The 118th Annual COMMENCEMENT
of
Cedarville University
CLASS of 2014

SATURDAY, THE THIRD DAY OF MAY
TWO THOUSAND AND FOURTEEN
AT TEN O'CLOCK IN THE MORNING

DODEN FIELD HOUSE
CEDARVILLE UNIVERSITY
CEDARVILLE, OHIO

"But just as we have been approved by God to be entrusted with the Gospel, so we speak, not to please man, but to please God who tests our hearts."

1 Thessalonians 2:4 ESV

WELCOME TO THE COMMENCEMENT OF THE CLASS OF 2014

Today is the celebration of the 118th commencement of Cedarville University. In 1887, God led five men to found Cedarville College. They envisioned an institution that would provide an outstanding education with a biblical worldview. That purpose continues at Cedarville University 127 years later.

Today walking across the stage will be the largest graduating class in the history of Cedarville University. This group of seniors has endured some challenging times and some joyous occasions. Through them all, they have demonstrated a strong faith in God, a strong sense of calling, and a determination to finish what they started. To all the family and friends who are here to celebrate with them, we welcome you to this ceremony. These graduates reflect well upon the parents, the grandparents, the mentors, and the local churches that have invested into them.

Joy and I, along with members of the Cedarville family, congratulate the class of 2014. We know that you will transition into the workplace or graduate schools taking the bold message of the Gospel of Jesus Christ with you. Sometimes transition can be difficult and even scary. Let me encourage you with the words of the Lord found in Joshua 1:7-9. These verses have become special to me throughout the course of the past year:

“Only be strong and very courageous, being careful to do according to all the law that Moses my servant commanded you. Do not turn from it to the right hand or to the left, that you may have good success wherever you go. This Book of the Law shall not depart from your mouth, but you shall meditate on it day and night, so that you may be careful to do according to all that is written in it. For then you will make your way prosperous, and then you will have good success. Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous. Do not be frightened, and do not be dismayed, for the LORD your God is with you wherever you go.”

I pray God’s blessings upon you as you embark upon the mission to which God has called you.

Until He Comes,

President, Cedarville University

THOMAS WHITE BIOGRAPHY

Thomas White became President of Cedarville University on July 1, 2013. His desire is to lead Cedarville University in training students to love the Word of God and have a passion for fulfilling the Great Commission of Jesus Christ.

A systematic theologian by training with a focus on the doctrine of the Church, Dr. White has served in many roles in the local church, preached itinerantly, and owned and operated multiple karate schools in South Carolina. He earned Doctor of Philosophy and Master of Divinity degrees from Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary in Wake Forest, North Carolina, and Bachelor of Arts and Associate of Arts degrees from Anderson University in Anderson, South Carolina.

Prior to coming to Cedarville, Dr. White served as Vice President for Student Services and Communications, as well as Associate Professor of Systematic Theology, at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth, Texas.

Dr. White is married to Joy (Martin) White, who earned a Master of Divinity degree in women's studies and a Master of Theology degree in systematic theology from Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary. She has authored a commentary on Acts and served as the Women's Studies Coordinator at Southeastern Seminary. The Whites have two young children, Rachel and Samuel, and enjoy their two dogs.

CLASS SONG

A Mighty Fortress Is Our God

A mighty fortress is our God
A bulwark never failing
Our helper He amid the flood
Of mortal ills prevailing
For still our ancient foe
Doth seek to work us woe
His craft and pow'r are great
And armed with cruel hate
On earth is not his equal

If we in our own strength
confide
Our striving would be losing
Were not the right Man on our side
The Man of God's own choosing
You ask who that may be Christ Jesus it is He
The Lord of Hosts His name
From age to age the same
And He must win the battle

And tho' this world with devils filled
Should threaten to undo us
We will not fear for God hath willed
His truth to triumph thru us
And tho' this world with
devils filled
Should threaten to undo us
We will not fear for God hath
willed
His truth to triumph thru us

A Mighty Fortress is our God
His kingdom is forever
(x4)

His kingdom is forever
(x4)

If we in our own strength
confide
Our striving would be losing

THE ACADEMIC REGALIA

The colorful academic regalia dates from the first European universities in the Middle Ages. Academic costume has been in use in the United States since colonial times and is traditionally used for graduation convocations. The mortarboard is the standard cap. The tassel color, as established by an intercollegiate commission, indicates the subject field.

