CEDARVILLE COLLEGE

1981-82

Why is

Cedarville College

Leading the Way

in Christian Education?

CEDARVILLE
COLLEGE
& BAPTIST COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

---

Cedarville College is Leading because it does three things very well. . .

develops the SPIRITUAL,
inspires ACADEMIC excellence,
and provides SOCIAL enrichment.

SPIRITUAL

“For the Word of God, and for the testimony of Jesus Christ”--our motto, and more than that, our way of life. At Cedarville we recognize the importance of the Word of God, knowing it and applying its principles to all that we do. Every student graduates with at least a minor in Bible, 24 quarter hours. We meet daily for chapel to hear the Word as it is preached by speakers from all walks of life. Area churches and our Campus Fellowship minister the Word to our college family in regular church services. Our students are voluntarily involved in Christian service activities that range from teaching Sunday school in detention homes to sharing the gospel on the beaches of Ft. Lauderdale. Music and puppet teams travel on weekends to churches throughout the Midwest. Each summer over fifty young people participate in our Missionary Internship Service, serving the Lord in unique ways on fields such as Hong Kong, Australia, Africa, Brazil, China, and the Philippines. These and new ministries, begun by innovative students, reflect a student body that declares with the apostle Paul, “...I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ....”

ACADEMIC

Our name, “Cedarville College, a Baptist College of Arts and Sciences,” indicates that we provide a liberal arts education-- a Christian liberal arts education. We offer twenty-one major fields of study and a number of special programs, all designed to prepare you for the profession of God’s leading.

Our faculty, numbering over 70 godly men and women, is very special. Nearly half of them have earned doctorates. They come offering wisdom from a variety of backgrounds, and a number of them have over twenty years of teaching experience. In fact, the average tenure of faculty is ten years. They are also a growing group, not just numerically but individually, through involvements in research projects, ministries, and publications. But best of all, they care about students. In a recent survey, the student body indicated that what they liked most about Cedarville College was the friendliness and helpfulness of the professors.

Nearly 6,000 students have passed through our school in the past ninety-three years. We’re proud of our alumni and their accomplishments. Cedarville graduates are currently involved in the pastorate, education, business, medicine, law, industry, government, communications, and counseling.

SOCIAL

The social aspect of Cedarville College life promotes healthy friendships and adds excitement to every quarter. More than twenty student organizations and hundreds of activities await your involvement: you can...help your class build a float for the Homecoming parade...“dunk the Dean” at the Cedar County Fair...relish the triumphant sound of the King’s Brass...laugh at the comedy of the Ensemble Company of Cincinnati Opera...climb the 70 foot cliffs of nearby Clifton Gorge...witness the talent of those amazing freshmen at the New Student Talent Night...watch the sun set over Cedar Lake...relive the story of the von Trapp family as the Village Players present The Sound of Music.

Fifteen intercollegiate sports also invite participation. These include basketball, baseball, cross country, golf, soccer, tennis, track, and wrestling for men; and basketball, cross country, field hockey, softball, tennis, track, and volleyball for women. Intramural competition flourishes in a wide variety of sports. All these activities benefit from our new Athletic Center, providing four basketball courts, tennis, handball/racquetball courts, an indoor track, and a wrestling room.

“That’s great.

But, is there anything else special about

Cedarville College?

YES!

We blend the Academic, Spiritual, and the Social so that a balanced Christian Education is the result.

“FOUR YEARS COULDN’T HAVE PASSED THAT QUICKLY.”

Memories flood my thoughts: classes, chapel services, sports, concerts, banquets, drama productions, and Christian service ministries. All these experiences comprised an exciting, yet very busy schedule. Discerning priorities was good training for me.

Dorm life was unforgettable, popcorn poppers working continuously, candy and pop machines forever being refilled. There were occasions of uncontrollable laughter and ridiculous stories balanced with the quiet moments of deep personal sharing.

The excellent academic atmosphere in the classroom always challenged me to search diligently for truth and to establish solid convictions in my life. As I became involved in team ministries, God used these experiences to develop maturity in my Christian life.

Through the lives of students, as well as dedicated faculty and staff, the Lord taught me how to love and work with people in light of the principles found in His Word. This was one of the most important aspects of my college experience.

Now I am a graduate. I am thankful for the thorough preparation offered by Cedarville College which enables me to face with confidence the challenges that lie ahead.
