National Businesses Converging on CU Career Fair

CEDARVILLE, OHIO – More than 80 companies from 14 states will attend the spring career fair on Thursday, March 20 from 11 a.m. until 2:30 p.m. in the Doden Field House at Cedarville University. The career fair is open to the public.

Participants are encouraged to pre-register. Cedarville University students can visit Cedarville.edu to pre-register and be eligible to win prizes and scholarship incentives. Local residents should send an email to career@cedarville.edu to pre-register.

National and regional businesses that are seeking employees at the fair include Honda, JPMorgan Chase, the United States Navy Nuclear Program and Focused Leadership Group, the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), Cummins, Reynolds and Reynolds, and the Ohio Attorney General's office. These employers recognize the superior education that Cedarville students receive and are eager to offer them career opportunities.

The career services office hosts multiple career fairs each year, giving students, alumni and community members a significant opportunity to make professional contacts, and potentially find internships and jobs with some of the top employers in the country. Underclassmen and upperclassmen of all majors are encouraged to attend and explore the many opportunities and develop their professional networking skills.

The career services staff also offers workshops, in addition to career fairs, for students on a variety of topics, including interviewing, building a resume and professionalism throughout the year.
