BULLETIN of

CEDARVILLE COLLEGE

AUG. 1966 - SEPT. 1966

95 GRADUATE AT 70TH ANNUAL COMMENCEMENT

Ninety-five seniors received degrees at Cedarville this year, the largest graduating class in the history of the school. Dr. James T. Jeremiah, College President, presided at the Commencement exercises. The Commencement speaker, Dr. Joseph M. Stowell, pastor of the First Baptist Church in Hackensack, New Jersey, delivered the Commencement address.

Several seniors were recognized for outstanding achievements while at Cedarville. This year the President's Trophy was awarded to Jody Ronk and Gary Harris. The award was based on scholastic ability, character, leadership, and sportsmanship. Gordon Griffin received the Music Trophy which was a recognition of musical scholarship and of service to Christ through music. The Clifford R. Maddox Memorial Awards of $100 each were awarded to Robert Clater for the highest average on the area tests of the Graduate Record Examination and to Michael Nicholls for the highest score on the Advanced Test of the Graduate Record Examination. Donald Wilcoxon was awarded the Wall Street Journal Award for proficiency in business. The two Oxford University Press Scofield Bible Awards went to David Gordon and Larry Sharpless for having the highest cumulative grade point average in Bible and Christian education majors.

HAMMAN HONORED

Rev. Roy G. Hamman, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Mishawaka, Indiana, was awarded the Doctor of Divinity degree during Commencement exercises. Dr. Hamman was recognized for his outstanding work in translating the Scriptures into the Sango language and for his 23 years spent as a missionary under Baptist Mid-Missions in Central Africa. Recognition was also given of his faithful and successful ministry as pastor of the Mishawaka Church where he has been since April, 1957.

SUMMER SCHOOL HELD

Summer school opened with approximately one hundred students in attendance. The session, which lasted from June 6—July 15, offered 21 courses taught by 15 members of the faculty.

FROM THE PRESIDENT'S DESK

Dr. James T. Jeremiah, President

Dear Friends:

Ninety-five seniors received degrees at our seventieth annual commencement on May 28. It gives one a sense of satisfaction to see these young people enter into various occupations where they may bear witness for Jesus Christ. There is also a challenge when we consider the responsibility of operating a Christian college in order to be of service to them. It is being done by God's grace and prayerful support of His people.

Preparations are being made at this time for a large incoming freshman class. Every effort is under way to provide faculty and improved facilities for these students. You will observe this as you read this issue of our Bulletin.

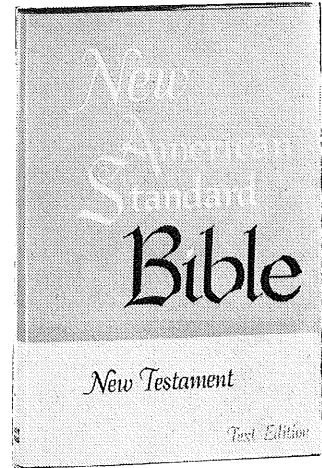

It is exciting to see the new library building progressing so rapidly. We hope this new and very much needed facility will be ready early in the next school year. The new dormitory will also be a great addition to our campus. Two hundred twenty young people will have an excellent home while they are away from home.

In another section of this Bulletin you will find reference to faculty members on our staff who have recently received doctors' degrees. We congratulate these men on this achievement. Few realize the dedication and sacrifice involved in reaching this goal. We believe their service for Christ in the teaching ministry for Cedarville will have greater results because of this additional preparation.

As we periodically consider what God has been pleased to do for this Christian college, we are persuaded that "with Him nothing is impossible." In recent days we have been thinking about some of the truths revealed to us in Hebrews 11. All of these men and women whose names are recorded here accomplished impossible exploits and all of this by faith. For example, Abraham believed God when he could not see any human possibility of fulfillment of His promise. His earthly dwelling, however, was uncertain because by faith His Heavenly home was so sure (Hebrews 11:9, 10). Moses turned his back upon human glory and Egyptian gold because he saw "Him Who is invisible." Others wrought great victories and still others endured trial without recanting because their faith was in a God Whose promise could not fail.

Though we live in a changing world with ever-increasing antagonism to God and His Word, let it be remembered that it is as true now as when the heroes of Hebrews 11 lived that "the just shall live by faith." When our trust is in the right person, the God of the Bible, we may expect Him to do "over and above all we ask or think." Will you believe Him with us as we continue to walk and work by faith at Cedarville College?

BOOK GIFT

To anyone who gives $10 or more designated for library books, we will send a copy of NEW AMERICAN STANDARD BIBLE NEW TESTAMENT. For the serious Bible student here is the most accurate contemporary English translation available.

