Cedarville College tennis teams earn ITA academic honors

PRINCETON, N.J. -- The Intercollegiate Tennis Association has announced that the Cedarville College men's and women's tennis teams have been recognized as NAIA All-Academic Teams for the 1999 season.

The Cedarville men, who are coached by Alan Edlund, were one of only three NAIA teams in the country to earn the prestigious honor. It is reserved for any ITA program that has a cumulative team grade point average of 3.20 or above. The other two were Cumberland TN and Webber FL.

The Lady Jackets, along with coach Pam Johnson, were one of nine NAIA teams throughout the nation so honored. The others were Biola CA, Birmingham-Southern AL, Cumberland KY, Cumberland KY, Lewis-Clark State ID, McKendree IL, College of Saint Mary NE, and Webber FL.

Four Yellow Jacket players were tabbed NAIA-ITA Scholar-Athletes. The list includes senior Ginger Butler (Wausau, WI) and juniors Casey Ruffin (Grand Lake, CO) and Elizabeth Wolfe (Ligonier, IN) for the women while senior Carl Weise (Clymer, NY) represented the men. The program recognizes juniors and seniors who are varsity letter winners that maintain a minimum 3.50 cumulative GPA.
