Cedarville Lions Club Sample Fair Set For Saturday

On Saturday, March 11, the Cedarville Lion's Club will hold their 3rd Annual Sample Fair at the Cedarville High School Gymnasium. Over forty booths will be set up by merchants to display and demonstrate their products and services for the residents of Cedarville.

Free samples will be given away at each of the booths, and over $5,000 in prizes are to be given away to visitors during the day. The Sample Fair will be open from 2:00 in the afternoon til 8 p.m. Saturday.

Each visitor will be given a bag to carry to each of the booths for collecting free samples. Some of the merchants have set special prices for Saturday only on items to be displayed at the Sample Fair.

During the day, raffles will be held to give away such items as television sets and other major appliances. Three $25 Savings Bonds will also be given away. The main drawing will be held at 8:00 p.m. The prize will be a General Electric Table Model Television set, donated by the Cedarville Hardware.

New Sewing Center in Village

After many weeks of planning, David and Carol Hall will soon open the Hall of Fabrics in Cedarville. Their smartly decorated "Hall of Fabrics" is located at North Main St. on the northern part of the town. Most of the preparation should be completed by Thursday.

Sewing enthusiasts will be glad to know that their store has one of the most complete selections of fabrics, patterns and sewing aids available. To the writer from the Cedarville Press, Friday evening, their store appeared to have a most amazing array of fabrics of many different types and textures. The patterns, for most sizes, are by Simplicity and the more expensive Vogue patterns are available to order.

Some of the fabrics available, in a pleasing variety of prints and textures, include bonded acrylics, denims, double knits, light weight cottons for spring, textured cotton knits, voiles, gingham checks and sport knits.

The stock also includes poly spun threads for knits and stretch fabrics and mercerized threads for cotton and similar fabrics. Many other accessories for sewing are also available.

Certain to draw thousands of area residents, the Sample Fair is conducted each year by the Cedarville Lion's Club to raise money for the service clubs projects for the blind and underprivileged. Each year the Lion's Club provides glasses for needy children and conducts other worth while projects for the community.

Booths for the Sample Fair were "sold out" several months ago indicating the enthusiastic response of merchants from the area to the Lion's Club project.

OSU College Girls Win Tournament

The Second Annual Ohio State Women's Intercollegiate Basketball Tournament was held at Cedarville College on March 2, 3, and 4, 1972. Sanctioned by the Midwest Assn. of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women, the tournament featured the best Ohio women's basketball has to offer as twenty-two teams vied for championship honors. Defending state champion, the College of Mt. St. Joseph, was rated a favorite along with Ohio State, Kent State, Bowling Green, and last year's host team, the University of Dayton.

In the past few years women's basketball has taken a dramatic turn. As a result of rules changes what used to be a 3-dribble stand-around type of 6-girl game, has been transformed into a fast-moving 5-man (or is it 5-girl) game.

Competition began at 9 a.m. on Thursday, March 2, and

Congress

Our democratic form of government is elected by those 18 and over, for the most part, by the heads of households and their spouses. They have families and any legislation pending in the Congress of the United States that would effect these families is of importance to them.

Such legislation always involves the question of the importance of democracy. Naturally laws exist by consent of the people and for the well being of everyone.

But, whether or not laws should be enacted in the name of democracy that can very easily impinge on the well being of any family is doubtful, perhaps even a bit foolish.

Most low-income, moderate or high income families have no desire for any legislation that would disturb their children in any manner. In fact the trend toward school consolidation (in big cities) is removing education further and further from the family - from year to year.

Legislation brought to the floor of the Congress must consider the needs of the minorities. In addition, such legislation must consider the feasibility of enforcement and that includes the matter of practical considerations with respect to the Supreme Court. There are many school districts in the country.

Improving the educational opportunities for those denied for one reason or another, is a respectable and necessary goal for educators and legislators to work for. Yet, responsibility to the stability of the family must also be considered.

Each person does well to remember that the arenas of congress are provided so that legislation that is acceptable to many factions may be enacted or otherwise amended.

Good facilities, qualified instructors, child guidance and tutors must be the answer to a good education. When all the factors are considered some of the legislation pending before the Congress at this time could result in a tremendous misdirection of funds, wasted effort, alienation, and a waste of money. While the Supreme Court made a very democratic decision, the legislators must correct what is not only an unpopular decision but also impracticable.

P.T.A. Meets

Cedar Cliff PTA will meet Monday evening March 13 for its monthly meeting. Final plans will be made for the annual steak supper to be held March 21. According to the program chairman, Mrs. Elwood Shaw, the program for the evening is strictly "X-Rated."