"... you have published the most satisfactory New Testament in the English language to this date."

Dr. Earl S. Kalland
Conservative Baptist Theological Seminary

"Its accuracy and faithfulness to the Greek text is phenomenal. ... I am convinced that it is the finest modern language translation that has yet appeared."

Dr. Stewart Custer
Professor, Bob Jones University

"In my opinion, this is certainly the most accurate and the most revealing translation of the New Testament that we now have."

Dr. Wilbur M. Smith
Bible Teacher and Author

FACULTY ADVANCES ACADEMICALLY

Two more Cedarville faculty members received their doctorates to bring the total to four who have received their doctorates during the current year. Dr. Cleveland McDonald and Dr.

John W. Reed received their degrees at Commencement exercises June 14 at Ohio State University. Dr. McDonald, Chairman of the Division of Social Sciences, was awarded his in education. His dissertation was entitled "The History of Cedarville College."

Dr. Reed received his doctorate in speech. His dissertation dealt with "The Rhetoric of a Colonial Controversy: Roger Williams vs. The Massachusetts Bay Colony."

Dr. Reed is Professor of Speech in the Language and Literature Division.

Dr. Dale S. Thomson also received his Ph.D. from Ohio State University in December. Working in the biological sciences, Dr. Thomson's research produced his dissertation on "Histogene-sis of the Submucosal Proventricular Glands in the Developing Chick Embryo as Revealed by Light and Electron Microscopy."

On June 1, Dr. Robert Gromacki was awarded a Th.D. at Grace Theological Seminary in Winona Lake, Indiana. His dissertation concerned "A Scriptural Evaluation of the Modern Tongues Movement."

The summer months find many of the faculty members working on advanced degrees. Mr. Donald Callan and Miss June Kearney are both working on their doctorates in physical education at Ohio State University. Miss Kearney will be on leave this year to fulfill her residence requirements there.

Mr. J. Murray Murdoch is continuing work on his dissertation in history for Northwestern University as Mr. Max Dowell is in the field of educational psychology at the University of Tennessee. Mr. Merlin Ager is also completing class work on his doctorate in education at Ohio State University.

Mr. Rodney Wyse is working on his doctorate in business and economics also at Ohio State University.

Three of the music faculty are currently following doctoral programs also. The Chairman of the Fine Arts Division, Mr. Warren Webber, is completing his dissertation at Ohio State University. Mr. Paul Vanderkoy began work on his doctorate this summer at University of Cincinnati. Mr. William D. Thornton, who has been on leave this past year, is also working towards his doctorate at Colorado State.

Several faculty members are also working towards their master's degrees. They include Mr. William Riter in business at the University of Illinois; Mr. Edward Greenwood and Mr. Edward Spencer in English at the University of Dayton; Mr. David Matson in music at Ohio State University; Mrs. Ardeth Webber in secretarial science at Ohio State University; and Mr. Harmon Bergen in library science at Indiana University.

PROFESSOR TO LEAVE

approximately one thousand.

Dr. Bartholomew received his B. A. degree from Cedarville College in 1957, his M.A. in 1959, and his Ph.D. from Western Reserve University in 1964.

Chairman of the Division of Language and Literature, Dr. Bartholomew held memberships in the curriculum, publications, and admissions committees, acted as an advisor to literary societies, and was elected to the faculty committee to the president. He was also active as an academic counselor to many students.

Dr. Bartholomew had served on the faculty for seven years.

STUDENT COUNCIL PROJECT

This past year the Student Council has been working on a project that is unique here at Cedarville. In essence the program enables the students involved in our Bible and Christian education departments to get practical work during the summer in our churches. It is felt that this Summer Internship Program serves a valuable dual service. It not only gives our students valuable experience in the actual reality of Chris-

FACULTY FACTS

Dr. Dale S. Thomson is teaching a session of summer school at Malone College while three other faculty members in the science division are conducting research projects. Dr. Donald P. Baumann is continuing research under a National Science Foundation grant here at the college while Mr. Bert Frye is doing the same at the University of Florida. Mr. Dan Wetzel is also engaged in research here at the college for Battell Memorial Institute in Physics.

Dr. Clifford W. Johnson, Academic Dean, addressed the 35th Annual Conference of the G. A. R. B. C. in Grand Rapids. He was also Program Chairman for the Annual Meeting of Approved Schools which met prior to the conference.

Mr. Austin Elmore has recently completed a week of Deeper Life meetings at the Great Valley Baptist Church in Great Valley, New York. The rest of the summer will take the Assistant Professor of Biological Sciences to the Beechwood Regular Baptist Camp in Indiana where he is the director.

