For nearly one hundred years Cedarville College has quietly been educating Christian students, instilling in them principles from the Word of God and imparting to them knowledge with which to serve their fellowmen. In recent years, while the Biblical approach to education has continued, the “quietness” has not! Cedarville’s reputation for quality Christian education has gotten out!

The result: a steady growth in enrollment from 1150 students in 1978 to more than 1800 this past fall.

You, too, have “heard of” Cedarville. Now you want to hear more. This brief publication, filled with basic information and comments from our college family, will provide you with the personal insight you desire.

What is the key to Cedarville College?    The key is PURPOSE.

What is our purpose?

“To offer an education consistent with Biblical truth.”

OUR PURPOSE... SPIRITUALLY

An education consistent with Biblical truth begins with a personal relationship with the Author of Truth: Jesus Christ. Consequently, on your application for admission you will be asked to share how you became a Christian. To build upon this essential relationship, your academic curriculum at the college will include a minor in Bible, six courses. Your faith will be challenged and strengthened through our daily chapel services, designed to enhance your walk with the Lord and increase your awareness of contemporary issues facing Christians. Your gifts will be developed, too, through the abundant opportunities presented by our worldwide Christian ministries program.

Your spiritual growth is central to our purpose.

All students enjoy quality Bible instruction through the Department of Biblical Education, chaired by Dr. Robert Gromacki, popular speaker and author of 13 books.

Over 80% of the student body willingly invests time and energy in Christian ministries. The influence of these ministries touches lives in places as close as a local children's home and as distant as mainland China (pictured).

Tom Blackburn

“You grow by serving. Working with the high school students at the Ohio Veterans Children’s Home gave me that opportunity. Teaching made me learn and internalize many spiritual truths. Witnessing stretched me and sharpened my faith. Coordinating the high school program taught me a great deal about leadership. I also developed special friendships with the students who served with me. When you pray together each week and share the spiritual burden of a ministry, you get close to people. My Christian ministries involvement really helped me develop personally. It was an important part of my college education.”

Tom Blackburn, a 1984 prelaw graduate, attends the Temple University School of Law in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

OUR PURPOSE... ACADEMICALLY

Your use of the Scriptures will not end with formal Bible instruction, however. You'll find the Bible used as a textbook in every course at Cedarville College. We believe that this approach will enhance your education, for all truth is God's truth. Highly qualified, concerned, Christian faculty will help you prepare for the career you desire, whether it be teaching, medicine, law, business or the ministry. And, if you're unsure of a career, we'll offer you help in making that important decision through our Career Planning and Placement Office.

Our purpose includes preparing you for the future.

Our nursing program, offering the Bachelor of Science in Nursing, utilizes area hospitals for clinical instruction.

Computer support through individual microcomputers and our Academic Computer Center assists every academic department.

Brian Ensminger

"I started my college career at one of the largest universities in the nation and found it to be impersonal and cold. When I heard about Cedarville, I visited the college and was extremely impressed with its quality and friendliness. These things, along with the Christian perspective it offered, convinced me to transfer. I am very pleased with the education I received; in fact, I would say that Cedarville's academic quality exceeds that of the university I attended."

A 1985 business graduate, Brian now works in financial management for General Mills, Inc., Minneapolis, Minnesota.

OUR PURPOSE... SOCIALY

Good friends and priceless memories are a few of the treasures of a Christian college education. At Cedarville, we'll provide you with many opportunities to develop these treasures. Concerts, plays, parties, banquets, film nights, and over 25 student organizations will offer you activity, enrichment, and fun! Fourteen intercollegiate and a wide variety of intramural sports promote excitement and will give you a break from your studies. The quiet Student Center will enhance your time with friends and provide a special place to relax. You'll enjoy the environment, too: a spacious 100-acre campus, surrounded by miles of tree-lined country lanes and state parks, not too far from the bustling midwestern cities of Columbus, Cincinnati, and Dayton, Ohio.

Your social development is important to us!

Noted artists and guest conductors like Dr. George C. Wilson, former director, National Music Camp, regularly visit our campus.

Major drama productions each quarter provide opportunities for students of all majors to develop dramatic skills.

Heidi Hempel

“Cedarville College has become my “home,” in a way, because I’m here nine months and home only three! I really live with my friends: we go to classes together, and share the same growing experiences, such as learning to be away from our parents or developing serious dating relationships. By sharing so much with others, you develop deep relationships; and I think I will carry these friendships through life.”

From Amherst, Ohio, Heidi Hempel is a senior education major.

Over 2000 spectators, including our 70-member Yellow Jacket Pep Band, attend every home basketball game.

"The main difference between Cedarville and secular schools is that we have a purpose. We have something we are striving for. And it's not just something here in this world, but it's something we get from the Lord Himself. He gave His life for us; we need to give our lives for Him."

*Amy Thomas
Junior Nursing Major
Dayton, Ohio*
