STAFF

ESGR Patriot Award

This unique award, provided by the Employer Support of the Guard and Reserve Organization through a nomination process, was presented to Julie Deardorff, Director of Library Collection Services, by Laura LeMaster, Serials Technical Assistant, and her husband Glen, Command Chief of the Ohio Air National Guard. The award, recognizing employers who show exceptional support for Guard members and their families, acknowledges Julie's commitment as Laura's supervisor to provide her time away from her job for participation with her husband in Ohio Guard leadership and family assistance activities.

Library internship program

The Centennial Library internship program is designed to allow student participants to explore the library profession as a career choice. Interns participate in a variety of activities which allow them to become familiar with the operations and services of an academic library. The Centennial Library internship program entered a new phase this semester as increased demand exceeded the number of positions available and the selection process became competitive for the first time in the five year history of the program. Three interns were chosen to take the semester long course, English Independent Study-Library Science Internship (ENG 4230). Stacie Schmidt, a senior History major from Santa Barbara, California, Kaitlin Start, a senior Graphic Design major from Saint Charles, Missouri, and Amanda Snyder, a senior History major from Camp Hill, Pennsylvania. All three interns are also currently student assistants on the Library staff with plans for a library career following the completion of a Masters degree in library science.

Cardboard canoe race trophy

Three-peats are rare, but the latest cardboard canoe team representing the Library won the department trophy for the third year in a row during the Engineering Department's annual cardboard canoe race, held on Friday, October 1st. Ten student library assistants under their advisor Amy McCoy, Circulation Services Manager, designed and built the library's entry. The canoe, expertly paddled by library student assistants, not only completed the entire course but did it in the fastest time of the day. As well, the sturdy canoe was the last canoe floating in the subsequent demolition derby.

Library book cart drill team

On Saturday, October 2nd, the Centennial Cartwheelers made their fifth appearance in the Homecoming parade incorporating the “Road Trip” homecoming theme. This highly skilled book cart drill team, comprised of 8 pushers, entertained those along the parade route with the precision routines designed and led by Sergeant Major Andi Mounts, Assistant Circulation Services Manager. The team was supported by a cast of Library personnel and family members who distributed candy along the route. The decorations on the book carts made them look like small cars with a picture of the cart pusher in the windshield. This year’s effort, directed by Greg Martin, CMC Librarian, involved several months of preparation, including drill team practices in the Library parking lot, music preparation, the transformation of book carts into “cars,” and the work of many on the Library staff.

Conference leadership

Brent Etzel, Instructional Services Librarian, was appointed Conference Program Director for the Association of Christian Librarians. The Association, established in 1957, is one of the oldest and largest evangelical academic library organizations in existence, with more than 500 individual and nearly 150 institutional members representing a wide spectrum of denominations. Brent will provide oversight for the teams involved in planning the annual conferences of the Association, held on college and university campuses every June. In 2011, the 55th annual conference was held at Cedarville University, which hosted the conference on three other occasions, in 1961, 1990, and 1996

Faculty/Staff presentations at national conference

With the national conference of the Association of Christian Librarians being held at the University in June, a number of Library faculty and staff were involved in workshop and poster session presentations.

Pre-Conference (½ day presentations):

Greg Margin, CMC Librarian. “Book Cart Drill Teams.”

Faculty/staff coming and going

Going:

Andi Mounts, serving the last six years as the Assistant Circulation Services Manager, leaves the Library to move with her husband Eric to Charleston, West Virginia, where he will become the Senior Pastor of the Bible Center Church.

Tonya Fawcett, who has served the last twelve years as Director of Library Public Services, will be moving this summer with her husband Jeff to Grace College, where she will assume responsibilities as the director of the library. Tonya began her work here part-time in 1988 as the Interlibrary Coordinator. After stints as a Reference Assistant, an Assistant Reference Librarian, and the Reference Librarian, she assumed her role as Director of Public Services in 1999.

Scott Deetz, AV Services Manager, and Rich Williams, AV Services Technician, left the employ of the library in the transfer of the AV Services department to Computer Services beginning July 1. See “AV Services moved to new campus department” below.

SERVICES

Library mobile apps implemented

In January, CULib2GO!, the Library’s mobile application package was made available to patrons, working on Blackberry, Apple, and Android devices. CULib2GO! allows patrons to search the Centennial Library Catalog, renew library materials, contact a reference librarian for assistance (voice or email), and search the most popular EBSCO databases, such as Academic Search Complete and ERIC. Users can also download articles found in those databases. RefMobile, the mobile version of RefWorks, is also available from CULib2GO!, so students can literally carry their own research around in their pockets. This effort was led by Tonya Fawcett, Director of Library Public Services, Tricia Clark, Public Services Technical Coordinator, and Linda Divan, Library Systems Coordinator.

New CATS Biblical Heritage Gallery exhibit

On January 26, a new exhibit opened in the Biblical Heritage Gallery in the Center for Biblical and Theological Studies, featuring items from the English Bible Collection of the Centennial Library Special Collections. The exhibit, developed by Lynn Brock, Dean of Library Services with graphics designed by Carl Brandon, Director of Library Media Services, was entitled “Celebrating the Bible in English: 400 years of the King James Version, 1611-2011,” and celebrated the 400th anniversary of the publication of the King James Bible in England. The exhibit excluded a number of rare King James Bible editions from the 17th and 18th centuries, the earliest from 1613, pages from the first edition in 1611, and other rare English language Bible s which were forerunners of the King James Bible.