Two more faculty members are involved in camp work. Miss Joy Mackay and Mr. Allen Monroe are both at the Word of Life Camps at Schroom Lake, New York.

The latest individual to join Cedarville's growing faculty is Mr. Malcolm Woodard, who will be a part-time instructor of mathematics in the science division. Mr. Woodard, who will teach two courses, received his M. S. from the University of Washington, has done additional graduate work at the University of Florida, and has started on his doctorate program in mathematics at Ohio State University. He previously taught at Tennessee Temple, Bryan College, and the University of Washington. The addition of Mr. Woodard to the faculty brings the total to 48 for the 1966-67 year with 34 teachers teaching full time. The academic dean is still looking for someone with a master's degree to teach English and an individual with a master's degree in philosophy and a B.D. to teach philosophy.

FOUNDATION GRANT

The college received a $2,000 gift for the library from The Lubrizol Foundation of Cleveland, Ohio.

tian work, but it also provides churches with students who are willing to help in the work.

Services that were offered the churches were assistants in the fields of the pastorate, youth, music, Christian education, church secretary, and camp director.

DEVELOPMENT REPORT

Exciting things are happening at Cedarville this summer. The ringing of bells, halls filled with the laughter and talk of 763 students has been replaced by the roar of trucks and banging of hammers that are busy erecting our new library and dormitory.

Dry weather has permitted the Wenrick Construction Company of Medway, Ohio, to be ahead of schedule on the new library.

Our new 220-bed dormitory, being constructed by the Southern Mill and Manufacturing of Tulsa, Oklahoma, is behind schedule because of a strike of 12,000 construction workers in the Dayton area. The progress of the library was not affected because it is being built by non-union help.

Construction of the dormitory was resumed after the strike; however, the dormitory will not be ready for the fall semester. Other arrangements are being made to house about fifty students off campus.

Our own maintenance crews are busy with remodeling projects in preparation for the more than eight hundred students expected this fall.

Our ten-year master plan entitled "Fulfillment of Faith" was announced in our last issue of the Bulletin. Our library is an important step forward in achieving our goal.

Gifts Received	192,000	192,000
Balance Needed for Library	208,000

Balance Needed in Next Five Years

Bonds Sold to Finance Dormitories

The cost of our library has been incorporated into Phase One of our "Fulfillment of Faith" program. Gifts received for the library now total $192,000. We have made arrangements to borrow the rest of the needed funds on short-term notes. This balance of $208,000 must be received in gifts during the next five years before any of the other projects in Phase One can be started.

Churches and individuals taking part in our "Fulfillment of Faith" program, by indicating that they will give $1,000 to the Library Fund, will have their names inscribed on the library plaque. This will be done by the college if we have a sincere commitment that the money will be given in the months ahead. In other words, this can be a project which some can plan and bring to completion during the next five years if this much time is necessary.

ATHLETES

RECEIVE RECOGNITION

1965-66 was a banner year for Cedarville College athletes with several receiving national honors.

Under the direction of Coach Dennis Olson, soccer and baseball led the way with outstanding season records. The soccer team finished the season with a 7-1-1 record with one tie keeping them from a national play-off bid. Senior fullback Joe Stowell was named to the All-American West N.A.I.A. team. Joe was also named to the All-Ohio soccer team.

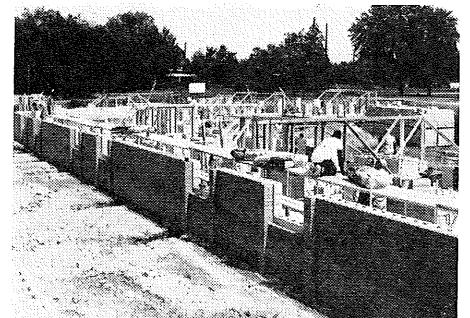

The baseball team finished the season with a 13-5 record. Eight of the wins went to Charlie Wilkins who was also named to the N.A.-I.A. All-American team. He posted a 8-1 record while leading the nation in strike-outs with a 15.5 average per nine inning game. He was also ranked fifth nationally with a 1.09 earned run average.

Other athletes receiving national mention this year were Roger McKinney Honorable Mention All-American in baseball, and Al Knott, also Honorable Mention All-American in basketball. Al is presently touring The Orient with the Ventures for Victory basketball team.

MORRIS BEAN GRANT

The Morris Bean Company gave a $1,000 gift to our "Fulfillment of Faith" program. The Morris Bean Company has a plant located in Cedarville. The company produces 80 per cent of the tire molds made in the country.

ALUMNI NEWS

Dr. George S. Milner, Mrs. Milner, Mrs. William Brown, Mr. Brown, Alumni President.

