our team banded together and finished strong in the second overtime of the contest. It would have been easy for us to give up but we didn't. We rose to the occasion and got the job done. It may not have been pretty but a win is a win.

I was told Friday consisted of working on decision making when passing and seeing our passes through to avoid turnovers in our future games. I was not there due to knee surgery. I would like to thank you for your prayers and let you know that the surgery went smoothly and I'm recovering quite well.

Saturday the girls got up and volunteered their time serving food and making peoples' day a little brighter. I was also told that they got to work along with Santa and our very own Assistant Coach John Leonzo took a turn on Saint Nick's lap and made his Christmas wish list known. I am very thankful to be a part of a very selfless team.

Later that evening, the team traded in their serving spoons for fitted uniforms and tightly laced ball shoes. I am very thankful for livestream because I was able to watch my team absolutely dominate. This game was magical in so many ways. Our team ended with a season-low 14 turnovers, multiple players were in double digits, and everyone played with a joy that hasn't been present in previous games.

I look forward to returning to campus on Tuesday and preparing for our next game this Saturday - home versus Indianapolis at 3 p.m.!

Thanks for reading!
