COME TO ALUMNI BANQUET

The Alumni of Cedarville College should be the school's most loyal supporters. It has long been felt that we need a more active full-time organization. The Columbus alumni chapter has proved what can be done as a starter. Representatives from Columbus will tell of their program, and the group is going to present a novel and interesting plan for widespread radio publicity for Cedarville, especially designed to stimulate alumni interest. Mr. Kilpatrick will give a frank, honest picture of the College's present situation, its dreams for the future, and the specific plans for the immediate future.

MARION S. RIFE,
President of Cedarville
College Alumni Association

The alumni banquet and business meeting will be held on Thursday evening, June 5, in Alford Memorial Gymnasium. The price per plate this year will be seventy-five cents. Dinner will be served promptly at 7:00. An especially good program has been planned. The committee wants to make Thursday evening, June 5, an enjoyable evening for you. It will be a real help to us if you make early reservations. It was decided by the committee to save the expense of sending out return post cards, so please accept this as your personal invitation, and write to Miss Glenna Basore, Alumni Secretary, or call the college office (6-1041) or Miss Basore's home. (6-2433).

I would urge again that all Alumni who are interested in our College plan to attend this year, and make our 1941 banquet, meeting, and program a notable event.

MARION RIFE, Alumni President

CALLING ALL FRIENDS !

Banks, industries, and small firms have suffered many losses in the last twelve years. Many even of the stronger of these have gone into bankruptcy. But not one Ohio college has "quit." All are needed.

How have the small Christian colleges kept above water? Through their invested funds? Partly—but interest rates are lower now, you know. Through the students' tuition? Yes, in part—but even more students need financial help than ever before.

The real secret of the continued strength of schools like Cedarville lies in the sacrificial work of its faculty; the determined business efforts of its trustees; above all, in the faith, the prayers, and the generosity of its friends. Knowing Cedarville's remarkable record for preparing students for life, confident that her work is carried on at the lowest possible cost, you—alumni, former students, friends—have shared with us the load of operating expenses.

We have borrowed about $3000 from the bank during the current fiscal year. If gifts and pledges during the next four weeks equal that sum, we can announce to the Board of Trustees on June 5 that our bank loans are no greater than at this time last year.

All businesses—even the government—must regain a balanced budget at the very earliest moment possible. Will you prove once more your loving concern for the work of Cedarville College, with your gifts and your continuing prayers?

Gratefully yours,
W. S. KILPATRICK

COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER.

President Kenneth Irving Brown, of Denison University, will be the speaker at Cedarville College's forty-fifth annual commencement exercises, June 6. Dr. Brown is completing his first year as head of the Granville college.

DR. KENNETH I. BROWN

A native New Yorker, his undergraduate work was taken at the University of Rochester, where he received his Bachelor of Arts degree in 1918. During a period of residence and graduate instruction at Harvard University, President Brown received the Master of Arts and Doctor of Philosophy degrees. In 1935 the University of Rochester honored him with the degree of Doctor of Laws. He is a member of Phi Beta Kappa.

After completing his graduate work, Dr. Brown served as Professor of Biblical Literature at Stephens College, Columbia, Missouri, until 1930. He was then called to the presidency of Hiram College, in Hiram, Ohio, where he had a distinguished decade of progressive college leadership. While at Hiram, Dr. Brown inaugurated the widely-discussed "Hiram Study Plan," designed to make possible a more thorough and unified studying program for college students. The Hiram Plan is described in his book, "A Campus Decade". An earlier volume from Dr. Brown's pen is "Character: Bad," the edited war letters of a conscientious objector in the first World War.

NEWS FROM PHYSICAL EDUCATION DEPARTMENT

Coach Thompson has accepted a new and responsible position with the department of physical education of the Bethlehem Central School, of Delmar, N. Y., a suburb of Albany. His work there will begin July 1, and he and Mrs. Thompson will leave Cedarville after Commencement for a short vacation before starting in at Albany. We congratulate Coach on this new position, and hope that the Thompsons will be happy in their new work.

President Kilpatrick announces that his search for someone who is qualified to take over the work of the Coaching and Physical Education Department has been crowned with unexpectedly early success. A definite announcement cannot be made until action by certain committees of the Board. However, he promises that the new man will bring a wealth of training and experience, and the highest of recommendations as one of the outstanding young athletic directors in a nearby state. The new coach has been particularly successful in producing winning teams and teams with the reputation of fine sportsmanship. He is enthusiastic about the possibilities of the position at Cedarville College in building up a strong Department of Health and Physical Education, and will also be fully qualified to do some of the work in the Mathematics Department.

SUMMER SCHOOL ANNOUNCEMENTS

Preliminary registration and inquiries indicate that the 1941 Summer Session of Cedarville College will be a busy and successful one. Prof. A. J. Hostler is co-operating closely with President Kilpatrick in planning the summer's work and securing an adequate faculty. In addition to Prof. Steele and other members of the college faculty, several outstanding educators will be brought in from their regular teaching positions to carry on the summer's program. The new head of the Department of Physical Education is expected to be on hand, with his wife, for those who are working on physical education minors. Practice teaching will be available upon request.

Anyone interested in studying at Cedarville College this summer is urged to apply at once, indicating the subjects in which you wish instruction. Special emphasis will be laid on work in the Department of Education for teachers seeking permanent certificates, additional teaching fields, or preparation in the elementary line.

The first session opens at 7:30 A. M. Monday, June 15, and closes Saturday, July 18. The second session begins at 7:30 A. M. Monday, July 20, and closes Saturday, August 22. All classes meet in the morning, six days a week, and a student can earn six to eight hours credit each session. Expenses for each session will not exceed $60 for tuition, books, board, and room. Tuition is $25 per session, with an estimated $5 required for books.

MOTHER-DAUGHTER BANQUET

A. acted as toastmistress and welcomed the guests. Mrs. H. R. Owens responded on behalf of the mothers. Mrs. Lawrence Kemp, recently from England and now living in Springfield, was the guest speaker. Other numbers on the program included selections by a vocal trio composed of Janice Finke, Orsadee Stewart, and Eudora Brill; marimba selections by Marian Van Tress, and readings by Vona Ruth West.

Twenty-eight graduates, former students, and friends of the college met at the Southern Hotel Monday evening, April 28, at a dinner meeting called by the president, Principal Willard Barlow of the Hubbard School, Columbus. Careful work by the committees not only laid the plans for an interesting meeting, but gained the College widespread publicity in Central Ohio papers. WE HEAR FROM A FRIEND

Stadium Club, O. S. U.
Columbus, Ohio
April 7, 1941

Dear Mr. Kilpatrick:

For some time I have been intending to write you to tell you how much I appreciated my year at Cedarville College and what a help it has been in my work here at Ohio State University.

I spent the year 1939-1940 at Cedarville College taking subjects that would help me in Veterinary Medicine. These subjects were: Chemistry, Zoology, Rhetoric, Economics, Sociology, Speech and Political Science. When I took my credits to Ohio State every one of them was accepted by the University and I entered as a Sophomore.

Some fifteen hundred persons were applying for entrance into the Veterinary College and since only sixty-five could be accepted and I was fortunate enough to be one of them, I do feel that I owe much to Cedarville College for the year of preparation.

Since my credits were in no way questioned and all of them were accepted here at Ohio State, I certainly am glad to recommend Cedarville to anyone who might want to take preparatory work before entering a larger university.

Trusting you have had a successful year again this year and with highest regards to you and the other faculty members, I am

Sincerely yours,
(Signed) Warren J. Taylor
