"The Civilian Conservation Corps has for its purpose the training for better citizenship. It helps the boys find a place for themselves in life," declared Mr. Forrest Magley in Y. M. C. A. Bennett McNeal was in charge of devotions.

The Big Yellow Jacket, who suffered under a little stirring and shaking up two weeks ago, rose up in her glory to squelch an over-confident high school squad Tuesday evening.

The boys seemed to have blood in their eyes and when Waddle and Gibson started dropping the pill through the basket it was just too bad.

Friday night the Y. M. C. A. from Springfield invades the Cedarville ranks. Tuesday night the boys gave us a sample of their prowess, but if you want to see the real thing, be sure to be on hand Friday evening. We have a good team and they deserve a good backing. See you Friday night.

Rev. Duff SPEAKS

Rev. Duff, pastor of the Presbyterian Church at Yellow Springs and Moderator of the Dayton Presbytery, gave the Thanksgiving address on Wednesday, Nov. 26th. His theme was thankfulness every day--that true thanksgiving cannot be found by searching for reasons for thankfulness once a year.

Ruth Kimble led the devotions.

DEBATE MEETING

The Debate teams hold their second meeting Tuesday afternoon in Mrs. Ault's room. The meeting was for the purpose of a general discussion of consumers' cooperatives. The teams have not yet been chosen.

The Roving Reporter

Your reporter with the aid of Gale Ross went out on a little news gathering the other evening. Waddle & Jacobs don't know what time it is... Cummings out of luck... Aunt Mary was awake..... Richards couldn't explain where he was after play practice..... The Frat boys locked out of their own house... Walker & McNeal wandered off and couldn't be found.

One would think war had been declared with all the knitting that goes on in Chapel Wednesday morning. Keep it up girls. Gene Reed and Justin Hartman are even getting the fever.

Girls, have you noticed Harry Wallace's eyelashes lately?

Can you imagine Beatrice McClellan, a maiden lady, making love to Justin Hartman, a jolly fisherman?--Come to the Cedrus Play Tuesday evening.

Prof. Ault in hygiene class: "Some people are starving to death to save their lives."

John R.: "I should be taking a class under Kuchrman. I might be able to catch up on some of my sleep

Why was Bennett McNeal late to play practice Monday night???
Was he "Walking his baby down home?"

What privilege do a certain two people have that allows them to go up to one fellow's car kidnap his girl and take her on another date???

Cecil Thomas didn't care to make a statement to our reporter concerning his date Sunday night.

Perhaps it's John Richards who puts too much heart into his work at play practice. The other night, John, after a very dramatic speech rushed out the door and landed practically at the feet of Miss Bickett, who was just entering the room.

Joe Waddle is so glad his character is above reproach so he won't have to worry about having his name put in the "Whispering Cedars".

Miss Bickett in Music II: "You may come get your twelve weeks average and pass out."

The Kendig twins are wondering how their secret pals got together on giving them gifts alike. Did Mrs. Ault help this thing along?

You'll want to see Sisson and Seamon as fighting little brats in "Speeding Along" Tuesday evening.

The Burn's House maintains its popularity even through snow and fog! Last Wednesday it claimed the boy from across the street. Cedrus Play practice does come in handy, doesn't it?

The following fragment of a letter was found in Cecil Thomas' belongings "Have you forgotten my address, Cecil?"

With love,
Mary

Jurkat: "Art was eating more than his girl thought he ate.

Elinor: "So what?"

Jurkat: "She said she hopes Artie chokes."

Does anyone know why Tobias bus went off the road and out near Swarco's too!!!

BUY CHRISTMAS SEALS!

Through the ages mankind has conquered many enemies. Most of us read in the pages of history how valiant men overcame the superstition, the ignorance, and the misery of the Middle Ages and wish that we could have a part in these truly great crusades.

We can have a part for man still has mortal enemies to conquer. None is worse than the "White Plague" or tuberculosis. Every year this disease claims thousands as its victims. There is one agency today doing all it can to prevent and to cure tuberculosis. That agency secures its funds through the sale of seals.

From the pennies it collects from the sale of these Christmas seals, it makes life brighter and happier for thousands of lives that otherwise would be blighted. Let us do our share and buy Christmas Seals!

The Freshmen and Sophomores are having their pictures taken individually this year instead of in groups. The pictures for the annual are being taken this week and next at Axel Bahnsen's studio in Yellow Springs.

The Mixed Chorus is to broadcast Sunday afternoon at 2:15 over Station WHIO from Darton. They will appreciate it if you will listen in.

A bundle is a funny thing
It always sets me wondering;
For whether it is thin or wide
You never know just what's inside.

Especially on Christmas week,
Temptation is so great to peek!
Now wouldn't it be much more fun
If shoppers carried things undone?
John Farrar

Coderville College had a rare treat on Nov. 23rd when the Hampton Singers from Hampton Institute, a colored university in Virginia, presented a program of negro spirituals. There were six singers, four of whom were members of the original quartette and one of whom was beginning his fiftieth year as a singer. These singers tour the United States for the advancement of their university and have sung abroad as well.
