INSPIRING GREATNESS

for

125

YEARS

1887–2012

The 116th Annual
COMMENCEMENT
of
Cedarville University
CLASS of 2012

SATURDAY, THE FIFTH DAY OF MAY
TWO THOUSAND AND TWELVE
AT TEN O'CLOCK IN THE MORNING

DODEN FIELD HOUSE
CEDARVILLE UNIVERSITY
CEDARVILLE, OHIO

“Whoever would be great among you must be your servant, and whoever would be first among you must be your slave, even as the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give His life as a ransom for many.”

Matthew 20:26b–28

WELCOME TO THE COMMENCEMENT OF THE CLASS OF 2012

Today is the celebration of the 116th commencement of Cedarville University. In 1887, five godly men were led to found Cedarville College. They envisioned an institution that would provide an outstanding education to equip graduates to serve God. Their purpose lives on at Cedarville University 125 years later.

Our theme for this academic year is "Sharpening the Christ-Centered Mind." But this is really the theme of 125 years of sacrifice and service for all of those who have worked and taught at Cedarville and of the more than 20,000 former students who are making a difference for Christ around the world.

Lynne and I, along with our University family, congratulate the class of 2012. You stand tall on the shoulders of those who have gone before you. The University family has been honored to walk these years of your journey with you. Our desire is that you always will be aware of God's guidance and provision as you walk into the future He has prepared.

To all of the family and friends who are here to celebrate the commencement of the class of 2012, we welcome you to our ceremony. I trust that this will not only be a time of celebration and joy for you, but also a time of reflection about your own relationship with God and His love for you. The Scriptures say: "But God demonstrates His own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us" (Rom. 5:8). The beautiful reality of God's love for us and His desire for us to be His children is clearly communicated in the sacrifice of Jesus Christ for our sins. We hope this is a reality in your life.

While today marks an end, it is also a beginning. We are blessed to have you here today and trust you will leave changed.

FEATURED SPEAKER AND MEDAL OF HONOR RECIPIENT REV. FRANKLIN GRAHAM PRESIDENT AND CEO, SAMARITAN'S PURSE AND BILLY GRAHAM EVANGELISTIC ASSOCIATION

Growing up Graham

William Franklin Graham III, born July 14, 1952, is the fourth of five children of evangelist Billy Graham and his wife, the late Ruth Bell Graham. Raised in a log home in the Appalachian Mountains outside Asheville, North Carolina, Franklin now lives in the mountains of Boone, North Carolina.

At age 22, after a period of rebellion and traveling the world, Franklin committed his life to Jesus Christ while alone in a hotel room in Jerusalem. Soon after, Dr. Bob Pierce, founder of Samaritan's Purse, invited Franklin to join him on a six-week mission to Asia. It was during that time that Franklin felt a calling to work with hurting people in areas of the world affected by war, famine, disease, poverty, and natural disaster.

Franklin Graham the International Relief Worker

Franklin was elected to the board of Samaritan's Purse in 1978, and one year later, following the death of Dr. Pierce, he was elected president of the organization. Today, he serves as president and CEO of the international Christian relief and evangelism organization headquartered in Boone, North Carolina. Samaritan's Purse has a 2012 budget of $371 million in revenue and provides relief and assistance in more than 100 countries worldwide. It has affiliate offices in Canada, the United Kingdom, and Australia, plus partners and field offices around the world.

Franklin Graham the Evangelist

Franklin conducted his first evangelistic event in 1989 and now conducts Franklin Graham Festivals around the world for the Billy Graham Evangelistic Association (BGEA). He has preached to more than 7.5 million people in cities from Johannesburg, South Africa to Tupelo, Mississippi. Franklin's 2012 schedule includes festivals in Asia, Africa, Europe, and North America.

The BGEA appointed Franklin Graham as CEO in 2000 and as president of the organization in 2001.

Franklin has authored several books, including The Name (Thomas Nelson, 2002), All for Jesus (co-authored with Ross Rhoads, Thomas Nelson, 2003), Living Beyond the Limits: A Life in Sync With God (Thomas Nelson, 1998), and his autobiography, Rebel With a Cause: Finally Comfortable Being Graham (Thomas Nelson, 1995).

