The Path...™

"Your Full-Service" Friend

Personally Speaking

Remember when service stations had attendants to fill your gas tank, wash your windows, and check the air pressure of your tires? How about the days when your entire family received their check-up from the doctor on the same day? What do you think of when I mention the term “full-service?”

Listeners have defined that term for us over the past few years. We’ve heard from friends who have said,

“I appreciate the balance of news, information, music programming, and your commitment to biblical truth in all you do.” When I hear comments like this, I am reminded of the inspired perspective the Apostle Paul shares in 1 Corinthians 4:7, “For who regards you as superior? And what do you have that you did not receive?”

We recognize that we are only stewards of the valuable resources the Lord has provided for you on The Path.™ As the Lord provides, we are committed to serving the body of Christ by providing full-service programming with a three-prong approach: a plentiful supply of inspirational music, timely news, and insightful Bible teaching.

You can expect:

- IMPACT News reports that provide a summary of the leading moral, ethical, and religious issues that affect the family. We will also continue to send reporters to cover important issues such as the controversy in Adams County over the posting of the Ten Commandments near their high schools.

- A Minute for the Church and other broadcasts that encourage believers to faithfulness in their service to a local, Bible-teaching church.

- Weather Monitor Forecast® with Nexrad Doppler Radar to communicate timely weather information. Surveys indicate that 97 percent of listeners receive their initial weather information from radio.

- Cedarville College chapel broadcasts featuring prominent Christian leaders from around the nation. The unique, daily broadcast and special features such as our annual Missions Conference serve to remind listeners of their responsibilities as ambassadors for Christ to a needy world.

- Familiar Christian music favorites and the best of today’s music that encourages listeners to further investigate the Scriptures. In addition, listeners enjoy special features such as Urban Light and Southern Gospel Request Time. These programs serve the culturally-diverse interests within the body of Christ.

Thank you for your interest and support of the full-service programming on The Path.™ You help to provide a lifeline for those in your community who are suffering hardship, persecution, loneliness, or other pressures. The wide variety of resources are reaching the hearts of discouraged prison inmates, weary salesmen, and frustrated parents. Pray with us that those who listen would be directed towards our God who promised, He would “...make known to (them) the path of life.”

Magnifying Christ with you,

Paul Gathany

The Path™ congratulates the staff of Christian Financial Concepts, In Touch Ministries, and broadcaster Bill Pearce for their recognition at the annual National Religious Broadcasters convention in Nashville in February. The NRB gives several awards to outstanding Christian broadcasters during the convention, and this year, Larry Burkett’s live call-in show, Money Matters, was named “1999 Talk Show of the Year.” Religious broadcasters also honored In Touch, Dr. Charles Stanley’s daily Bible-teaching program, with the “Radio Program of the Year” award, while Bill Pearce, host of Nightsounds, received the NRB’s “Lifetime Achievement” award. Bresson Receives National Honor

The IMPACT News division provides listeners with an ample supply of news to pray for daily. As IMPACT News Director for six years, Chad Bresson has been instrumental in developing the program. Donald Jackson, president of the Christian Family Network, described IMPACT News as “one of the best local-area news departments in the country.”

Jackson presented Bresson with the “Friend of the Family Award” on behalf of CFN on January 22, 1999. The honor was given at CFN’s annual pro-life memorial service to commemorate the sanctity of life. Jackson remarked, “Chad is a credit not only to the Christian community, but to the entire Miami Valley area served by the WCDR news department. Without Chad’s no-nonsense, balanced reporting of issues in a very timely manner, many of us who are involved in the day-to-day pro-family arena would be unaware of many developments directly affecting our lives. I can think of no other person more deserving of the Friend of the Family Award.”

Along with his responsibilities as news director, Bresson makes up half of the Morning Praise team, giving news updates weekday mornings from 5:45 to 8:00. He can also be heard weekday afternoons hosting Front Page at 5:05. On Front Page, Bresson focuses on issues of particular interest to the Christian community. He talks with newsmakers both locally and nationally.

Recent guests have included Kay Coles James, dean of the Robertson School of Government at Regent University; journalist and author Hugh Hewitt; broadcaster Alan Keyes; and author Max Lucado.

IMPACT News provides timely coverage of educational issues such as the effort to preserve the Ten Commandments monument in Adams County, Ohio.

Larry Burkett Visits Ohio for Family Seminar

On March 6, CDR Radio was privileged to welcome Larry Burkett to a special finance seminar hosted by The Gathering in Columbus. CDR Radio has had a long partnership with Burkett, carrying his program Money Matters since its inception in 1988. Burkett also briefly visited the campus of Cedarville College and stopped by the CDR Radio studios, where Chad Bresson interviewed him for Front Page.

During the weekly staff prayer meeting the following Monday, CDR General Manager Paul Gathany shared with us the account of a listener he spoke with at the seminar.

“A number of years ago, this single mother had moved to southern Ohio and was struggling to support her three children. She was destitute with no money to pay the bills. On a battery-operated radio, she and her children came across CDR Radio and began to listen faithfully, especially to In Touch with Charles Stanley, Unshackled, and The Children’s Bible Hour with Uncle Charlie. When the batteries in her radio would start to run low, she would plan to run errands during that time period so they could listen to the radio in the car.

“Over time, this mother and her children responded to the message of the Gospel and received Christ as their Lord and Savior. During our Ingathering that year, she used a neighbor’s phone to call and tell us her story as well as to ask prayer for her situation. Through the assistance of several local churches and Larry Burkett’s ministry, Christian Financial Concepts, this listener and her family received some help. As a result, she was able to get back on her feet and provide for her family’s needs. As she shared her story, our new friend said repeatedly, ‘You don’t know what CDR means to me.’”

Praise God for His work through a number of individuals and ministries!
