ONE LIFE

Given

TO OTHERS

Rev. W. R. McChesney, M.A., Ph.D., D.D.

Inseparably and coincidentally with the history of Cedarville College goes the life service of one man, W. R. McChesney; who as a young man gave himself to the great cause of Christian Education through Cedarville College, sacrificially staying, when opportunities came calling him elsewhere, because he had given his life for the small Christian College.

A Scholar —Well-trained, he inculcates the love of accurate knowledge. Franklin College (Now Muskingum), B.A., M.A., Ph.D.—Tarkio, D.D.

A Christian —A burning zeal for Christ and His Church, inspires to a like devotion. Minister, The Reformed Presbyterian Church. Ordained 1897.

An Orator —Known in many pulpits for his Gospel Messages, he is in constant demand for the platform—thereby creating an aspiration in the hearts of the students.

An Educator —Recognized as a leader in Ohio and National Circles—he brings a broad training to the teacher.

A Friend —Loyal to student friendships, his ever-abiding interest marks a friend in deed.

A Life-Long Asset —To every student learning of life from him and of the life in Christ.

President —Of a forward-looking college—to which he has given 36 years of service.
