NO. 11-12

PUBLISHED BY CEDARVILLE COLLEGE AND ISSUED MONTHLY

Admitted as second class matter, Apr. 2, '15, at postoffice, Cedarville, O., under act of Congress of August 24, 1912.

Cedarville College

Next September marks the opening of the forty-first year of Cedarville College. Thousands of students have received a complete or partial education in Cedarville College. Over six-hundred have become alumni of Cedarville College. Our alumni are located in practically every state of the United States and also in several other countries.

Our alumni have entered all vocations. Many of them are holding positions of influence and responsibility. They are farmers, mechanics, merchants, bankers, teachers, attorneys, legislators, congressmen, physicians, missionaries, ministers of the gospel, and in various other pursuits.

OUR STUDENTS

Cedarville College is a co-educational college. During these forty years more than twenty states and several foreign countries have been represented in Cedarville College.

These students have been all this time identified, for the most part, with some church. This year they are one-hundred per cent members of the various churches. Among our churches the following have been and are represented: Presbyterian, U. S. A., Presbyterian, U. S., United Presbyterian, Reformed Presbyterian, Associate Presbyterian, Methodist Episcopal, Methodist Protestant, Baptist, Episcopalian, Christian, Disciples of Christ, Lutheran, Reformed, Adventist, Christian Science, Friends, Catholic, and Jews.

Nationalities among the students are and have been American, English, Scotch, Irish, Canadian, French, German, Italian, Korean, and Chinese.

Our students come from village, city and rural districts. Twenty-four counties in Ohio alone and over thirty villages and cities of Ohio are represented in the student body this year.

LOCATION

Cedarville College is located in the village of Cedarville, Greene County, Ohio. Cedarville is a beautiful and typical college town of about 1100 inhabitants. It was founded over one hundred years ago by Scotch, Irish, German, and Dutch peoples. It is made up of conservative loyal, American families. It is noted for its good homes, splendid schools, and excellent churches. Cedarville has paved streets, is well-lighted, has a modern system of water-works, is supplied with natural gas, and has enterprising business houses and one of the largest paper mills in the United States.

Near Cedarville is one of Ohio's famous mounds, and an old fort. The cliffs of Massies Creek noted for beauty, are about one-half mile from Cedarville, while the famous gorge of Clifton is only four miles away.

Cedarville is located in a rich agricultural community. Routes 42 and 72 and the main line of the Pennsylvania Railroad pass through Cedarville. These routes give easy access in all directions over the best of roads to all parts of our country.

Cedarville is only 8 miles from Xenia, 13 from Springfield, 24 from Dayton, 26 from Washington C. H., 22 from London, 44 from Troy, 53 from Piqua, 46 from Columbus, and 62 from Cincinnati.

Cedarville is the birthplace of the late Whitelaw Reid, former owner and publisher of the New York Tribune, and ambassador to King James' Court.

EXPENSES

One of the advantages in attending College at Cedarville is the low cost to the student. The total expense to non-resident students runs from $250 to $350 for the collegiate year of nine months. This includes tuition, furnished room in a private home, electric light, gas, hot water or furnace heat, text-books, and good table board.

Quite a number of students reduce even the above expenses by working to make at least part of their way.

A limited number of jobs and scholarships are open to students.

FACULTY

Cedarville College has always maintained an able staff of professors. Its faculty have gotten their higher education in such colleges and universities as Franklin, Monmouth, Wooster, Ohio Wesleyan, Wittenberg College, Denison University, Maryville College, Indiana University, Ohio State University, Northwestern University, Bowling Green State College, Ohio Northern University, and Purdue University.

The faculty are men and women of experience in their fields. They always are sympathetic with the students and bend every effort to encourage the students to do their best in preparation for their life's work.

CURRICULA

Cedarville College has curricula whose satisfactory completion gives the degrees of Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Science, and Bachelor of Science in Education. These curricula train for every vocation. A liberal election of studies is allowed throughout the collegiate course.

