Dr. Won-Bin Yim studied at the Peabody Conservatory (Bachelor of Music), the Juilliard School (Master of Music and Doctorate of Musical Arts). He has served as concertmaster of the Wichita Symphony Orchestra and Reno Philharmonic, and he was first violinist of the Fairmount String Quartet and violinist of the Argenta Trio. Mr. Yim is currently an associate professor of violin at the College-Conservatory of Music of the University of Cincinnati where he received the Glover Award for the Excellence in Teaching. He was a faculty member at the Juilliard School pre-college and an assistant faculty member at the Juilliard School college division, a violin faculty member at the Aspen Music Festival, and a violin faculty member and dean at the Great Mountain Music Festival and School in Korea. His students have won prizes at national and international competitions and former students are playing in the major symphony orchestras such as New York Philharmonic, Metropolitan Opera Orchestra, Indianapolis Symphony Orchestra, Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra, National Symphony Orchestra, and teaching at the universities in the U.S. and abroad. Since last summer, he has been teaching at the CCM/Spoleto Music Festival in Italy and Accent 2010 in Cincinnati.
