Summary:

Includes handwritten journals, comprising almost 12,000 pages, that reflect Martha McMillan's life on a farm outside of Cedarville, Ohio from 1867-1913. Included are several inserted sub-journals representing trips taken by Martha around the U.S. primarily to visit her children. In Martha's absence, some daily journal entries were completed by a family member or farm employee indicating the activities on the farm for that day.

Biographical sketch:

Martha Elizabeth Murdock was married to James McMillan on January 15, 1867. They lived in the McMillan homestead near Cedarville, Ohio, where James was well-known for raising sheep, hogs, and high-bred trotting horses as well as the usual field crops. From the day of her marriage until two weeks before her death in 1913, Martha McMillan kept a journal of the daily events in the home, on the farm, and in the community. Martha and James had 10 children, eight of whom lived to adulthood
