For immediate release:

CEDARVILLE, OHIO -- Ellsworth High School graduate Andrea Doctor is a member of the women's varsity basketball team at Cedarville College in Ohio. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Silas Doctor, Jr. of Ellsworth.

Doctor, who is a junior guard, carries a math education major at Cedarville. There are no seniors on the team and Andrea is one of just two juniors on the roster. Nine of the 14 players are freshmen.

Cedarville has struggled out to a 3-9 start through games of Jan. 16. Coach Bob Fires lost four starters and nearly 50 points per game from last year's 20-10 club. That was a school record for victories in a season as the Yellow Jackets made the NAIA District 22 playoffs and later finished as the runner-up in the National Christian College Athletic Association (NCCAA) national tournament.

Cedarville is a Baptist liberal arts college located in southwestern Ohio, 25 miles east of Dayton. The school has an enrollment of approximately 1900 students.