Curricula are offered in Arts and Science, Agriculture, Education, Theology, and Music. Courses running from one to three years are offered to prepare students for special and technical schools. These are such courses as pre-engineering, pre-law, pre-medical, pre-dental, pre-home economics, etc. Work taken in these courses is counted towards the various college degrees. Courses, recognized by the Department of Education of Ohio, are offered to all wishing to teach in the elementary grades and high schools. For full description of the curricula you should send for the catalogue of Cedarville College.

SUMMER SCHOOL

Cedarville College Summer School for 1934 opens June 11 and closes July 14. The session is for six weeks. Six credits may be earned in collegiate subjects. The school is open to high school students, high school graduates, college students, college graduates, teachers of elementary and high school subjects, any who wish to train for teaching in elementary or high schools, any who desire to prepare for the ministry of the Gospel, and any who wish to prepare for standing in technical or special school.

A second Summer Session of six weeks will be offered. It will begin July 18 and close August 18.

Cedarville College offers the following subjects in the Summer School: Bible, Botany, Chemistry, Economics, Education, English, French, Greek, History, Latin, Mathematics, Philosophy, Physics, Political Science, Psychology, Sociology, Speech, Theology, Zoology. EXPENSES

Tuition for five weeks	$20.00
Boarding (estimated)	$20.00
Furnished room (estimated)	$10.00
Text-books (estimated)	$ 5.00

This estimate is high. In most cases the total cost will be about $50 for the above items for five weeks.

PRACTICE TEACHING

Opportunity will be given for practice teaching in the elementary field during the Summer Session. Since the facilities are limited, it is desirable that anyone interested in earning credits in practice teaching make early application, so that a place may be provided. The fee for Practice Teaching is two dollars and fifty cents per credit hour.

COURSES IN EDUCATION

Theory courses in education in both the elementary and high school fields, meeting the requirements for the education major, will be offered in the summer school. This affords an excellent opportunity to earn additional credits toward the provisional state certificate.

STUDENT ACTIVITIES

The student activities are numerous and furnish an education in themselves. They are:

1. Athletics. Cedarville College plays both intramural games and inter collegiate games. The leading games are basketball, tennis, and baseball. Cedarville College is a member of the Northwestern Conference.

2. Physical Education. The Director of Physical Education is assisted by two helpers, one for the men and the other for the women. A good gymnasium together with calisthenics, field sports, folk dances, and hikes give an abundance of opportunity to develop health and strength.

3. Social Affairs. Our students get together in church receptions, Y. M. and Y. W. socials, class spreads, faculty receptions, and the president's annual reception.

4. Forensics. Public speaking, debates with other colleges in which Cedarville College has accredited itself, Bible Reading Contests, and dramatics develop the platform ability of our students. A good literary society offers excellent opportunity for training in forensics besides social privileges.

5. Music. A girls' glee club, a mixed chorus, and three quartettes actively engage large groups of students in song both on the campus and away from home at churches, clubs, and public schools.

6. Monk's Club. A group of young men preparing to preach the gospel have been going in bands of four to six and addressing various churches in Greene and surrounding counties. They have had more engagements than they could fill.

7. Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. For years the Young Men's and Young Women's Christian Associations have been identified with Cedarville College. They do an excellent spiritual work among our students. Moreover they are affiliated with the state and national organizations of like character. They bring our students into touch with large groups of young people and face to face with present pressing problems.

8. Publications. Our students publish from the college office a bi-monthly known as "Whispering Cedars." They also publish the college annual—"The Cedrus." This year's Cedrus is the Fortieth Anniversary number and is replete with many matters of interest to all of our alumni, former students, and friends.

9. Student Government. Our students body is organized to carry on its own business activities. Each week, on Thursday, our student body conducts business meet-

LETTERS FROM THE ALUMNI

The following letters from Alumni relative to the celebrations of the 40th Anniversary have been received since the issuance of the last bulletin.

1897

January 26, 1934.
109 South Third Avenue, East
Newton, Iowa.

