Taylor Vander Plas' Weekly Blog

December 8, 2015

It's amazing the impact winning can have on our confidence as a team, especially when we win the way we did this week. Not only did we come out of two games with the most points, but we also played hard and played well, and that's what we're shooting for every night we step out on the court. Coach Martin often tells us, "I truly believe God doesn't care about wins and losses, but He does reward hard work." And we sure worked hard this week, and it was fun.

Tuesday night, something more special than winning happened. Our very own Kayla Linkous became the 23rd (coincidence?) Cedarville women's basketball player to score 1,000 career points. I don't know about you, but I think that is AWESOME! KJ has a knack for scoring if you couldn't already tell, and it was so cool to see her sink a three-pointer to put her over the 1,000 point mark!

Besides our success during games, we also had some really good practices this week. We're starting to get back to full health and full strength and we're morphing into the team that we always knew we could be.

Sometimes during practice, we split up into posts and guards so we can work on our respective skills. This week, Flunk and Squirt were running the guard section and they got out the big pads that we call "big blue" so that they could help us practice finishing layups with contact. At one point, Squirt was working so hard that she swallowed her gum and almost choked! And Flunk was having waaaay too much fun down by the hoop hitting us as hard as she could. I think both of them were sweating more than we were. We're thankful for our coaches who are committed to instilling toughness in us and so willing to get a little sweaty to help us get better!

Saturday morning, since our game was so late in the afternoon, we had the opportunity to help out with the Little Town of Lights breakfast at the United Presbyterian Church in town. The people there were so kind and funny and we had a blast setting tables and cooking breakfast. We also met one of our biggest fans at the breakfast, and unfortunately we didn't catch her name! But she was asking all of us who we were, so we would tell her our name and our number and she knew all of us, even details about our games and how we play! We love meeting committed fans like her, and are thankful for the support we get from the community of Cedarville! I think I say this every week, but I'm not ashamed and I'll say it again: this is such a special place. We were also really impressed with all of the people who signed up for the 5K and ran in the freezing cold that morning! Good for all of you!! But I think we'll stick to running inside a gym.

We have a pretty good relationship with the Wilberforce University women's team, so it's always a good time when we get together. If you guys aren't aware, we write notes to all the teams we play to try share the Gospel in word form, not only by the way we play. Wilberforce has always been the most grateful and sweet team when they get their notes, and we usually end up being able to chat with them after the game no matter win or lose. The Gospel breaks barriers, even barriers between people who are opponents on the basketball court, and we love being able to bring that Gospel everywhere we go.

We're coming upon finals week now, so we don't play until Saturday. Normally, this is a week of mental exhaustion and sleep deprivation, so we'd appreciate prayers for motivation to study and a little extra brain power!

I know it's been a sad few weeks in the world, there's so many devastating things happening. So here's a little encouragement from the beloved Kid President:

"Next time you feel overwhelmed or completely helpless, remember this: things don't have to be the way they are. The world is changed by ordinary people. Little people living out big love!"

G-MAC Women's Basketball

Player of the Week

(Nov. 30-Dec. 6, 2015)

Camryn Hill

Ursuline • Sophomore • Strongsville, OH

GREENWOOD, Ind. – Ursuline sophomore forward Camryn Hill was named the fourth Great Midwest Athletic Conference Women's Basketball Athlete of the Week for 2015-16 on Monday.

This is Hill's second weekly conference honor for the 2015-16 season after the Arrows routed Wilberforce and Ohio Christian in the past week of play.

Hill averaged an impressive 26 points and 15 rebounds per contest while sporting a field-goal percentage north of 64 percent.

Ursuline improved to 6-1 on the year and is undefeated (4-0) at home in its new Seidman Gymnasium in the Sister Diana Stano Athletic Center.

Hill helped the Arrows find their target by hitting the century mark as a team scoring total with 20 points and 11 boards in 29 minutes. She pulled down four rebounds on the offensive glass and had two assists, a block and two steals.

Hill shot 7-of-10 from the field and additionally sank six free throws as Ursuline cruised by a 42-point margin of victory.

Against Ohio Christian, she was an interior force, carving out 32 points and 19 rebounds, a season-high total in the G-MAC so far this season.

Hill was efficient once again with an 11-of-18 shooting effort and also displayed touch from long range, sinking 3-of-3 beyond the arc. She was a perfect 7-of-7 at the line and swatted two more shots.

Ursuline won by 20 and the Arrows are just two wins shy of equaling last year's total from the 2014-15 season.

