CEDARVILLE, Ohio - Cedarville University's head women's volleyball coach, Doug Walters, has completed his recruiting for the 2010 campaign with the recent signing of Lauren Williams to a letter of intent. She is currently a senior at Trinity High School in Garfield Heights, Ohio.

The 5-foot-6 defensive specialist also plays for the Cleveland Volleyball Company and helped her CVC team to a top 20 finish at the national tournament last year.

Williams is excited to join the Lady Jacket volleyball program and begin her college education at Cedarville. "I chose Cedarville because of the friendliness of the students and the professors who encourage spiritual growth and academic success. During my tryout on campus, I felt right at home and at ease with the volleyball team. I was also impressed with CU's pharmacy program," noted Williams.

Coach Walters is equally upbeat about adding Williams to his 2010 squad. "We are very excited to have Lauren join us as part of the volleyball program. Her speed and determination will help us significantly in the back row. Lauren has a great heart for Christ and is the first volleyball player to be a part of the new pharmacy program at Cedarville!"

Lauren is the daughter of Emanuel and Sheryl Williams of Cleveland, Ohio.