Dear Cedarville College:

The first class to be graduated from Cedarville College sends greetings and good wishes as our Alma Mater nears her Fortieth Anniversary. What a wonderful thing to celebrate a birthday. We celebrate birthdays of children and of age, and they are always happy occasions.

Cedarville College is neither young nor old, but forty years in the life of an institution is long enough for it to get its bearings and exercise its influence. Cedarville College is holding to the old landmarks along the Christian pathway and keeping up with the modern methods of approach to the problems of life.

The Fortieth Anniversary ought to mark an epoch in the history of our College and the beginning of a new era.

As far as possible the Alumni and friends should try to be present next Commencement and make the Fortieth Anniversary a very happy occasion.

JOHN W. BICKETT,
Class of 1897.

Troy, N. Y.

The undersigned, a member of Class of 1909, has had a very ungrateful record so far as returns to his several Alma Maters are concerned. Graduating in 1906 from High School—I've never been back. . . Graduating from C. C. in 1909—I have been back but once—taking advantage of a Paid-by-Others-Trip to Pittsburgh General Assembly to surprise Cal Wright and other natives by going to Cedarville for Commencement, 1931. . . Graduating from McCormick Seminary, in 1912, I've been back but once to Commencement, May 1932. . . Such a thing ought not so to be with any loyal thankful Alumnus. . . Personally I am ashamed of the foregoing Records. My visits for a day to Cedarville in 1931 and for a few days to the 20th Anniversary of my Class' graduation to Chicago—showed me conclusively what I've often secretly felt—that I was losing much by being so much out of touch with the work of my Alma Maters in the present day. . . The Why as to why I haven't been back to C. C. more often was not due to any Disinclination—but rather to limitation of pocketbook. . . Now we are facing Cedarville's 40th Anniversary—out of sheer thanks to the College for what she has meant to the homes of Greene County Community—any number of Alumni and the Parents, if living, who started them at Cedarville, should be present at the 1934 Commencement Season—and if not convenient to be there every day, you Preachers, Teachers, Farmers, Business and Professional Wives, whether living at a distance or close by should scheme in some way to be present part of the time. . . Confronting Cedarville's 40th Anniversary—Alumni, near and far, and their Relatives and Friends, should make all Efforts to be present particularly in view of the sacrificial service rendered to C. C. by two men, either or both of whom undoubtedly could have deserted the ship for more profitable surroundings long ere this, if they had heeded other Calls—I refer to our beloved President, the Rev. W. R. McChesney, D.D., who came to the Faculty in 1894—and to the Rev. Prof. Frank A. Jurkat, LL.D., who came in 1895 and has been on the lookout for bad Quarters ever since. . . . Heading up from C. C.'s 40th to her 50th Anniversary—the Question is "What Alumnus or Alumna doesn't want to see Alma Mater live in perpetuity?" It is a crying out sin that men or women with the millions can't be aroused to rally around Cedarville. If some could only be gripped betwixt now and 1945, Cedarville would more assuredly stand to the Joy of Directors, Alumni, Faculty, Friends. . . . What say you to a more adequate representation of Alumni of all Classes 1897 to 1933 inclusive? What say you, the Hugh Hawthornes, the Wilson Adams, the Bill Lintons, the Ervin Blairs, the Ira Corneiliuses, the Wallace Rifles, the Harold Brysons—using those names I refer to some who were in School with 1909—but for one reason or another didn't graduate at C. C. Why couldn't these with similar groups from other years persuade themselves to wend their way to C. C. there to join with he-men they once companied with—Joe Finney, Jack Nash, Pop Waide, Ken, Gowdy, Fred Williamson, Frank Creswell, Ernest McClellan, Bill Ritter, Hed Ustick, Roy, Carl Marshall, Lloyd Confarr, Ernest Spahr, Charley Baskin—and a host of other youths, then and since, who meant much to our several selves in College days—and speaking of the men coming, what would 40th Anniversary be if lacking the presence of College Girls from 1894 to 1933 who made Beautiful Cedarville more heavenly to you and you and you—and me! . . .

