CEDARVILLE COLLEGE ALUMNI NOTES

March, 1946

Cedarville, Ohio

Volume XXVIII No 12

GREETINGS ! The Columbus Group considers it quite an honor to be the first to send greetings and a bit of gossip concerning its members to Alumni, former students, and friends of Cedarville College.

Before the War, monthly meetings were held in homes, churches, and hotels in Columbus, but during the War the Group, like so many other activities, ceased to function for obvious reasons. It is planned that it will be reactivated in the fall of 1946 and will again be the medium for good fellowship and interest in "Old C. C."

Now -- a few items of interest about some of the Columbus Cedarville College Group. (If you know of someone else in the Columbus area who should be with us, let us know through the College Office.)

The Kyle family holds the distinction of having the most members -- all of whom either graduated from or attended Cedarville College. Harriet Kyle '27 is employed in the Children's Department of the Columbus Public Library; Christine (Kyle) Reilley '24 leads the busy life of a minister's wife, Gavin, Reilley '26, who has been Pastor of Crestview Presbyterian Church for a number of years; Gordon Kyle who went to C.C. but graduated from OSU in Architecture is now working for a prominent firm of contractors; and Henry Kyle moved to Columbus just recently. There are other Kyles in other places and all of them prominent CC people.

Bob Richards, '33 is back from his army experiences in Europe and is teaching at North High School. His wife, the former Wilma Chenoweth '35, is keeping the home fires burning.

Cecil Thomas '39 is in YMCA work at Ohio State University and is located at the Ohio Union Building on the Campus.

A very prominent alumnus, Dr. Cecil Rife '22 is Professor of Genetics at OSU, and just the past year published his "Of Mice and Destiny" which is now used as a textbook in Genetics.

Willard Barlow '27 has returned from the Marshall Islands and the Navy, and is now Principal at the Fifth Avenue School in Columbus. Due to the housing shortage (or have you heard) Mrs. Barlow, the former Eleanore Johnson '27, is remaining in Cedarville temporarily.

Christina (Smith) Wolfe '28 and her husband are turning to now pastures in the field of real estate. They seem to be concentrating on Upper Arlington property and live there themselves.

The Turnbulls - Bob '27 and Nedra (Wilson) '27; Bill Waddle '35, Mrs. Paul Miller (Carma Hostetler) '35, Mrs. Jane (Creager) Sidner, Mrs. Marie (Moahl) Biehl, Ruth Troutman, Mrs. Walter Johnson (Jean Elliott) '39 and many other graduates and former students make up the roster.

With the array of strength and ability in the foregoing personnel, is it any wonder that the Columbus Group considers itself important in C.C. affairs?
