“Cedarville’s A College.”

Cedarville’s a college in a grand old State,
Built by the hands of a Ruling Fate,
Guiding eager students through the open gate
Of dear old Cedarville.
Fitting them for champions of the truth and right,
Arming them completely for the coming fight,
Leading them to victory over wrong and might,
At dear old Cedarville.

Chorus:—

Senior, Freshman; Soph., and Junior, too.
Join your hearts and efforts, and in everything you do,
“Onward! Upward!” be your motto still,
Follow close the leading of your dear old Cedarville.

Cedarville’s a college full of joy and song,
Work combined with pleasure through the whole day long,
Happiness and gladness e’er to her belong,
To dear old Cedarville.
Harmony and unity do there prevail,
Bitter strife and enmity shall ne’er assail,
In all that’s great and glorious, she cannot fail,
Not dear old Cedarville.

Cedarville’s a college that shall ever stand,
Shedding light and glory over all the land,
Reaching out to everyone a helping hand,
From dear old Cedarville.
Many be the victories that are in her way,
Many be the triumphs of the coming day,
Many be the students who shall always say,
“Our dear old Cedarville!”

“The Cedar Song.”

Cedar trees are dark green emblems;
Power, strength they shadow forth,
Standing rugged on the mountains,
Or midst snows of icy North.

Cedarville’s a glorious college,
Small, but mighty in its day,
Standing firm midst sin and error,
’Gainst the wrong a solid stay.

Cedar trees, we know, were planted
By the Lord’s almighty hand;
Life and nourishment are given
That through ages they may stand.

Cedarville, the Christian college,
By the Lord was planted here;
Life and power will be granted
As it grows from year to year.

Gathered here, we plant the cedar,
Emblem of our college dear;
Power, strength, and glorious honor,
May He in its future rear.