Hill is currently tied for third in the league in scoring (15.3 ppg).

Head Coach Kirk Martin

Kirk Martin has been the head women's basketball coach at Cedarville University since the 2001-02 season. After building the Lady Jackets into one of the top NAIA programs in the country, he has guided them to a successful transition in NCAA Division II.

Martin's teams have averaged 25.6 wins per season during his tenure. CU has amassed one NCCAA title, two NAIA Division II national runner-up finishes, and seven conference championships.

Prior to Martin's arrival, the Lady Jackets had won 20 games in a season twice. He has accomplished the feat 12 times including back-to-back 35-win campaigns in 2004 and 2005.

Cedarville posted an impressive 27-4 mark in 2014-15 and earned the program's first-ever bid to the NCAA Division II Tournament. The Lady Jackets, who won the G-MAC regular season (15-1) and tournament titles, were ranked as high as 17th in the USA TODAY Sports Coaches' Poll.

Cedarville posted an 18-10 record in 2013-14 and was 13-3 in the G-MAC. The women were among the G-MAC leaders the entire season and advanced to the league tournament semifinals.

The Lady Jackets ended up 20-10 in their first active NCAA season in 2012-13 and posted a 24-8 mark during its NCAA provisional year in 2011-12. CU captured the NCCAA Midwest Region banner each year, was the 2012 NCCAA runner-up, and also claimed the 2012 Ohio Independent Championship title.

Cedarville made its eighth and final appearance at the 2011 NAIA Division II National Tournament which featured a surprising run to the quarterfinals. The Lady Jackets knocked off perennial powers Saint Francis (Ind.) and Ozarks (Mo.) before losing to unbeaten Davenport (Mich.) to finish the season 24-10.

Martin guided Cedarville to five straight NAIA national tournament appearances from 2003 through 2007 including back-to-back runner-up finishes in 2004 and 2005. The Jackets ended up with a 17-8 record at the event with a semifinals achievement in 2007, quarterfinals efforts in 2006 and 2011, and a pair of second round showings.

Martin's club owned American Midwest Conference titles from 2003 through 2007 assembling an 86-4 record during that timespan. CU ran off three straight undefeated league campaigns in the AMC South Division from 2004 through 2006 which included a conference-record 72-game winning streak.

Martin was able to lead a young Lady Jacket squad to a strong finish and the NCCAA national title in 2008. He was named the NCCAA

National Coach of the Year.

Martin took over the coaching reigns at his alma mater in 2001-02 and promptly guided Cedarville to a 23-10 record - at the time a school record for the most wins in a single season. The Jackets posted a 15-5 mark to finish fourth in the 19-team AMC. They were the only league school to beat the top three teams in the standings and all three were ranked in the NAIA Division II Top 25.

Martin came to Cedarville after developing Southeastern High School into one of Ohio's elite Division IV girls' basketball programs. He brought with him an impressive list of credentials produced at a school where he was employed since graduating from Cedarville College in 1976. He earned his master's degree in Educational Administration from the University of Dayton in 1982.

Martin coached Southeastern, located just eight miles away in South Charleston, Ohio, to a 297-34 record for a .897 winning percentage during a coaching career that spanned 1986-97 and 1999-2001. He led the Trojans to the Ohio Division IV state championship in 1996, one state runner-up finish, and to 11 Kenton Trace Conference championships including ten straight. Southeastern assembled a 162-game KTC winning streak, won all 11 district title games they ever played in, and advanced to the Division IV Sweet 16 in 11 of his last 12 years.

Martin never had a losing season at Southeastern and earned numerous honors for his team's accomplishments. He was tabbed state Coach of the Year in 1989, was twice named Southwest District Coach of the Year, was a four-time District 9 Coach of the Year, and was a six-time Clark County Coach of the Year. He was inducted into the Cedarville University Athletic Hall of Fame in 1998 for his coaching accomplishments.

Kirk and his wife, Vicki, reside in Springfield. The Martins have three children, who are all Cedarville graduates: older daughter, Amy Fourman, who is a former Lady Jacket volleyball and basketball player, resides in Worthington, Ohio with her husband, Aaron, and their three children; younger daughter, Kelly Mangin, lives in Fairborn, Ohio with her husband, Bryan, and their two children; and son, Brent, is a former member of the Yellow Jacket golf and tennis teams, resides in Springfield, Ohio.

CU/TNU to air on ASN

GREENWOOD, Ind. – The Great Midwest Athletic Conference announces that the basketball games between Cedarville and Trevecca Nazarene on Saturday, Feb. 6, 2016, will air on the American Sports Network as part of the NCAA Division II Game of the Week package.

