On behalf of the NCCAA and the Board of Directors, I welcome you to the NCCAA Women's & Men's National Tennis Championships. It is exciting for all of us to have these institutions from across the United States competing in Mobile, Alabama this weekend.

This event is just one of our 25 national championships sanctioned by the NCCAA. Over 18,000 student-athletes and 103 institutions make up the NCCAA and this championship is an important part of our association as we complete the 2014-15 academic year. Many hours of planning, organizing and praying have gone into this event and we thank the Lord for all of those who serve.

Congratulations to each student-athlete and coach who participates in these games. Your involvement in this championship setting certainly represents many weeks of dedicated time and work. It can also be a statement that you stand for the Lord while you compete.

The NCCAA thanks Dee Morris, National Tennis Co-Chair from Cedarville University, and Jeremy Nelson, National Tennis Co-Chair from Central Christian College, for their excellent leadership in organizing and administrating these championships and the sport of tennis within the NCCAA. Sincere appreciation also goes to Scott Novak, Director of the Mobile Tennis Center, and his team for their willingness to host a championship of this magnitude.

The NCCAA is unique and stands alone as the only national intercollegiate athletics association that uses athletics to serve the Great Commission. As we attempt to assist our student-athletes in shaping their Game Plan 4 LIFE, we hope you thoroughly enjoy your experience at this NCCAA Championship.

Sincerely,

Dan Wood
Executive Director

Welcome from Cedarville University Athletic Director • Dr. Alan Geist

May 5, 2015

Thank you for attending the 2015 National Christian College Athletic Association Men's & Women's Tennis Championships. Cedarville University appreciates the opportunity to partner with both the beautiful city of Mobile, Alabama and the NCCAA to host this tremendous event.

Please take the time to enjoy Mobile, the surrounding area, and the outstanding facilities provided by Copeland-Cox. As a former resident of Mobile, I have a great deal of respect for the area and the special people that call it home.

May God continue to bless each of your institutions and be glorified by the spirit that will be displayed. We hope your time here produces some wonderful memories and provides a fitting end to your 2014-15 academic year and tennis season.

Have a great championship week!

Dr. Alan Geist

Athletic Director • Cedarville University

Welcome from NCCAA National Tennis Chair • Dr. Dee Morris

May 5, 2015

Welcome to Mobile and the 2015 NCCAA National Tennis Championships. We are indeed blessed to play our tournament at the Copeland-Cox Tennis Center, with its outstanding facilities, and great staff.

You will have opportunity to both compete and fellowship with tennis players from various parts of our country, as well as with those from other parts of the world. You will have opportunity to work together to serve the Mobile community in our service project.

NCCAA events are about more than competing for a banner; they are an opportunity to demonstrate that athletes can strive with all their might and skill to win, and do it in a way that honors our Lord. It is my hope and prayer that all we do this week will honor our Lord Jesus Christ. May we honor Him with our skill, sportsmanship, speech and interactions on and off the court.

I wish you all great tennis, good fellowship, and pleasant tournament memories
Serving for Him,

Dr. Dee Morris • Cedarville University • NCCAA Tennis Chair

- Scott Novak, Tennis Tournament Director

 - City of Mobile and Mobile County

Special Thanks to Scott Novak

The NCCAA National Championships would not be the "class" events they have grown to be without the help of Scott Novak, Director of the Mobile Tennis Center. He is the one who works with the Marriott on lodging and the banquet, arranges for our USTA officials, and handles the numerous on-site details essential to making our tournament a great experience. Thanks, Scott!

2015 NCCAA Tournament Chaplain • Mike Henderson

A strong believer in building strong teams and fitness foundations in athletes. Henderson is in his 15th season with the USF men's tennis team. In his tenure, Henderson has helped lead the team to four Conference USA Championships, one Metro Conference Championship, one BIG EAST Championship, and eight NCAA appearances. Henderson's coaching philosophy focuses on building aggressive style of play, which he believes is what top collegiate players must adopt in order to be successful.

Among his many tennis credits, Henderson has worked as the top conditioning coach at the Nick Bollettieri Academy, where he worked with top pros including Jimmy Arias, Aaron Krickstein, and Jim Courier. Henderson also coached at the Palmer Tennis Academy from 1998-2001. In 1990, he coached Jessica Memmons while she was on the WTA. He also coached Martin Blackman, who earned a spot in the 1993 French Open main draw.

While working at the Bollettieri Tennis Academy, Henderson met Barr and the two teamed up to work as tennis pros at Tampa's Development Program at Hillsborough Community College, successfully overseeing the top 70 juniors in the city.

Henderson, a native of Ringgold, GA, graduated from Carson-Newman College in 1979.

Banquet Speaker • Kathy Freese

Kathy Freese is an Associate Professor of Kinesiology and Allied Health at Cedarville University. She joined the University faculty and coaching staff in 1991, when she came as head women's basketball coach. She came to the college ranks after 20 years as a highly successful basketball and volleyball coach at Perrysburg High School in Ohio. Her coaching abilities, and her instrumental role in developing girls athletic programs at Perrysburg and the Northern Lakes League were recognized with induction to the Perrysburg High School Coaches Athletic Hall of Fame in 1997.

At Cedarville, her basketball teams won conference and regional championships on two occasions. Her basketball teams competed in NCCAA National Basketball Tournaments three times. Kathy served three years as NCCAA Women's Basketball Chair, so she is no stranger to the NCCAA and its emphasis on blending the best of collegiate athletics with honoring our Lord in all we do.

Following her retirement from coaching, the NCCAA women's basketball coaches, and the Board of Directors honored her by naming the national women's player of the year award the Kathy Freese National Player of the Year Award. Though retired from coaching, she continues to teach at the University, and to do color commentary for the video stream broadcasts of Cedarville women's basketball games.
