JACKETS READY FOR NAIA

Cedarville College track coaches Elvin King and John McGillivray have announced their entries for this weekend's NAIA national track and field meet. It will be run on Thursday through Saturday at Hillsdale College in Hillsdale, Michigan.

Six men have been tabbed by King to take part in the meet. Heading the list is sophomore Rob Moore in the 1500 meters who's school record time of 3:50.36 this spring is the sixth fastest time turned into the NAIA. Junior Phil Hulbert will compete in the discus and his best heave this year of 158'8" ranks him ninth.

Other Yellow Jacket men participating will be Dee Smith in the 100 meter dash, Tim Walters in the 110 meter high hurdles, Scott Hannay in the javelin, and Rusty King in the marathon.

McGillivray has named four women runners to the field including Jane Romig and Esther Mahr in the 800 meter dash. Romig's top time of 2:14.0 currently ranks fifth in the NAIA and Mahr's best effort this season is 2:17.03. That duo will be joined by Cathy Watson and Kris Parman to run the 1600 meter relay. The group's fastest outing this year of 4:01.44 ranks ninth.