The men's and women's games between the Yellow Jackets and Trojans in Nashville will represent the G-MAC's first American Sports Network broadcast in any sport.

"The Great Midwest Athletic Conference is thankful that two member institutions will be highlighted this season in the American Sports Network's Division II Basketball Showcase," said G-MAC Commissioner Tom Daeger.

"This contest will provide great attention to the talents of our student-athletes and offer exposure for conference rivals Trevecca Nazarene and Cedarville. It will be a great day of basketball in Nashville when these four teams square off on February 6."

The women's game is set for 2:00 p.m. EST and the men's game will start after around 4:15 p.m. EST inside the Trojan Fieldhouse. Nashville is located in the Central Time Zone.

This will be Cedarville and Trevecca Nazarene's second meeting of the regular season. Both teams are also scheduled to play each other on Saturday, Jan. 2, in Cedarville.

"First, we are honored to be the first G-MAC institution selected to host a Division II National Showcase broadcast," said Trevecca Nazarene Director of Athletics Mark Elliott. "It is an opportunity to represent our community, Trevecca and Nashville, but we realize along with that comes responsibility.

"Similar to when we made the move to NCAA Division II, we will lean on support from the greater Trevecca and Nashville community," Elliott added. "We'll look to our administration, marketing, faculty, Moore Maniacs, alums along with our great friends who are connected to Trevecca. To make this a great showcase, it will take the full support of the Trevecca and Nashville community. We are looking forward to the challenge."

The Cedarville and Trevecca Nazarene women's programs have battled it out and finished first and second in the G-MAC standings, respectively, in each of the past two years.

TNU has assembled back-to-back 14-2 league records in 2013-14 and 2014-15 while the Yellow Jackets marched to the conference's first NCAA Championship Midwest Regional at-large selection in 2014-15 with a 27-4 overall record.

After beating then-No. 19 Alabama-Huntsville, the Trojans' men made a name for themselves on a national level early this year. Cedarville's men have won three straight at the time of release and are quickly developing rising young talent.

Additional information will be made available at a later time about which markets will carry the games. For those outside the regional market, both games will also be streamed live on NCAA.com.

The American Sports Network has reached agreements to distribute its broadcasts to regional cable networks that will make it available in 94 million of the nation's 113 million TV homes.

Cedarville, Davis & Elkins Honored Again for Academic Success Rates

INDIANAPOLIS – Cedarville University and Davis & Elkins College headlined the Great Midwest Athletic Conference with Academic Success Rates of 90 percent or higher as released by the NCAA on Wednesday.

Cedarville and Davis & Elkins are among 27 NCAA Division II schools to be honored part of the Presidents' Award for Academic Excellence, now in its fifth year.

This is the third consecutive year that both Cedarville and D&E have received the Presidents' Award for Academic Excellence.

D&E had a reported ASR of 94 with UC-San Diego, Assumption and Seattle Pacific, while Cedarville's ASR of 91 tied four other schools.

For the first time, the University of the Sciences in Philadelphia led Division II with an Academic Success Rate of 99 percent, followed closely by Saint Michael's College, Point Loma Nazarene University and Bentley University, all of which achieved a 98 percent ASR.

For the second straight year, the Northeast-10 led Division II's 24 conferences in ASR rates, with five athletics programs posting scores of 90 percent or more.

The G-MAC ranked fifth among all 24 Division II conferences with ASR's of 90 percent or more.

"We are pleased by the increasing number of Division II schools whose student-athletes are earning Academic Success Rates of 90 percent or higher," said Judy Bense, president of the University of West Florida and chair of the Division II Presidents Council. "These schools and their students demonstrate the utmost dedication to success in the classroom and on the field, and we are proud of their efforts."

The Academic Success Rate is the percentage of student-athletes who graduate within six years of initial enrollment in college and includes virtually all Division II student-athletes, including transfers and those not receiving athletics scholarships.

The Division II ASR also captures about 51 percent more college athletes than the federal graduation rate. Unlike the federal graduation rate, the ASR also counts student-athletes who transfer to a school after initial enrollment elsewhere and removes from the rate student-athletes who leave school while academically eligible. The national ASR is 71 percent for student-athletes who entered college from 2005 through 2008.

Regardless of which measure is used, Division II college athletes graduate at a higher rate than the general student body. The federal rate for the 2008 entering class of student-athletes was 55 percent, compared to 49 percent for the general student body.