DR. MILNER ADDRESSES ALUMNI

Dr. George S. Milner, of the Cedarville College Board of Trustees and honorary lifetime member of the Alumni Association, spoke at the annual alumni banquet May 28 in the college dining hall.

"The life and future of our private colleges are largely in the hands of their alumni, and Cedarville College is no exception," Dr. Milner told the 85 alumni and guests present.

"It is they (the alumni) who recommend the school to prospective students. It is this group who largely furnishes the money to support and develop the school," he said, adding:

"This is especially true of those schools, who because of the principles for which they stand, do not accept government aid money which is now available in large amounts. In these 13 years, our Lord has wonderfully led and supplied our need. I need not list these items in detail. As we look about, they are evident to all of us.

"We are also aware that higher education is not static. Additional needs continue to develop and must be met. Among these is accreditation by the North Central Association of Colleges and Universities.

"As important as this may be, I do not regard it as our most important objective. To me it is most important that we serve well our Baptist constituency. This point could be elaborated on at length but matters of policy of this kind are reserved for our faculty and trustees, and I will not take your time now to go into further detail.

"Permit me merely to say, I am very proud of you and happy our Lord has given me the privilege of this association with you through these years.

"May God continue to bless each of you," he concluded.

FILM RECEIVES COMMENDATION

The college film, "Higher Than Higher Education," has been well-received in the churches. Comments have all been favorable and some have expressed real satisfaction over both content and the professional quality of the film. The film has been shown over one hundred forty times since it was released last October.

Requests for the film are still coming in, therefore, pastors are advised to write as soon as possible to reserve the film for their church.

MID-MISSIONS HOLDS SEMINAR

Cedarville College was host to the annual Baptist Mid-Missions candidate seminar held July 18-31. The purpose of the seminar was to orientate the potential missionaries with the principles, practices, and program of Mid-Missions. Out of 19 seminars, 12 of these have been held on the campus of Cedarville College.

The missionaries attending the seminar have been approved for their respective fields by the general council.

Our Congratulations And Best Wishes Are Extended To The Following Newlyweds

Ronald Eugene Culley ('66) and Beth Thomson ('66) were married on July 2.

James Engelmann ('66) and Judy Spear ('67) were married on April 9. Jim was drafted into the armed forces July 5.

Gordon Griffin ('66) and Julie Petrie ('65) were married on June 11.

Joseph Stowell ('66) and Martha Bennett ('66) were married on June 4.

Gordon Taylor ('66) and Rayna Butler ('65) were married on June 25.

Donald Dunstan ('67) and Patricia Bird ('66) were married on June 11.

Joseph Roden ('67) and Marian Karsnak ('64) were married on May 28.

OLDEST ALUMNUS VISITS

Mr. J. Robb Harper, Cedarville's oldest alumnus, visited the campus on July 1. Accompanying him were his wife, who taught at the college from 1895-1902, and Mr. Harper's nephew, Edgar Little, of Cedarville. Mr. Harper graduated with the class of 1900 and taught at the college for a short time. He later became a superintendent of schools in Illinois. Mr. Harper is 91 and Mrs. Harper is 92.

YOU AND YOUR CLASS AGENT

Dr. Milner stated at the alumni banquet that it is largely up to the alumni to help provide and continue the type of Christian education that Cedarville has to offer. The college has the responsibility of providing avenues of communication among alumni to ascertain the continuation of a Biblical-centered education. The college should also present proof of advancement in the physical, academic, and spiritual areas of campus life.

In order to do this, the college adopted the class-agent system. You are, therefore, urged to co-operate fully with your class agent by forwarding news, changes of address, and any other items which will strengthen the relationship between you and your classmates and the college.

The next bulletin will include a listing of the class agents and their addresses. If you did not receive the recent Alumni Newsletter, please write the Alumni Office at the college and include your address.

HOMECOMING IS COMING OCTOBER 7 - 8

Plans are already well under way for a Homecoming that will be full of surprises, fun, fellowship, and inspiration for all who attend. The two-day affair, starting at 1 p.m. on Friday, October 7, will truly be another first at Cedarville. The yearly banquet has been moved up to Friday evening so that you will be able to return home immediately after the soccer game on Saturday afternoon if you so desire.

It is hoped that enough members of each class will be present so that competition among events can be done on a class basis. What competition? Men, you had better start practicing now for the First Annual Alumni Golf Tournament. And ladies, would you believe a Miniature Golf Tournament? There will be much more, too.

Come and see your classmates' children in the nursery or the babysitting facilities that will, of course, be provided. A limited amount of free overnight lodging will be available on a first reply reservation basis. Please indicate the number in the party. Reservations can be made by contacting the Director of Alumni Relations. See you there.
