

6-20-2015

The Children of James and Martha Murdock McMillan

Cedarville University

Follow this and additional works at: http://digitalcommons.cedarville.edu/mcmillan_supplemental_material

 Part of the Christian Denominations and Sects Commons, Christianity Commons, Civic and Community Engagement Commons, Family, Life Course, and Society Commons, and the Higher Education Commons

The McMillan Journal Collection is an archive of the journals of Martha McMillan of Cedarville, Ohio, who maintained a daily journal from 1867 until her death in 1913.

Recommended Citation

Cedarville University, "The Children of James and Martha Murdock McMillan" (2015). Supplemental Material. 1. http://digitalcommons.cedarville.edu/mcmillan_supplemental_material/1

This Report is brought to you for free and open access by DigitalCommons@Cedarville, a service of the Centennial Library. It has been accepted for inclusion in Supplemental Material by an authorized administrator of DigitalCommons@Cedarville. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@cedarville.edu.

The Children of James and Martha Murdock
McMillan

1. James¹ McMillan, born 16 Dec 1833, in Ohio, died 8 Oct 1912, in Cedarville Township, Greene County, Ohio. He married Martha Elizabeth Murdock 1867. Martha Elizabeth Murdock was born Feb 1844, in Clinton County, Ohio, died 12 Aug 1913, in Kenton, Hardin County, Ohio.

The James McMillan family lived on the McMillan farm near Cedarville, Greene County, Ohio, where his father, David, settled when he moved to Ohio from Chester County, South Carolina.

Children of James McMillan and Martha Elizabeth Murdock:

- i. Frances McMillan, born 8 Feb 1868, in Cedarville, Greene County, Ohio, died 10 Sep 1939, in Flushing, New York, buried in Evergreen Cemetery, Salem, Washington County, New York. She married Thomas Hanna Mackenzie. Thomas Hanna Mackenzie was born 18 Nov 1867, in Sewickley, Pennsylvania, died 6 Jun 1942, in Flushing, New York, buried in Evergreen Cemetery, Salem, Washington County, New York.
Frances McMillan graduated from Monmouth College in 1888.
Thomas MacKenzie was a minister of the United Presbyterian Church. He entered the Reformed Church in America in 1896. He served as a pastor in Port Jervis, New York, until 1905, and as pastor of First Church, Flushing, New York, until his retirement as Pastor Emeritus in 1940.
- ii. Frederick C. McMillan, born 19 May 1870, died 1957, buried in Massies Creek Cemetery, Greene County, Ohio.
Frederick McMillan received his A.B. degree from Monmouth College in 1896. He was a railroad executive for several railroads: the Wabash; San Antonio, Uvalde, and Gulf, and; the Kansas City and St. Paul Short Line. He was also Vice-President of the Central Iowa Fuel Company and of the American Ice Service Company. He received the honorary degree, Doctor of Laws, from Sterling and Tarkio Colleges. Frederick McMillan was a prominent layman in the United Presbyterian Church. In 1921, he was appointed to accompany the Rev. Mills J. Taylor, Secretary, to visit the foreign missions fields in Egypt, the Sudan, Ethioia, and India, visiting China and the Far East on the return journey. In 1924, he attended the Montevideo Foreign Mission Conference and visited the Presbyterian mission stations in South America with Dr. Robert E. Speer.
- iii. Harlan McMillan, born 14 Mar 1872, in Cedarville, Greene County, Ohio, died 26 Nov 1947. He married Isabella W. Smith 14 Feb 1906, in Clark County, Ohio. Isabella W. Smith was born 17 Apr 1881, in Springfield, Clark County, Ohio. Harlan McMillan was a graduate of Nelson Business College in Springfield, Ohio. He was with the Washburn, Crosby Company in St. Louis, and later conducted the wholesale Coal and Feed Company, in Mason City, Iowa.
- iv. Homer McMillan, born 20 Dec 1873, in Cedarville Township, Greene County, Ohio. He married Mary Hannah Kitchen 12 Jun 1900, in Franklin County, Ohio. Homer McMillan attended Monmouth College and received his A.B. degree from Cedarville College in 1897. He received his B.D. degree from New Brunswick Theological Seminary of the Reformed Church in America in 1900. He was ordained by the Classis of Bergen in in 1900 and installed as pastor of the Bogart Memorial Reformed Church in Bogata, New Jersey. He entered the Southern Presbyterian Church in 1904 and served as pastor in Buford, Georgia, from 1904-1906. He served the church in the following capacities: Associate Secretary of the Executive Committee of Home Missions, 1906-1920; General Secretary, 1920-1929; Executive Secretary, 1929-1948. He received the honorary degrees of D.D. and LL.D. from Westminster College. He was also one of the organizers of the Home Mission Council of North America and twice its president; member of the World Alliance of Presbyterian and Reformed Churches; member of the World Conference on Faith and Order in Edinburgh, Scotland, in 1937; member of the American Provisional Committee of the World Council of Churches; delegate of the Southern Presbyterian Church to the World Council Assembly in Amsterdam in 1948; member of the World Council's Commission on Faith and Order.

- v. Clara Lucille McMillan, born 11 Mar 1876, died 11 Feb 1949. Clara McMillan received her B.O. degree from Drake University and taught at Burleson College in Greenville, Texas. She held the following positions: Librarian at Ohio State Library, Assistant Librarian at Temple University, Librarian at West Liberty State Normal College in West Virginia, and Librarian at Salem College in North Carolina.
- vi. Infant Daughter McMillan, born 26 Oct 1878, in Cedarville Township, Greene County, Ohio, died 26 Oct 1878, in Massies Creek Cemetery, Greene County, Ohio.
- vii. Clayton McMillan, born 20 Mar 1880, died 8 Feb 1947, buried in Massies Creek Cemetery, Greene County, Ohio. He married Bertha Edith Rankin 29 Oct 1908, in Greeley, Colorado. Bertha Edith Rankin was born 1885, died 1966, in Massies Creek Cemetery, Greene County, Ohio. Clayton McMillan graduated from the Commercial Department of Tarkio College in 1905. He was a successful farmer, being the third generation to live on the McMillan farm in Greene County, Ohio.
- viii. Jason Leon McMillan, born 5 Apr 1882. He married Nelle Theresa Rankin 29 Oct 1908, in Greeley, Colorado. Jason McMillan received his A.B. from Tarkio College in 1905 and his B.D. degree from Princeton Theological Seminary in 1908. He received the Doctor of Divinity degree from Cedarville, Kings, and Tusculum Colleges. He served as a pastor in Oyster Bay, Long Island, New York, from 1909-1911. He entered the Southern Presbyterian Church and served as pastor in Abingdon Virginia, 1911-1916; Johnson City, Tennessee, 1916-1924; First Church, Norfolk, Virginia, 1925-1950, retiring as Pastor Emeritus in 1950. He helped to organize the Synod of Appalachia in 1916 and served as Moderator in 1920. He later served as Moderator of the Synod of Virginia in 1937.
- ix. Florence McMillan, born 6 Apr 1888, in Greene County, Ohio, died Nov 1888, in Greene County, Ohio, buried in Massies Creek Cemetery, Greene County, Ohio.
- x. Paul Roger McMillan, born 11 Apr 1890, in Greene County, Ohio, died 25 May 1910, in North Carolina, buried in Massies Creek Cemetery, Greene County, Ohio.