Welcome . . .

Always a popular and exciting game soccer, within recent months, has experienced a phenomenal growth rarely paralleled in the history of sport in this country. The NAIA is proud of the tradition of great soccer in this Association and that the teams making it to the NAIA National Soccer Championships consistently rank among the best collegiate teams in America. Last year, for example, 10 NAIA soccer players were high draft choices in the NASL, one of the top pro circuits.

The NAIA is pleased to be able to bring its 19th National Championship Soccer Tournament to Huntsville, Alabama. We sincerely appreciate the excellent cooperation received from Huntsville Soccer, Inc. and the University of Alabama-Huntsville, co-sponsors of the tournament and the over-all leadership provided by Tournament Director Dennis Killips. The NAIA is very dependent upon the cooperation of member institutions and support civic organizations for excellent facilities and the administrative resources so essential to conducting a tournament of national championship calibre.

It is our sincere hope that this championship meet substantiates the NAIA belief that collegiate sports can help build character, leadership and good citizenship.

HARRY FRITZ
Executive Director
NAIA

Greetings to the coaches and athletes at this week of championship soccer at the University of Alabama in Huntsville. Soccer has enjoyed a phenomenal growth in the NAIA Championship program and has become one of the major sports attractions in the United States.

Congratulations to the eight Area Champions who are competing for this National Championship title. May this tournament be a highlight of your intercollegiate career and may each coach and athlete bring honor to himself, his team and the institution he represents.

The National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) wishes to express its thanks to the University of Alabama-Huntsville and Huntsville Soccer, Inc., co-sponsors of the 19th annual NAIA Soccer Championships, in producing this annual Championship event.

This Championship soccer event is just one more example of the NAIA's belief that intercollegiate athletics are an integral aspect of the total educational program of the institution.

We trust that this week, with the fine people of Huntsville, will be a high point in your life and that it will be one more worthwhile educational experience that the NAIA and your fine colleges and universities have provided.

What is the NAIA?

The National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) is a completely autonomous Association, currently administering programs of intercollegiate athletics in 515 fully-accredited four-year colleges and universities. NAIA membership is distributed throughout all 50 states with two institutions in Canada included among the membership. The fundamental tenet of the NAIA is that intercollegiate athletics are an integral aspect of the total educational program of the institution. This belief is strongly reflected in the governance documents activities and organizational structure of the Association.

PURPOSE AND HISTORY

Established in 1940 as the National Association of Intercollegiate Basketball, the NAIA emanated from a "National Small College Basketball Tournament" inaugurated in 1937. Now in its 41st year in its original 32-team format and still played in Kansas City, the NAIA Basketball Championship Tournament is the nation's oldest and largest collegiate basketball championship. In 1952 the competitive program was expanded to include tennis, outdoor track and field and golf. Football (two divisions), cross country, baseball and swimming were added to the national championship agenda in 1956 and wrestling (1958), soccer (1959), bowling (1962), gymnastics (1964), indoor track and field (1966), ice hockey (1968) and volleyball (1969) championships are more recent additions. The initial purpose of the NAIA — to provide national championship opportunities to colleges and universities, competing below the major level — has been well served.

NAIA organizes and administers all areas of intercollegiate athletics at the national level, including rules and standards, and district and national sports competition. Solutions to vital problems affecting member colleges and other institutions of moderate enrollment are also of concern to the Association.

The NAIA clearly outlines its own responsibilities and those of its members: a sound athletic program, administered and controlled by those responsible for the administration of the college. This means direct supervision in the matter of caliber of competition, financing the athletic program, and taking steps to assure that financial assistance is made available only through the institution and under the same general policies as aid to all students. In short, the basic premise is that the athletic program must be a basic component of the general education process in the institution, and not an enterprise apart.

District competition and meetings are emphasized and encouraged, and throughout its span of activities, the NAIA receives direction from the membership in a democratic fashion.

The NAIA encourages a broad program of athletic pursuits in its member schools, and making the program available to the greatest possible number of students. The national organization aims at uniformity and equity in policies and practices throughout its district and national tournament meets.

WELCOME!

On behalf of the Madison County governing body, it is my privilege to welcome you to what we term the Number One County in America. We refer to our County in this manner because we were honored to win more National Awards for County Programs than any other County our size in America.

One of the program awards given us was in the field of recreation. We are proud to number ourselves among strong supporters of the great sport of soccer. May the best team win!!

