To Our Parents...

As we were ushered to this earth just fragile lives at that our birth The Lord looked down on hearts upturned and with careful wisdom, then discerned

He knew the special needs and fears that we'd encounter through the years So searching corners far and wide found special ones that would provide

The guidance of a gentle hand and loving hearts to understand A home in which to learn and grow examples of His love to show

The time to listen, and to share always with a hug to spare Comforting words and warming smiles reaching out across the miles

Prayers filled with selfless love for His blessing from above Always taking tender care somehow always being there

When countless mountains loom immense give steadfast hope and confidence Rejoicing in each small success mindful of our happiness

When as these tender ones were found God's love and compassion did greatly abound For though unique, the lives He weighed for each a perfect match was made

There are no words which can express our depth of love and thankfulness For giving of your best each day helping us to find our way

Though paths may bend, or even part the bond of love is in the heart a closeness felt in each embrace which age or time cannot erase

Dear to us, as from the start you'll always play a special part For caretakers whom God prepares are blessings far beyond compare!

WE LOVE YOU!

A Nurse's Prayer

O Father, with patience let me each patient attend.

Help me learn to accept with grace, the uncomfortable tasks,
Knowing that their discomfort is far greater.

Let me not forget the soul in dealing with the body,
And may they see Christ shining forth in me.

Help me always to be able to grieve at loss, rejoice at birth,
And always to manifest your love in each duty.

Help me not to become callous,
But always to have the capacity to feel.

Though long hours, heavy loads, and unpleasant tasks will come, Help me to look beyond them and realize that you help to carry each load.

May dealing with people never become routine, But help me to see through your eyes the unique beauty of each individual.

Let any pain that I cause be for the better,
And not just because of carelessness or lack of time.

Help me to take my orders from the Great Physician,
And let me never lose sight of His wondrous example.