Franklin and his wife, Jane, have four children, Will, Roy, Edward, and Cissie, and eight grandchildren.

CLASS SONG

Be Thou My Vision

Be Thou my Vision, O Lord of
my heart;
Naught be all else to me, save
that Thou art.
Thou my best Thought, by day
or by night,
Waking or sleeping, Thy presence my light.

Be Thou my Wisdom, and
Thou my true Word;
I ever with Thee and Thou
with me, Lord;
Thou my great Father, I Thy
true son;
Thou in me dwelling, and I
with Thee one.

Riches I heed not, nor man's
empty praise,
Thou mine Inheritance, now
and always:
Thou and Thou only, put first
in my heart,
High King of Heaven, my
Treasure Thou art.

Oh, God, be my everything,
be my delight
Be, Jesus, my glory My soul's
satisfied
Oh, God, be my everything,
be my delight
Be, Jesus, my glory My soul's
satisfied

My Jesus, you satisfy
My Jesus, you satisfy

High King of Heaven, my
victory won,
May I reach Heaven's joys,
bright Heaven's Sun!
Heart of my own heart,
whatever befall,
Still be my Vision, O Ruler
of all.

Oh, God, be my everything,
be my delight
Be, Jesus, my glory My soul's
satisfied

THE ACADEMIC REGALIA

The colorful academic regalia dates from the first European universities in the Middle Ages. Academic costume has been in use in the United States since colonial times and is traditionally used for graduation convocations. The mortarboard is the standard cap. The tassel color, as established by an intercollegiate commission, indicates the subject field.

The length of the hood and the width of the velvet indicate the level of the degree. The doctor's hood is quite long, has two tails, and has five-inch-wide velvet. The master's hood is shorter than the doctor's and has three-inch-wide velvet. The bachelor's hood is shorter yet and has two-inch-wide velvet. The color of the velvet indicates the field of study. Blue indicates a doctoral degree. Dark brown indicates a Master of Arts degree. White indicates a Bachelor of Arts or a Master of Arts degree. Scarlet indicates a Bachelor of Divinity degree or a Master of Divinity degree. Yellow indicates a Bachelor of Science degree. The colors in the lining of the hood are the university colors.

The gown's traditional color is black. The distinguishing feature of the master's gown is the tippet sleeve. The doctor's gown has two distinguishing features. It is cut much fuller than the bachelor's or the master's gown and has velvet panels on the sleeves, around the neck, and down the front. These panels may be black or the color that symbolizes the subject field in which the degree was earned.

Some regalia represent academic awards that have been conferred from universities outside the United States, notably from Europe. Universities in Europe have not undergone the standardization in academic dress that was introduced in the United States. Each European university retains the right to design unique and distinctive regalia for its graduates. This results in a wide variety of hood and gown colors. The crest of the university may be woven into the hood or panels in the gown. Gowns are worn open, and formal attire is worn underneath the gown; women wear black skirts and white blouses, while men wear a formal suit or national costume.

GRADUATION WITH HONORS

Students graduating with academic honors are wearing a gold cord. A student who earns a grade point average of 3.50 or better is graduated “with honor”; one who earns a grade point average of 3.75 or better is graduated “with high honor”; and one who earns a grade point average of 3.90 or better is graduated “with highest honor.” A student must be in residence at least two full years (60 semester hours) in order to qualify for honors.

THE UNIVERSITY SEAL

Adopted in 1894, the seal reflects the commitment of the first board of trustees to the cause of Christ. Prominently displayed on the seal are the words “PRO CORONA ET FOEDERE CHRISTI,” translated “For the Crown and the Covenant of Christ,” as well as a crown to signify His preeminence. The trustees desired to emphasize that Christ was the One for whom Cedarville College existed.

The board of the Baptist Bible Institute, after taking over the operation of Cedarville in 1953, retained the original seal of the college, acknowledging that the desire of Cedarville’s founders was theirs as well. They then surrounded the seal with the motto of the Baptist Bible Institute, “For the Word of God and the Testimony of Jesus Christ,” to visually remind those who observed the seal of the common commitment by both institutions to Jesus Christ.

The seal was updated in 2000 when Cedarville College became Cedarville University.
