SPORTS NEWS RELEASE

from Cedarville College Yellow Jackets

JEWEL SCHRODER

All-NAIA District 22 Candidate
All-WBCC Candidate

Jewel Schroder, a 5'7" guard from Fergus Falls, Minnesota, has been one of the most consistent players for this season's Cedarville College squad. The senior captain of the Lady Jackets has scored in double figures in thirteen of the team's twenty-two games.

Schroder leads the team in scoring (13.0 ppg) and has been among the WBCC leaders in the category. Her 140 rebounds is second on the club (6.4 rpg).

Some of Jewel's best outings this year came against Grace (18 pts., 9 rebs.) and Hanover (20 pts., 9 rebs.) when she made the Cedarville Invitational all-tournament team. She scored 24 and 20 points respectively in victories over Tiffin and Earlham. Schroder netted a career-high 27 markers against Bluffton.

We feel that all of the above factors help to make Jewel Schroder a worthy candidate for post-season honors. Listed below are Schroder's statistics for games through 2-16-85.