LIONS CLUB MEETS

Cedarville Lions Club met Tuesday at 7:15 at the Village Restaurant. Final plans were made for the Sample Fair March 11 at Cedar Cliff School.

COUNCIL ADOPTS FINANCE COMMITTEE RECOMMENDATIONS

Cedarville Village Council Meeting was held February 28 to consider recommendations made at the Finance council meeting held Feb. 26.

Council voted to adopt the recommendations for increased hospital benefits and higher premium payments. Also, the council voted to carry $32,000 insurance on the sewer plant controls and $4,000 on the contents of the control house. $10,000 was the amount decided on for the Village part of the Town House.

Phil Aultman was retained as solicitor for the Village. The council approved a recommendation that Cedarville College be advised to pay $14,000 for the additional sewer lines around the tennis courts on college property.

The hiring of an Incinerator and Landfill Operational Director was approved. Incinerator rate increases were approved, boosting the $2.25 rate to $3.00 per month.

Commercial rates were increased 25 percent and outside contract rates were increased 25 percent. No increases were made for trash pick up except for major appliances and tree stumps.

For use of the Refuse Disposal Facility (landfill) minimum per load rates were increased from $.50 to $.75. Rates for trash were raised from $1.00 to $1.25.

Council voted that the radar unit be retained. Also, council voted to pay expenses incurred for a program offered by Xavier University for the chiefs of Police. The Village Chief of Police plans to attend.

Changes were adopted in Building Inspector fees as follows:

Eliminate the first category
Minimum - $10.00; $5,000.00 to $14,499.99 - $15.00; $15,000.00 to $19,999.99 - $20.00; $20,000.00 to $29,999.99 - $25.00; $30,000.00 to $39,999.99 - $30.00; $40,000.00 over - $40.00.

Yellow Jackets Statistics Favorable

The Cedarville College Yellow Jackets finished the season with some excellent individuals statistics in spite of their won 6 lose 19 game record. Regular Harrison led the team in the field goal category hitting for 77 field goals of 131 attempt for an average of 58.8 percent. Larry Eck was second in that category scoring on 60 shots from the floor of 120 efforts, winding up with a 50 percent total for the season.

In the free throw category, Watson provided the teams best effort scoring 87 points from 106 attempts for an amazing 82.1 percent. He was followed by Larry Eck who scored 30 times in only 41 attempts for an average of 73.2 percent. Regular Young was third with 48 of 68 tries and an average of 70.6 percent.

In overall individual scoring honors went to Larry Eck whose game average was 18.8 points. Team regular Watson was second playing in 24 of the teams 26 contests and finishing with an 11.4 points per game average.

In the rebound department Eck and Young each wound up with an average of six rebounds per game. Terry Clapp was runnerup with an average of 5.2 per game. In the assists and ball recovery category team captain Dave Branon led in both departments with 109 assists and 56 recoveries.

Team totals for field goals and free throws were impressive. The Yellow Jackets average for each game was 44.6 percent while their opponents teams averaged a slightly better 45.7 percent. Free throw percentages were similarly respectable as the teams average was 62.5 percent. Their opponents scored 67.4 per cent.

The narrow difference between the Yellow Jackets and their opponents in the field goal and free throw category are actually good and hopeful signs for the 72-73 campaign. The statistics that tell the story are found in the rebound department where the team picked off 38.1 rebounds while their opponents were grabbing 48.5 per game.

Now that the new talent has had a year to gain experience in the court play there is a good possibility that the Yellow Jackets, under the direction of Dr. Callan, can build that winning combination.

Counties Get Funds

State Auditor Joseph G. Ferguson reported today that his office has made the second Local Government Fund distribution to the 88 counties, totaling 3,666,666.41, as the February payment.

Ferguson said this distribution was provided for totally from revenues from Ohio's new income tax. The January distribution to the Local Government Fund, made

Feb. 10 and Feb. 18, was with money borrowed from the state General Revenue Fund, since the income tax had not up to that time generated enough revenue.

The auditor predicted that "from now on the income tax will produce sufficient revenue" for his office to make the Local Government Fund distribution on or before the 10th of each month, as stated in

Experience

Much dialogue heard today speaks as if there were a limitation on choices. Many speakers use the term "mass society" as if there were only that. MuLuhan yields to an illusory "pattern of development."

Today there are choices and possibilities. Patterns and trends need only to be observed to be accepted or rejected. The urban-metropolitan experience may be partly determined by the limited alternatives available due to a large society's need for the procedures necessary for dealing with large numbers.