Sincerely,

James Record, Chairman

Office of the President

The University of Alabama in Huntsville is happy to join hands with the City of Huntsville and the Chamber of Commerce to sponsor a visit to Alabama by the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for its national soccer tournament. UAH is the youngest of three universities which make up The University of Alabama System and now has an enrollment of approximately 4,500, including continuous education.

The University has been in the forefront of the recent surge of interest in this country in the game of soccer, which is the most popular sport in most of the world. It is now the fastest-growing sport in the United States and we are proud to be a part of that growth. Last year we participated in the national championship tournament in Pasadena, California, and now we are glad to have the opportunity to co-host the tournament here and give the South an opportunity to see championship calibre soccer matches right here in Huntsville. Welcome to our community and our campus.

Sincerely yours,

Benjamin B. Graves

ARTS AND ENTERTAINMENT

The ALABAMA SPACE AND ROCKET CENTER houses the largest aerospace exhibit in the United States. It was established in 1970, is located on a 35-acre tract and administered by the State of Alabama. The center is visited by more than 250,000 people per year. The NASA Marshall Space Flight Center, the U.S. Army Missile Material Readiness Command and prominent aerospace and missile industries are represented at this unique space and defense exhibit. It is dedicated to the understanding and advancement of space exploration and missile development.

The exhibits include full-size military missiles and space vehicles including the Apollo-Saturn V moon rocket, hardware recovered from space, a moon crater, 40 participating displays and the home of monkeynaut Baker. There is a simulated moon flight "Lunar Odyssey" which provides two G's of gravitational force. Weightlessness can be experienced in the zero gravity force machine. There is a special room with a valuable collection of Dr. Werner Von Braun's personal papers and memorabilia.

The center conducts a variety of live demonstrations related to space travel and runs numerous space and missile films daily in its 220 seat auditorium. Tours of NASA's Marshall Space Flight Center are conducted daily.

CONVENTION FACILITIES

The $15 million Von Vraun Civic Center added a new dimension to the area's cultural life, entertainment and recreation. The center is one of the most modern complexes in the United States. It is located downtown next to Big Spring International Park. The multi-purpose arena with flexible seating for up to 9,000 accommodates ice shows, ice hockey, basketball, circuses, rodeos, popular and country music, trade and home shows, and conventions. An exhibit hall with 20,000 square feet and seating capacity for 2,000 provides facilities for conventions, business meetings. The center has a large banquet kitchen.

The fully-equipped concert hall seats 2,250 and accommodates major musical, theatrical and dance performances. A small theatre offers flexible staging and seating arrangements for up to 506. There is also a museum with 16,000 square feet of floor space.

RETIRED LIFE

Huntsville and Madison County have an unusually high retention rate for citizens retiring from government and industry. Favorable living conditions and opportunities for leisure, public service and part time work have caused a large number of retirees to remain here or to return after retiring. Many of these men and women are still fairly young and have a wealth of knowledge and experience.

Some 7,000 military retirees enjoy advantages offered by the U.S. Army's Redstone Arsenal, including medical care, purchasing privileges, recreational facilities, Officers Open Mess and NCO Open Mess. All national civilian and military retiree associations sponsored by many groups and supported by local governments have started pioneering efforts toward the "re-cycling" of retirees in their own and the community's interest.

The University Of Alabama In Huntsville

The University of Alabama in Huntsville is one of three independent institutions within The University of Alabama System.

The youngest of the three universities, UAH became completely independent in 1969, when Dr. Benjamin B. Graves was appointed its first president. He continues to serve in that capacity today.

The university's roots date back to 1950 when the first academic offerings became available in Huntsville under the sponsorship of the University of Alabama in Tuscaloosa.

Today, the institution's graduate and undergraduate programs are divided into five schools: Science and Engineering, Humanities and Behavioral Science, Nursing, Primary Medical Care, and Graduate Studies. A variety of offerings are also available through the UAH Division of Continuous Education, both for college credit and continuing education units.

UAH is also the location of the Kenneth E. Johnson Environmental and Energy Center which conducts a variety of research projects concerning solar energy, air and water pollution and automotive safety and emission problems.

Current figures place UAH enrollment at approximately 4,500.

At present, UAH has a physical plant consisting of 12 major buildings located on the 337-acre campus and in the Huntsville Medical District, with three more buildings under construction.

The university owns 88 apartment units and leases an additional 24 units to provide housing. Plans are under way for construction of more units because of increasing demand by students.

