TOM GREVE WINS GOLF INVITATIONAL

Greensburg native Tom Greve proved that he could make the quick transition from basketball to golf at Cedarville College in Ohio. On Saturday, April 7, Greve captured medalist honors in the Third Annual Cedarville Invitational by firing a two-over par 73. That wasn't too bad when you consider that he was playing for the Yellow Jackets' "B" team in the tournament.

Cedarville entered two five-man squads in the event and coach Allen Monroe placed Greve as the number one man on the second team. "I really had no other choice," explained Monroe. "Tom missed our Florida trip because of the basketball season and he didn't have near as much practice time in as the other players." Cedarville's "A" team placed second, seven shots behind the champion, and would have won with Greve in the line-up.

"I know that it makes me look bad, but I had no idea that Tom would have the kind of day he had," said Monroe. "He had just a super round. I may move him clear up to the number one spot on the varsity." A junior at the school, Greve has seen a lot of varsity action for the first team in his previous two years for the linksmen.

Tom Ewing, another Greensburg product and also a junior, is one of Monroe's top returning players this spring, however he had an 83 in the invitational. "Tom had an off day," Monroe commented. "He has been playing quite well in the windy weather and I'm confident that he'll quickly come back to form." He did with a 76 in a match three days later. Ewing was an All-NAIA District 22 and All-NCCAA District III performer for the Yellow Jackets in '83.

Both Greve and Ewing are 1981 graduates of Greensburg Community High School. Greve is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Greve of 412 Minary Lane. Ewing is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ewing of Route 3.

Cedarville is a Baptist, liberal arts college of approximately 1800 students located 25 miles east of Dayton, Ohio.
