Y. M. C. A.

"Egypt is the crossroads of the world. It will be interesting to notice what happens to Egypt in the next few years," declared Miss Bickett before the Y. M. C. A. Wednesday morning, October 15. Miss Bickett, who taught for three years in Egypt, told of the interesting features of that ancient land and also something of its future political status in relationship to imperialistic Italy.

Next week another one of these most interesting talks on foreign lands will be given by Rev. W. H. Sinks of Springfield on his six years experience in China.

Dramatic Club

The second meeting of the College Dramatic Club featured the reading of a one-act fantasy "Manikin and Minikin". The play was read by Jane Frame and Ray Sisson.

The president, Justin Hartman, presided over the business meeting which included the checking of interest lists.

On Monday evening, October 26, the Dramatic Club will present its first play of the season, "Spreading the News" by Lady Gregory. Jane Frame is the director and John Gillespie, stage manager.

Y. W. C. A.

The devotions of the Y. W. C. A. meeting Wednesday morning were led by Dorothy Anderson in which she outlined the qualities we, as young women, should want to develop. A reading, "Matilda", was given by Miss Basore. Beatrice McCellan sang "A Brown Bird Singing". Our president, Ruth Kimble, explained more about our creative leisure program and what materials to bring to work in the different groups. The work includes knitting, weaving, crocheting and tatting.

Rev. Alfred Ankenoy Speaks

"What the world needs today is Christian Character", declared Rev. Ankenoy at the joint Y. W. and Y. M. C. A. meeting held Wednesday morning, October 8th. He told of the westernization of Japan and his work there. He deplored the fact that the nations were arming against Japan when Japan has no thought of enmity toward western nations. He told many interesting facts concerning sports, business and other phases of Japanese life.

Editorial

Who Starts the Fads?

For years the women of the world have had the credit--or the blame of starting the fads. But our power of observation around here offers Cedarville College as an exception to the rule.

Last year a dark shirt appeared. Before a month was out the campus looked like a Nazi camp-meeting.

As a result of Long's arrival the whole college was walking around in suede shoes.

Russ Murray's working on the romantic nature of the girls caused a flood of blue neckties to appear.

A few weeks ago a flat straw hat appeared on a college sophomore. By the next day the male population looked like a page from a 1915 style book.

Last year it was ping-pong---Now it's horse shoe---What next???????

Announcing!

Spooks and hobgoblins will walk the night of October 28th. The Y. W. C. A. is guaranteeing a good time to all. Prizes will be given to the best dressed, most comical, best tramp, most original, and best couple.

Please come masked for a Big Halloween Party.

The members and friends of the literary society enjoyed a "hay ride" (on straw) Monday evening October 5th. The two trucks fully loaded were piloted by "Micky" Cummings and "Sissy" Waddle. Zonia, Yellow Springs, and Springfield were honored by their presence. A hamburger feed was enjoyed in Springfield.

From the amount of noise issuing from the trucks everyone must have had a good time. A few of the members wandered off in Springfield, probably attracted by the bright lights of the city, but all returned home safely. We hope none were led into the evil ways of the metropolis.

Sophomore Party

The Sophomores held a pot-luck supper and party in the College Gymnasium last Thursday evening, October 8th.

After supper the group enjoyed folk games and songs. This was the first party this class has held this year.

Faculty Party

The faculty of Cedarville College held a steak roast Wednesday Evening at Bryan State Park.

The "Whispering Cedars Staff" will present a candy bar to the writer of the best "I Feel Futile".

Here's a sample:

I feel futile:-

Like a flower without a pot

Like an "i" without a dot

Like Eleanor without her Lott

I feel futile.

Senior Class

The seniors started their year with a melon feed at the home of Mary Helen Creswell. Most of the evening was spent in do-you-remember-ies and telling tales about each other -- of happenings in the pigtail days.