arts, history, letters, languages	white
business, commerce.....	drab
communication.....	silver gray
criminal justice.....	navy blue
education	light blue
engineering	orange
fine arts	dark brown
journalism.....	maroon
music	pink
nursing.....	apricot
pharmacy	olive green
philosophy	royal blue
physical education, allied health	sage green
religion.....	scarlet
science, mathematics, psychology	golden yellow
social work, political science, public administration.....	citron
doctor of arts.....	gold
doctor of education	gold
doctor of philosophy	gold
doctor of theology.....	gold

The length of the hood and the width of the velvet indicate the level of the degree. The doctor's hood is quite long, has two tails, and has five-inch-wide velvet. The master's hood is shorter than the doctor's and has three-inch-wide velvet. The bachelor's hood is shorter yet and has two-inch-wide velvet. The color of the velvet indicates the field of study. Blue indicates a doctoral degree. Dark brown indicates a Master of Arts degree. White indicates a Bachelor of Arts or a Master of Arts degree. Scarlet indicates a Bachelor of Divinity degree or a Master of Divinity degree. Yellow indicates a Bachelor of Science degree. The colors in the lining of the hood are the university colors.

The gown's traditional color is black. The distinguishing feature of the master's gown is the tippet sleeve. The doctor's gown has two distinguishing features. It is cut much fuller than the bachelor's or the master's gown and has velvet panels on the sleeves, around the neck, and down the front. These panels may be black or the color that symbolizes the subject field in which the degree was earned.

Some regalia represent academic awards that have been conferred from universities outside the United States, notably from Europe. Universities in Europe have not undergone the standardization in academic dress that was introduced in the United States. Each European university retains the right to design unique and distinctive regalia for its graduates. This results in a wide variety of hood and gown colors. The crest of the university may be woven into the hood or panels in the gown. Gowns are worn open, and formal attire is worn underneath the gown; women wear black skirts and white blouses, while men wear a formal suit or national costume.

GRADUATION WITH HONORS

Students graduating with academic honors are wearing a gold cord. A student who earns a grade point average of 3.50 or better is graduated "with honor"; one who earns a grade point average of 3.75 or better is graduated "with high honor"; and one who earns a grade point average of 3.90 or better is graduated "with highest honor." A student must be in residence at least two full years (60 semester hours) in order to qualify for honors.

THE UNIVERSITY SEAL

Adopted in 1894, the seal reflects the commitment of the first Board of Trustees to the cause of Christ. Prominently displayed on the seal are the words “PRO CORONA ET FOEDERE CHRISTI,” translated “For the Crown and the Covenant of Christ,” as well as a crown to signify His preeminence. The trustees desired to emphasize that Christ was the One for whom Cedarville College existed.

The board of the Baptist Bible Institute, after taking over the operation of Cedarville in 1953, retained the original seal of the college, acknowledging that the desire of Cedarville’s founders was theirs as well. They then surrounded the seal with the motto of the Baptist Bible Institute, “For the Word of God and the Testimony of Jesus Christ,” to visually remind those who observed the seal of the common commitment by both institutions to Jesus Christ.

The seal was updated in 2000 when Cedarville College became Cedarville University.

The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that every entry, no matter how small, should be recorded to ensure the integrity of the financial data. This includes not only sales and purchases but also expenses and income. The document provides a detailed list of items that should be tracked, such as inventory levels, accounts payable, and accounts receivable. It also outlines the procedures for recording these transactions, including the use of double-entry bookkeeping to ensure that the books balance.

The second part of the document focuses on the analysis of the recorded data. It explains how to calculate key financial ratios and metrics, such as the gross profit margin, operating profit, and return on investment. These calculations are essential for understanding the company's financial performance and identifying areas for improvement. The document also discusses the importance of comparing the company's performance against industry benchmarks and historical data to provide context for the results.

Finally, the document addresses the role of management in interpreting the financial data and making strategic decisions. It highlights the need for transparency and communication, ensuring that all stakeholders are informed of the company's financial status. The document concludes by emphasizing the ongoing nature of financial management and the importance of regular reviews and updates to the records.
