MATCH DAY

Fri./Sat. April 29/30, 2016 • 2:00 p.m./10:00 a.m.
Cedarville University • Johnson-Murdoch Tennis Complex

Welcome from Cedarville University Athletic Director

April 29, 2016

Welcome to Cedarville! We are privileged to host the 2016 Great Midwest Athletic Conference Women's Tennis Championship.

Thanks to each of you for all of the time and effort you have put into this season. We are excited about the competition that will be seen over the next couple of days.

May God continue to bless each of your institutions and be glorified by the spirit that will be displayed. We hope your time here produces some wonderful memories and provides a fitting end to your 2015-16 academic year and tennis season.

Have a great championship weekend!

Dr. Alan Geist
Athletic Director
Cedarville University

Johnson-Murdoch Tennis Complex

The Pamela Diehl Johnson-J. Murray Murdoch Tennis Complex serves as the home of the Yellow Jackets. The site is named after Cedarville's former head coaches, who are both members of the NAIA Hall of Fame.

The complex features nine lighted courts located on the north edge of the campus. The facility was opened in 1996 and includes a Latex-ite colorcoating and cushion surface.

The venue has served as host of numerous tournaments. The list includes the Wilson/ITA NAIA Midwest Regional Championship, Mid-Ohio Conference Women's Championship, NAIA Great Lakes Men's Sectional, NCCAA Men's Invitational, NAIA Region IX Men's and Women's Championships, and the NCCAA National Tournament.

Cedarville utilizes indoor facilities at Dayton Center Courts as well as the Five Seasons Sports Club in Kettering, Ohio. The Jackets also use courts in the Doden Field House on a limited basis.

Johnson, who is currently the Dean of the College of Health Professions, coached the women's tennis team from 1977 through 2006. Her squad posted 280 victories and made 12 NAIA National Tournament appearances. The Lady Jackets won four NAIA Region IX titles, eight conference championships, and had 29 NAIA Scholar-Athletes. Johnson has served on the NAIA National Tournament Committee since 1985 and has been the national tournament director since 1989.

Murdoch piled up 563 victories during a 29-year coaching career from 1966 through 1994. The Yellow Jackets were a dominant force with five undefeated seasons, 23 NAIA District 22 titles, and 23 Mid-Ohio Conference championships. His teams won 88 straight dual matches from 1972 through 1976 and had a best-ever 8th-place showing at the NAIA Nationals in 1989. Murdoch, who is a Senior Professor of History at Cedarville University, also served as the NAIA National Tournament Director.

A plate affixed to the sign that has been erected at the south end of the tennis complex reads, "In grateful recognition of the Christian testimony and faithful service of Dr. Pamela Diehl Johnson and Dr. J. Murray Murdoch as Hall of Fame tennis coaches and leaders in the success of the NAIA and NCCAA Championships. Dedicated September 22, 2007."

SEMIFINALS - 2:00 PM

#2 CEDARVILLE
(11-8, 6-1 G-MAC)

GREENWOOD, Ind. - Four teams will compete for the Great Midwest Athletic Conference Women's Tennis Championship trophy at Cedarville's Johnson-Murdoch Complex starting on Friday.

Friday's schedule features two semifinals before the championship match takes place on Saturday at 10 a.m. EST.

A customary ice cream social on Thursday evening will precede the tennis action, which could potentially be moved to the Dayton Center Courts indoors in the event of inclement weather.

Davis & Elkins wrapped up the top seed following a close win at Cedarville on Saturday and completed an undefeated regular-season run in league play at 7-0.

The Senators (12-10, 7-0 G-MAC) will face No. 4 seed Salem International (5-18, 2-5 G-MAC) in the first semifinal on Friday at 10 a.m. The Tigers are competing in their first year as a program and made into the postseason over Ursuline.

D&E's Halima Michael leads all players in the G-MAC with 15 wins in singles action. No. 1 Senators singles player Elise Simon is 11-10 this year.

The other semifinal later in the day at 2 p.m. pits No. 2 Cedarville (11-8, 6-1 G-MAC) vs. No. 3 Alderson Broaddus (5-14, 4-3 G-MAC). Lauren Jackson of the Yellow Jackets is 12-6 in singles play and anchors a balanced Cedarville lineup.

AB's Stephanie Gertsakis has eight wins at No. 3 singles to lead the Battlers and has contributed seven more victories in doubles.

The semifinal winners from Friday will clash on Saturday at 10 a.m. EST for the championship title.

Live results are projected to be available for all three matches courtesy of Cedarville sports information. Links will be posted closer to the start of Friday's semifinals.

The tournament history is brief but back-and-forth as Cedarville won the inaugural event in 2013 followed by a Davis & Elkins title in 2014. The trophy went back to Cedarville at the conclusion of the 2015 G-MAC Championship.

Editor's Note: This preview was written before it was determined that Salem International would not be competing.

The Great Midwest Athletic Conference (G-MAC) was approved by the NCAA Division II Membership Committee in February of 2012 as a member conference and earned active status in July of 2013, after completing an educational assessment program in 2012-13. The conference began competition as the 24th active NCAA Division II conference in 2013-14.

The G-MAC features both active and reclassifying members from Ohio, Kentucky, Tennessee, and West Virginia. Charter members of the G-MAC included Cedarville University, Kentucky Wesleyan College, Trevecca Nazarene University, and Ursuline College.

The G-MAC expanded with the inclusion of Alderson Broaddus University, Davis & Elkins College, Ohio Valley University, and Salem International University as active DII members. Recently, Malone University has announced it will be joining the G-MAC in 2016-17 as a full member, and then the University of Findlay, Hillsdale College, Lake Erie College, Ohio Dominican University, and Walsh University will join in 2017-18.

The G-MAC, headquartered in the Indianapolis metro area, will sponsor 18 championships in 2015-16 as an active NCAA Division II conference.
