Cedarville tennis teams earn ITA All-Academic honors

CEDARVILLE, Ohio - The Cedarville University men's and women's tennis squads have both been selected as All-Academic Teams for the 2001 season by the Intercollegiate Tennis Association (ITA). It's the second straight year the Yellow Jacket netters have earned the honor.

The program recognizes teams who maintain a minimum 3.2 cumulative grade point average for the team. It includes all student-athletes on the roster who have competed in at least one match.

Cedarville is one of ten NAIA schools nationally to be so honored. The Yellow Jackets join Embry-Riddle FL and Georgia Southwestern as the only institutions to have both their men's and women's teams recognized.

Other NAIA women's programs listed include Bethany KS, Indiana-Southeast, McKendree IL, Saint Francis IN, and Walsh OH. Lyon AR and Southwestern KS were also named in the men's division.