But as long as there is education and people are able to speak freely we shall have the components for freedom of choice and those freedoms that we choose to have.

The importance of education, along with freedom of speech, should permit the development of people who can responsibly effect those controls and evaluations so needed in a period of increasing technology.

Experience also will be needed by those in the educational setting, for they must be prepared to educate and inform in a manner that is reasonable with respect to those problems encountered by others.

Competition for markets and the resulting price reductions resulting from technological advancements in the production of goods appears to find little opposition. These rewards can be enjoyed by all. Perhaps technology should advance in selected areas such as industry and not in other areas such as class room instruction, for example. Thus, the important link between competition and technology and the more important distinction of the appropriate application or technological advancements in selected fields.

THE WISE WOMAN WHO WANTS TO MAKE HER HUSBAND LOVE HER MORE REALIZES THAT IT'S SMARTER SOMETIMES TO LOSE AN ARGUMENT ALTHOUGH THE FACTS MAY SEEM TO BE ON HER SIDE. THE BEST WAY TO GET YOUR WAY IS TO LET HIM HAVE HIS WAY... SOMETIMES!

Under the state income tax law, a total of $48 million of income tax money will be distributed annually to the 88 counties and to those municipalities having local income taxes. A total of $4 million will go directly to the county Local Government Funds. A total of $4 million annually will be distributed directly to the municipalities having local income taxes.

Up to this time, there has been no distribution to the municipalities since the auditor's office has not yet received all the required information from them. To make the distribution, Ferguson said, it is necessary to know the gross and net revenues received by those municipalities having income taxes.

The $4 million a month distributions to local government of income tax money represent a $1 million a month increase over the previous allocation of $3 million a month of state sales tax money, the auditor said.

Classroom Copycat

Scene: a college classroom. The professor is delivering a lecture on philosophy. Most of his listeners are paying only intermittent attention to his pearls of wisdom.

But one alert young man is zealously taking down every word. For he has a great idea. He will gather the lectures together, publish them in book form, and then sell them to students who are less energetic than he is.

Could the professor block the young man's project if he so desired? This question arose not long ago when a professor actually did go to court against a classroom copycat. He claimed that publication of the lectures would violate his "common law copyright."

The defendant retorted that the professor had lost the copyright by uttering his words in public, thereby making them "free for all."

But the court sided with the professor and granted him an injunction. The court pointed out that he had spoken not to the general public, for general use, but to a limited group for limited use.

Other courts have agreed that a professor does not lose his common law copyright merely by delivering lectures to his students. By the same token, a minister probably retains rights in his sermons after delivering them to his congregation.

However, a copyright generally protects only the mode of expression, not the information itself. For example:

A professor of medicine complained in court that a new book contained certain details about surgery that he had described in his lectures.

But it turned out that the book did not use the professor's language at all—and used his data only in combination with material taken from other sources.

The court decided that the JOB SHIFTS FOR SOME EXPECTED AT W.P.A.F., B.

WRIGHT-PATTERSON AIR FORCE BASE—A Defense Department call for a five per cent cut in forces, which was announced in January, will hit here before June 30—and reports circulating indicate the biggest rollback will hit on-base research units.

John E. Wimsey, president of Local 148 of National Federation of Federal Employees, said he has known since December that at least 100 jobs will be lost.

"One guess is as good as another," he said about just how many positions would be eliminated, "but we do know this—ASD (Aeronautical Systems Division) is a prime target."

A reduction in force has been anticipated by base officials and personnel for some time. The changes must be made before the end of the fiscal year on June 30.

The Air Force says it doesn't know yet how many jobs it may have to eliminate.

This base, which employs about 18,000 civilians, could expect to lose about 900 of them if a five per cent cut is made.

Reports circulating say cuts will be especially heavy at Wright Field, where the research operations ASD are the chief function.

Air force spokesmen, including Col. Warren H. Hare, commander of the Aerospace Research Laboratories, (ARL) say they are waiting for word from headquarters on where cuts will have to be made.

If cuts do come at the laboratories, they would mean a loss of technical jobs held by scientists and engineers near the top of the federal pay scale. Salaries range from $15,000 to $33,000 in the jobs reported to be in jeopardy.

One report has been that ARL will take a 30 per cent cut in manpower, although the Air Force says it cannot confirm that.

Under Civil Service regulations, persons affected by the cut must be offered other jobs in the federal system, at present levels or reduced levels. An employe is laid off only if no job can be found within the Civil Service system, base officials
