BIOGRAPHIES

Aleska Barkoviak, a freshman music and worship double major, comes from Normal, Illinois. She is currently studying with Mark Spencer. Last semester she was the soprano in The Four-Note Opera here at Cedarville. She has appeared with Opera Illinois in their productions of Amahl and the Night Visitors, Tosca, and Ballad of Baby Doe and with The Midwest Institute for Opera in their production of Pirates of Penzance. She also performed as one of the Three Ladies in Magic Flute at Interlochen.

Alyssa Griffith is a sophomore keyboard pedagogy major, studying under Charles Clevenger. She is from Lee, Illinois. Alyssa was the recipient of the 2012 Faculty Music Award and the 2013 Love Pedagogy Scholarship in Music award. Her studies at Cedarville include piano, as well as vocal studies, accompanying, and other music courses.

Simon Yeh is a sophomore saxophone performance major from California, Maryland. He began studying saxophone at the age of 11 and is now currently studying with saxophone professor Chet Jenkins at Cedarville University. Before coming to Cedarville, Simon previously studied both saxophone and flute with Don Stapleson from St. Mary's College of Maryland. Simon mainly focuses on jazz studies although he also pursues studying the classical literature for the saxophone. Simon also studies clarinet with Bruce Curlette here at Cedarville.
