February 23, 1995

Dear NAIA Participants:

It is with great pleasure that I welcome all student-athletes, coaches and spectators to the 1995 NAIA Men's and Women's Indoor Track and Field National Championships held at the Devaney Sports Center in Lincoln, Nebraska.

The NAIA is fortunate and certainly appreciative to have the enthusiastic support of the city of Lincoln, local NAIA tournament committees and their respective staffs, and member institutions of the Nebraska-Iowa Athletic Conference.

As an association, the NAIA serves the student-athletes at our member colleges and universities by creating for them an environment in which they can succeed academically as well as athletically. This Association of approximately 400 member institutions strongly believes that athletics is an integral part of an institution's total educational program.

Further, any action taken on the part of the Association is done to ensure that our student-athletes reach two goals at the end of their collegiate careers. The first goal is the attainment of a college degree, and the second is the satisfaction of competing to the highest level of their athletic ability.

Congratulations and best of luck to all student-athletes competing at this year's men's and women's indoor track and field championships!

Sincerely,

James R. Chasteen
NAIA President and CEO

The NAIA – Providing Balanced Athletics Programs for 60,000 Student-Athletes

Throughout its history, the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) has provided strong leadership for all aspects of intercollegiate sports. Since its introduction of intercollegiate championship basketball in 1937, the NAIA has maintained the highest standards while administering first-rate athletics programs.

Time and time again, the NAIA has stepped forward to address the important issues of the day — be it racial integration in the '40s and '50s or establishing the first women's championship program in 1980. The NAIA has not been afraid to enact changes while others have watched and waited.

In the past decade, presidents of the NAIA colleges and universities have assumed a position of responsible leadership. The NAIA's Council of Presidents, the organization's primary governing body, is comprised of 32 college and university presidents from all regions of the United States.

With its major emphasis on educational development, it was natural for the NAIA to further strengthen academic eligibility requirements in the mid-'80s. All NAIA participating student-athletes must maintain a certain grade-point-average (GPA) while accumulating credit hours for a declared academic degree. Unlike other associations, NAIA student-athlete academic eligibility is monitored on a term-by-term basis.

The All-America Scholar-Athlete program, a long-standing NAIA tradition, recognizes junior and senior student-athletes with a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.5 (on a 4.0 scale). This past year, more than 700 NAIA student-athletes were so honored, representing 225 member institutions.

During the '90s, the waves of change once again washed over the NAIA. The membership voted to institute affiliated conference and regional groupings and discontinue the use of district play as a means of qualification for national championships, marking the first time since the NAIA's creation that district competition would not be used.

Since 1937, the NAIA has administered athletics programs and championships in proper balance with the overall collegiate educational experience. Serving higher education in this manner is a responsibility the NAIA does not take lightly. It is a relationship built on confidence and trust — a relationship strengthened year after year. The future of 60,000 young people is too important to handle any other way.

The training

The competition is intense.

The hours are long.

The clock

is ticking.

And you can't

imagine doing anything else.

Neither can we.