Last week the class had their annual hamburger fry at the gun club. The general conclusion might be that this is rather an hilarious class. If anyone should be horrified at finding red stains on the wall, please inform them that it is merely the result of "William Tell" as played by Harry Wallace and Gale Ross. The opinion of the class is that Miss Basore is a pretty good sport.

Students Attend Y. M. C. A. Meeting

A group of Cedarville College students attended a Y. M. C. A. meeting Sunday morning and afternoon at the Bookwalter Farm North of Springfield.

These students, Mary Johnston, Ruth Kimble, James Anderson, Justin Hartman, accompanied by Miss Basore, were the guests of Mr. Dorst at the picnic dinner.

These students found the Bookwalter Farm most interesting. Mr. and Mrs. Bookwalter take a lively interest in many civic and religious affairs.

Boners from Postcards

How many college subjects will one be admitted to take during the first secession of summer school.

I am truly sorrow that I will be unable to be with you another year.

Special!

Cecil: "I met Lenky last night. He told me he was on his way to propose to the prettiest girl in town."

Geneva: "The fibber! He didn't come near me."

Down by the riverside they met-- did Romeo and Juliet.

Her hand in his he placed, and said,

"Fair Juliet, I would thee wed."

"Indeed?" she queried, "Come let us go.

Get in the boat and Row-me-o"

And as the hourse quickly sped,
A lunch before his love he spread.

Says he, "Come let us eat, my pet,

And Rome roved while Juliet.

We are sorry to hear that Frances Kimble is forced to withdraw because of illness. However we are glad to hear that her condition is improving and hope to hear soon of her recovery.

Monks' Club

The Monks' Club has taken initial steps toward organizing for a year of service in student preaching. We wish them the best of success!

Pride has but two seasons--
a forward spring and an early fall.

Harry Wallace is becoming quite an amateur detective. If you don't believe it, ask Mildred Beard.

One of the seniors, in history class last week, put some of the junior candy on the floor for fly bait. Do you think they would touch it? The junior candy just ain't what it used to be.

Where did the rumor come from that the freshmen were going to offer a few obstacles to the senior and sophomore feeds last Thursday night?

Policeman (to Swain sitting on top of an oak tree): "Hey! What are you doing up there?"
Swain: "I don't know; I must have sat on an acorn."

John Richards has become an efficient note carrier for "Micky" Cummings and "Ray" Sisson.

More names to be added to the list of nick names:
"Aunt Mary" Townsley
"Crow Bait" Wallace
"Pilgrim" Lett
"Chef" Walker
"Ditch Digger" Angell
"Speed Demon" Thompson

As unique as:
Fischer's throat-clearing process.
Stebbins curls
Tanksley's blush
Lanky's lankiness
Walton's "technique"
Kelso's braids
Rhodes' appetite
Tobins driving

-Definitions-

A doorknob - What a revolving door goes around without.
Mustard - What a wicner sandwich is not good without unless you don't like mustard perhaps.

Whereas, we believe it extremely dangerous as well as inconvenient and unromantic to dodge cars and the glow of headlights on the public highway, we earnestly petition the village of Cedarville to construct sidewalks from the northern corporation limit to the Burns' House.

Time Marches On
Differences We've Noticed

1. Pierce and Fones unescorted.
2. Dorothy Anderson with three boy friends.
3. Mary Johnston using the famous dimples on some one else besides Gene Corry.
4. John R. going around looking lonesome.
5. Cecil T. WITHOUT "Old Faithful".
6. Parlor night at the Burns' House.
7. Three girls chasing "Mick" Cummings instead of one.
8. Jackson not so bashful.
9. The Oglesbee boys traveling three blocks to tell a couple of girls "good-night".
10. Gibson watching the mails.
11. No more Post-Gillespie fights.
12. The Dean with no car to ride to Selma.
13. Sharpe with a girl friend.

I tuned in on the radio
And heard loud shouts
and screeches.
I thought it must be static
But it was campaign speeches.

Brainbridge and Ford are seen sitting in front of the High School building. Is it true that the bus drivers are losing their technique.
