Quando men vo

As I walk alone through the streets, the people stop to look and inspect my beauty, examining me from head to foot.

And then I savor the subtle longing in their eyes when, from my visible charms, they guess at the beauty concealed. This onrush of desire surrounds me. It delights me; it delights me.

And you know, who remember and suffer. How can you escape? I know: you won't admit that you're in torment, but it's killing you.