What say you, Class of 1909, whose 25th Anniversary of Graduation comes this June—what say you, Providence permitting, to a perfect Attendance at Commencement, 1934? Here's hoping the 40th Anniversary will give a mighty impetus to Cedarville's rightful endeavor to have a triumphant 50th Year. . . . Best Wishes.

Since our Alma Mater is celebrating her 40th Anniversary next May 27-June 2, 1934, I, as a member of the class of 1914, urge that all of you plan to attend, if it is at all possible.

Wouldn't it be wonderful if all the graduates of C. C. could be present then? Let us do our part and thus encourage Dr. McChesney and his fellow-workers to go forward in the splendid work of training young men and women for Christian service.

EDNA STORMONT DUNCAN.

Coulterville, Ill.

To the former graduates of Cedarville College and all alumni, I as a member of the class of '21, wish to bring to your minds the fact that next Spring, the first week in June, Cedarville College will be celebrating her Fortieth Anniversary. For forty years youth has been drinking from this fountain of knowledge and going out to all the world and giving the thirsty human family worthwhile knowledge. Thus it is fitting and proper that we all should endeavor to honor our Alma Mater with our presence the week in May 27-June 2 of 1934.

The commencement exercises of Cedarville College, May 27-June 2, 1934, which is also the Fortieth Anniversary of the College, marks, at the same time, the tenth anniversary of the class of '24. It seems but yesterday when we sat in the classroom preparing for the climax of our college career, namely graduation day. The memory of college days grows dearer as the years roll on. May it not be that each member of the class of '24 shall make a real effort to be in attendance at some part of the exercises in connection with the occasion which celebrates the Fortieth Anniversary of old C. C.

HARPER BICKETT.

Members of the Class of '28—Cedarville College:

It is indeed a privilege to add a word to all that will be said relative to the Fortieth Anniversary Exercises of Cedarville College, May 27-June 2, 1934. As I am writing this letter I realize that the New Year is just around the corner, which means that next June is not so far away. Thus it will soon be time to make our plans for attending the Commencement Week activities of the College where we were classmates. It hardly seems possible that it is over five years since the members of our class received their diplomas, but it is. Surely it will be a real pleasure to see and greet one another once more, and to live over again those happy and profitable years of preparation. Also to meet the faculty, members of other classes, and the friends of the institution.

May OUR CLASS, the Class of '28, be well represented at the coming Anniversary Exercises. And may that special week be replete with meaning and many happy events.

Very sincerely,
DAY KENNEDY.

ings, in which all the students are free to take part.

10. State Relief and Federal Emergency Relief. Cedarville College was duly recognized to participate in State Relief and Federal Emergency Relief to aid students. One-tenth of our student body has thereby received aid and are at work earning a part of their way through college. This same means will be open to a limited number of students next September, provided the State and Federal governments continue the program.

LECTURES

Besides the lectures before classes, our students have the opportunity almost every week, and sometimes oftener, to hear in chapel distinguished visitors lecture on various themes of a literary, historical, scientific, business, or religious character.

Among some of the most interesting this year were talks on Alaska by Mr. George B. Smith of Dayton; on Baffin Land by Mrs. Blackmore; on Inheritance by Dr. Cecil Rife, Cedarville, and on Vital Elements of Character by Oscar T. Hagen of Chicago.

LIBRARY

Cedarville College is the grateful recipient of a library given by the late Andrew Carnegie. This library is replete with books on all subjects; and magazines and newspapers are found on the reading tables. A number of our students aid the regular librarian by keeping the library open before and after the usual hours for closing.

LABORATORIES

Our laboratories for Botany, Chemistry, Physics, and Zoology have been built up during the past few years until they afford an excellent opportunity for students in these subjects to experiment along their favorite lines.

DEPARTMENT OF MUSIC

Pianoforte, Pipe organ, voice training, history of music, harmony, public school music, glee club, mixed chorus, and quartettes give ample opportunity to lovers of music under the skillful direction of Mrs. Margaret Jamieson Work.