Freshman and Senior library surveys

The Library has completed an annual freshmen and senior library use and satisfaction survey since 1994, only interrupted every 3 years by the use of the LibQUAL national library satisfaction survey which the Library first used in 2002. In 2008, new versions of the freshmen and senior surveys were used for the first time. For 2011, the response rate was very strong with 44% of the freshmen and 51% of the seniors completing the survey, a total of 736 responses. Overall satisfaction rates were very high. On a 1 to 7 scale, where 7 is “very dissatisfied” and 1 is “very satisfied,” the overall average survey satisfaction score by freshmen was a 1.99 and by seniors was a 1.93, numbers indicating a strong positive response to Library services.

AV Services moved to new campus department

As part of the effort to consolidate all campus facility technology support under one department, the Library AV Services, which has been a part of the Library operation since the late 1970's, will move to Computer Services on July 1 This change meant that Scott Deetz, AV Services Manager, and Rich Williams, AV Services Technician, will become part of the Computer Services department staff. Scott and Rich have been a vital part of the Library team for a number of years and their important contribution to Library operations will be missed.

AWARENESS/EVENTS

ACL National conference

For the fourth time in its history, the Association of Christian Librarians held its annual conference, the 55th, at Cedarville University, hosted by the staff of the Centennial Library and the national office of the Association which is headquartered in Cedarville. The 4-day conference, held from June 13 to 16 and attended by about 200, was headlined by two nationally known keynote speakers. The first, Dr. Megan Oakleaf, an assistant professor in the iSchool at Syracuse University, is a recognized leader in library assessment, evidence-based decision making, information literacy instruction, and reference services. A second keynote speaker was Andy Bush, Director of U.S. Library Services for OCLC, the Online Computer Library Center, headquartered in Columbus, Ohio. The conference also included several pre-conferences, 30 workshops, a number of poster sessions, and vendor exhibits. Attendees also enjoyed a concert at the Cedarville Opera House.

Library science career dinner

Carol Mitchell, Head Librarian of the Cedarville Community Library, was the keynote speaker for the 5th Annual Library Science Careers Dinner, hosted by the Centennial Library faculty members. The dinner, which provides Cedarville students with the opportunity to learn about career options in library and information science and about the master of library science degree, was held on Monday, November 8, in the Stevens Student Center. Twenty students from a wide variety of majors had the opportunity to interact with university and community librarians and with students enrolled in Master of Library Science programs. In her presentation, Carol focused on the service aspect of librarianship and on the ability of a librarians to make an impact in their communities. Attendees also enjoyed a presentation by the 2010 Centennial Library interns about the benefits of the internship program.

Library scholarship

The Centennial Library Scholarship Award in Library Science was established in 1997 by the Centennial Library faculty to encourage and actively support the next generation of library and information specialists, and especially to encourage those who will fill the future library faculty ranks of Christian colleges and universities. The award is available to seniors or graduates enrolled for graduate study in library and information science. Students apply for the scholarship and the selection process includes a faculty recommendation and an interview by the Library faculty selection committee. The first award was presented in 2000, and ten scholarships have been presented prior to this year. This year's recipient was Amanda Snyder, who plans to obtain her Masters degree through the Department of Library Science at the Clarion University of Pennsylvania. Amanda has been a Library student assistant for three years and completed the Library internship program during the Fall 2010 semester.

National Library Week

Since 1958, libraries around the United States have been celebrating National Library Week, generally scheduled during the second full week in April. This year's theme was "The Power of Story." In the last few years the Centennial Library has developed a few NLW traditions of its own. We began our celebration with the annual used book sale. On Tuesday afternoon Cedarville Review authors returned to share their creative writing talents as they read their poetry, flash fiction, and fiction pieces. On Thursday, we highlighted the creativity of our students as Dr. Phipps' Storytelling class entertained us with a variety of tales. We also continued the tradition of inviting a younger group of students from CedarCliff elementary for some storytelling in the Curriculum Materials Center with Dr. Sweigard's Children's Literature students reading the books. The Centennial Library staff and librarians found a number of other ways to celebrate NLW with cookies, balloons, candy, and the delivery of Rinnova gift cards to departments with 100% participation in library collection development activities. The celebration culminated with the Library Recognitions Dinner on Friday evening, April 15.

A. Commemorative Bible added to Special Collections

The year 2011 was the 400th anniversary of the printing of the first edition of the King James Bible in 1611. As part of that celebration, the Bible Museum of Goodyear, Arizona , produced and offered a full-size exact replica of the 1611 first edition. Weighing in at 30 pounds and measuring 17 ½ inches tall by 12 inches wide and 5 ½ inches thick, the replica is the exact size of the original first folio printing of the King James Bible. Through the generosity of Greg Martin, Curriculum Materials Center Librarian, and his wife Debbie , this beautifully-bound reproduction, printed on 100% rag cotton linen sheets just like the 1611 original, was donated to the Library in memory of their parents.

B. New Gallery exhibit celebrates the 400th anniversary of the King James Bible

On January 26, a new exhibit opened in the Biblical Heritage Gallery in the Center for Biblical and Theological Studies, featuring items from the Centennial Library Special Collections. The exhibit included a collection of rare King James Bible editions from the 17th and 18th centuries, the earliest from 1613, pages from the first edition, and other rare English language Bibles which were forerunners of the King James. As well, a collection of classic King James Bibles from the 20th century rounded out the exhibit. The exhibit opened in January and closed in mid-June. New approaches to graphics and text were included for the first time.

C. In addition, two other major exhibits were installed in the Biblical Heritage Gallery in the Center for Biblical and Theological Studies. They included the following:

- Preserved by Hand: the Bible from Manuscript to Gutenberg [Summer]
- One Nation Under God: the Bible in Early America

Supplemental exhibits in the Gallery included the following:

- Love in any Language: John 3:16