HISTORY

Huntsville is tradition and heritage. Huntsville is Big Spring, sacred meeting place of the Choctaw-Chickasaw Indian Nation long before John Hunt, first English settler, built his cabin there . . . Big Spring — source of America's first public water system — now focal point of Big Spring International Park, itself the aesthetic core of Huntsville's ambitious urban development program.

Huntsville . . . first English-speaking community in Alabama, with Alabama's first bank, first public library, first Protestant church, first railroad, first commercial hotel, first Masonic Lodge, and the first capital of the state. It is the Dogwood City . . . its hills whitely virginal and bridelike in spring. It is the Rocket City, Space Capital of the World. Its Juno II launches the first two American astronauts, the first American satellite, and orbited Pioneer IV around the sun. It is the home of the scientist, the engineer, the technician . . . drawn with their families from all over the world to this nucleus of America's activity in space exploration.

CLIMATE

Huntsville has a temperate climate. The City is surrounded on three sides by the foothills of the Appalachian Mountains 300 miles north of the Gulf of Mexico in the Tennessee River Valley.

While Huntsville rises approximately 600 feet above sea level, certain residential and recreation areas within the city limits reach an altitude of 1,800 feet.

Weather data recorded since 1959 show an average annual temperature of 60.7 degrees, with July being the warmest month at an average 79.3 degrees, and January the coolest month at 39.5 degrees. Total precipitation is 53.18 inches per year. Snowfall is negligible. Total degree days average out an annual 3,300.

A LOOK AT LAST YEAR

Senior Ken Whitehead's first period goal was all the padding goalie Darryl Wallace needed as Simon Fraser University CANADA (District 1) downed Rockhurst College MO, 1-0 to win the NAIA's 18th Annual Soccer Championship played at the Rose Bowl in Pasadena, California.

Four-time defending champion Quincy College ILL had to settle for third place, beating Davis & Elkins WV, 2-1, in the consolation match after having lost to Fraser 2-1 in a grueling record-setting 221:43 quarter-final game. Senior Brad Mason won the game for SFU at the 111:43 point in the 12th sudden death overtime period.

One additional tournament game record was set during the marathon battle — most fouls with SFU getting hit with 61. Quincy tied the record for most corner kicks (12) during the game. Maine-Portland/Gorham's John Sylva came up with four goals during his team's 7-4 win over Alabama-Huntsville to put his name in the record-book while SFU's Whitehead set a tournament foul record with 20 called indiscretions. Sylva's six tournament goals made him the top scorer of the meet while SFU's Wallace was the top goalkeeper with a 0.50 yield average.

Wallace, a Clansman sophomore, was named the meet's Most Valuable Player while teammate Whitehead, SFU's all-time leading scorer took Outstanding Forward honors. Rockhurst's Keith Gehling was tabbed Outstanding Back while the Hawks' Tony Tocco was named Coach of the Year.

PHIL DELAVAN, NAIAC President

On behalf of the NAIA Coaches' Association I wish to extend my congratulations to the eight teams at this week's 19th annual NAIA Soccer Championships at the University of Alabama-Huntsville.

The NAIA Coaches' Association is extremely proud that you have had such an outstanding season. May your participation in this national championship be remembered as the greatest accomplishment in soccer you have been privileged to attain.

To the city of Huntsville, the Huntsville Soccer, Inc. and the University of Alabama at Huntsville, the NAIA Coaches' Association wishes to say thanks for being the host city and host institution for this national soccer championship. Your cooperation in providing this site is a factor that makes NAIA national championships a most attractive national athletic event.

To you soccer coaches who are attending this national championship, I hope you will enjoy the thrills of this tournament. The NAIA Coaches' Association encourages you to join the Soccer Coaches' Association. Through your membership in the NAIA Soccer Coaches' Association you are contributing to the overall success of a strong NAIA Coaches' Association. We, the officers of the NAIA Coaches' Association, want to assist your coaches' association and it is our goal to serve the NAIA and its member coaches in every way possible.

PHIL DELAVEN

Getting all your adventure from TV?

Instead of getting your excitement from watching the exploits of others, you could be having some of your own.

By driving a tank. Or jumping out of a plane.

Or by learning a job you never thought you could do. Or doing a job you never thought could be done. Or going places you never thought you would go.

Or simply by putting on a uniform and getting satisfaction from an old-fashioned feeling that you're doing your best in the service of your Country.