OTHER SUBJECTS

What shall we say of a course with Prof. Hostetler in teacher training and various other educational subjects; or with Mrs. Jacobs in elementary teacher training; or with Dr. Jurkat in history and German; or with Mrs. Heintz in Latin and English; or with Mrs. Work in French; or with Prof. Kuehrmann in Chemistry and Zoology; or with Prof. Ault in mathematics and physics; or with Dean Steele in Sociology and Bible; or with President McChesney in Greek and philosophy? These and other subjects are taught in almost 60 classes in Cedarville College. The classes vary in size from 5 up to 50. There is a splendid chance for every student to get personal attention and privilege in every class. Besides laboratory work, much reference work is carried on in the library.

RELIGIOUS ADVANTAGES

Cedarville College cultivates the entire personality. In athletics, physical education and the gymnasium, the health and welfare of the body are considered. The mental man is developed by text-book, lecture, experiments in the laboratory, research in the library, and recitation in the class room. The moral man is trained by precept and example in and out of the class-room. The spiritual and religious tendencies are afforded chapel reading of the Bible, prayers, and praise. Reverence for God and the things which make for true character are taught. Students are left to the choice of their own Church and the formation of their own religious convictions.

Cedarville College claims that the greatest need of America today, and of the world too, is strong, healthy, clear and true thinking, clean-hearted, upright, God-loving, humanity serving, men and women.

Our aim in training our young men and women is to lead them to be strong and chaste in body, correct and quick of thought, upright and serviceable among their fellow-men, and to live conscious always of the presence of God.

FORTIETH ANNIVERSARY

Plans are about complete for the fortieth anniversary of Cedarville College.

All of Commencement Week, May 27-June 2, 1934, will be given to celebrate the fortieth anniversary of Cedarville College. Letters from former students and graduates, as well as many other friends, are coming in now. Friends are coming from all points of the compass.

College colors will be flying. College songs will be on every tongue. College yells will come from every lip. They will come to tell of long-ago as well as near-by days. They will recount experiences of the campus and the court. Class reunions will be held. Class rivalries will be renewed. You are coming too. No, you cannot afford to miss it. Besides the usual commencement week activities, there will be talks by old and new grads, feasts, and spreads. A day each will be given to field sports, class stunts, the alumni banquet to be the biggest ever—and there will be a church day for all denominations, an education day for public schools and colleges. At this, the Director of Education of Ohio, Honorable B. O. Skinner, will be the chief speaker. There will be a patriotic day too for the G. A. R., S. of V., W. W. V., D. A. R., S. A. R., and fraternal organizations. Then there will be a Cedarville College Consecration Day of joining hands, hearts and efforts for the years to come.

Keep the date in mind. Arrange to be here with all the rest of us. Bring your friends. Bring your heart full of good will, your tongue ready with interesting tale and charming song—and your pocket book jingling with gifts for the Cedarville College endowment fund.

Every gift received that week, or before, if so designated, will be put into the permanent endowment fund of Cedarville College. A roll of honor will carry your name and gift. We are asking for 5000 names and gifts. The roll is already started. There is no objection to your sending your gift and having your name enrolled now on the FORTIETH ANNIVERSARY HONOR ROLL.

Any gift from $1 up will be most thankfully received. Now is the time to send your gift—but later will do if that is more convenient than now. The fortieth anniversary is the psychological time to make a new start, a big start, and a start all together, for Cedarville College. Please send your gift to the president. W. R. McChesney, for the permanent endowment fund. We want and need your gift and we want and need your name among 5000 on the HONOR ROLL FOR THE FORTIETH ANNIVERSARY OF CEDARVILLE COLLEGE. Here is a chance to boost the endowment of Cedarville College. It is your chance, my chance, and the chance of everybody who is a friend of true Christian education. Please think this over carefully, prayerfully. Please do not cast this plea aside. Please act on it now and for Cedarville College.

The General Committee of the 40th Anniversary of Cedarville College are Chairman Dean C. W. Steele, Dean Louise E. Heintz, Prof. Otto W. Kuehrmann, Mrs. Margaret J.
