1989 Season Outlook

Yellow Jacket head volleyball coach ELAINE BROWN is optimistic that this fall's squad can post a winning record and win at least 22 matches for the fourth straight time. The outlook comes in light of the fact that Cedarville has but four players returning from last year's club that posted a best-ever 31-13 record and made the NAIA District 22 playoffs. Two of the four returnees started last year.

"I expect us to be very competitive and quite capable of winning 22-25 matches," predicted Brown. "We may not have as much depth, but the four players who are back have a lot of experience. Also, our freshman class should make a big contribution to the success of this year's team."

The only returning seniors, JULIE WILSON and MICHELLE NAKANO, will serve as the squad's co-captains. Wilson appeared in all 44 matches last season and ranked third in attacks with 233 kills for a 2.22 per game average. Nakano, a native of Hawaii, has led Cedarville in assists the past two years including 440 a year ago for an average of 4.49 per game. A pair of sophomores, SANDY FLETCHER and LORI HAMILTON, are the only other returning players.

Newcomers DENISE DEWALT and TRACIE BURLINGAME are expected to make an immediate impact. Brown calls DeWalt the most talented freshman she has ever had and her versatility should come to the forefront during the season.
