CEDARVILLE COLLEGE
CEDARVILLE, OHIO

Dear Friend:—

Cedarville College calls you for the last time. Now is your opportunity to come to college. You should prepare carefully and fully for your life's work. Consider the excellent curricula of study—especially the Arts-Education curriculum at Cedarville. Cedarville College has a college and university trained Christian faculty. The students of Cedarville College are a splendid group of wide-awake young people. Cedarville College has clean athletics, good laboratories, a well-equipped library, and a beautiful campus. The graduates of Cedarville are filling prominent places in all the fields of human activity. Cedarville College is conveniently located in Cedarville, Greene county, Ohio on the Pennsylvania railroad. Cedarville is a charming, historic town, noted for its schools, churches and splendid moral and religious influences.

Consider, too, the low cost of securing your collegiate training in Cedarville:—

Tuition, $40 a semester.

Furnished room, $2 and up a week.

Boarding, approximately $5 a week.

Books, about $7 or $10 a semester.

A semester runs 18 weeks. There are two semesters in the collegiate year.

The first semester opens the first Wednesday of September and the second semester opens the first Tuesday of February.

Come prepared to pay all bills on registration and opening days. Registration days are the two secular days preceding the opening days. Come to Cedarville College and make yourself fit for a real service in your life-time.

Yours sincerely,

W. R. McCHESNEY,
President.
