1988 Season Outlook

The 1988 edition of Cedarville College women's volleyball features plenty of experience as Coach Elaine Brown welcomes back nine letterwinners. The Jackets are expecting good things to happen this fall following last year's 22-16 performance.

"We have a great deal of experience in the line-up which is our main strength," Brown said. "We have three good setters and nine strong hitters so we look to be set in every position. The players came together as a team early in workouts and I'm looking forward to a good season."

Heading the list of returning veterans is senior all-around performer Jeri Hastman. She'll remain on the court for nearly every game switching between setting and hitting.

Senior defensive specialist Janae' Smart is predicted to be a leader on the court, while key contributions are expected from senior hitters Tammy Mascari and Pam Squires. Junior Michelle Nakano and sophomore Connie Ziegler will both see a wealth of playing time as setters.

Others vying for positions include juniors Lori Rogers and Julie Wilson, sophomore Jill Jacobs, and newcomers Sandy Fletcher and Lori Hamilton.

The schedule is similar to last year's with three tournaments highlighting the season. The first Cedarville Invitational, with an eight-team field, will take place Sept. 16-17 in the Athletic Center.
