BIOGRAPHIES

Charles M. Pagnard has the M.M. degree from Eastman School of Music and has done post-graduate work at Cincinnati College-Conservatory of Music. Pagnard has been Principal Trumpet with the Dayton Philharmonic Orchestra since 1981. He is also Professor of Trumpet at Cedarville University in Ohio. While at Cedarville he has developed a strong brass program. Under his direction the Cedarville Brass Choir has toured extensively to such countries as Italy, Hungary, Israel, France and Greece. His other responsibilities include first Trumpet in the Carillon Brass and for the past four summers he has performed with the group "EuroBrass," which tours Germany each year. He has performed and toured extensively with the Cincinnati Symphony and Cincinnati Pops Orchestras. Pagnard can be heard on over 16 nationally released CDs by these orchestras. He has also recorded two CDs for Integra Music from Nashville, Tennessee with the Carillon Brass. Finally, he is featured soloist on the CD "At the Last Trumpet" performed by the Cedarville Brass Choir. He continues to be very active as a soloist and clinician.

Violinist Jun Kim has performed extensively in North America, Europe, and Asia. He has participated in conducting masterclasses with the State Symphony of Russia, the St. Petersburg State Symphony Orchestra, the Moscow Symphony Orchestra, the Pitesti Philharmonic in Romania, the Radom Chamber Orchestra in Poland, and the Winnipeg Symphony Orchestra in Canada. Kim has been selected as a Discovery Series Conductor at the Oregon Bach Festival under Maestro Helmuth Rilling, and has participated at the National Arts Center of Canada conducting program, being personally selected by Maestro Kurt Masur for the Kurt Masur conducting seminar in New York. He has worked with Romania's Dmitru Goia at the opera conducting masterclass for Verdi's La Traviata in Bucharest, and was a scholarship recipient at the Pierre Monteux School for Conductors and the Conductors' Retreat at Medomak. Kim has worked under numerous maestros such as Jorma Panula, Michael Jinbo, Mark Gorenstein, Kenneth Kiesler, Xian Zhang, and Gustav Meier. Since 2006 Jun Kim has served as the director of the University Orchestra at Cedarville University and as an assistant professor of violin. In addition to his academic duties, he is the music director of the Springfield (Ohio) Youth Symphony Orchestra. His wife, soprano You-Seong Kim, is on the faculty at Ohio University. The Kims have one son, Noah.

Concert pianist Charles Clevenger has combined careers in music and art. He studied watercolor with I. D. Washington and Darrell Koons, and piano performance with Imogene Darling, Raymond Dudley, and Richard Morris. Dr. Clevenger teaches studio piano to music majors at Cedarville, along with the University's core course on the arts, Introduction to the Humanities, and the Watercolor elective in the Art program. In addition to his teaching, Dr. C maintains a concert schedule that takes him around the country. He received his DMA from the University of Cincinnati's College Conservatory of Music in 1986 and has been at Cedarville since 1982. In 2002 Chuck was elected Faculty Member of the Year by the student body. He resides in Cedarville, Ohio with his wife Rhonda.
